FLOOD HORROR GROWS

West Virginia is Swept by Floods Result of a Cloudburst.

EIGHT VILLAGES ARE WIPED OUT

Property Damage Totals More Than $2,000,000, It is Estimated.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Twenty-three bodies have been recovered from the debris carried down by the flood which swept the Cabin Creek valley near here yesterday. Rescue parties have penetrated some distance above Cabin Creek junction and meagre reports brought back by couriers and from the railroads indicate that the loss of life has been heavy although no accurate estimate can be made. Persons driven from their homes to the mountains are returning to find whole villages of mining cabins swept away, while distress and suffering is seen on every hand.

Two companies of the Second West Virginia infantry left camp Kanawha by trolley this morning and were taken to Cabin Creek Junction with orders to penetrate the valley and extend relief to all who needed it. They carried provisions and tents.

A special train was being made up here on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad and will go as far as the hastily repaired tracks will permit. From that point numbers of men provided with provisions will seek out the spots where destitution is most pronounced. It is expected they will be able to go the entire length of the valley and penetrate adjoining valleys, also hard hit, before tomorrow.

Looting Begins.

Reports reached here today from United States Commissioner Howard C. Smith, who led a relief party for a number of mining camps last night, that looting had commenced and that a number of arrests had been made and some property recovered.

R. Jaco, a lineman of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone company, reached Cabin Creek Junction shortly before noon after a walk of over thirteen miles of the company's lines between Miami and Desota. He declared that forty persons had been drowned and half that number of bodies had been recovered.

Jaco was unable to get up the Kayford branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, but expressed the belief that damage and loss of life in that district was greater than in other sections. The entire valley between Miami and Desota was devastated, he said, everything movable having been washed away. The excursion train carrying 410 persons, marooned by the flood, was located today between Horse Creek and Little Horse Creek with washouts on both sides. Relief was sent from St. Albans. Women and children constitute the majority of excursionists. Soon after 11 o'clock the soldiers reached Ronda, where headquarters were established and from which point the relief work will be carried on. At that hour an estimate of the dead remained at 100, but those responsible for the statement admitted it was only an estimate.

RESCUE PARTIES AT WORK.

Full Extent of Damage Will Not Be Known for Several Days.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Rescue parties worked desperately today in an effort to make their way up the Cabin creek and Coal river valley, which for twenty miles southward from the Kanawha river, were devastated yesterday by a cloudburst which left in its wake a death toll estimated at more than one hundred persons and a property loss of at least $2,000,000. Because of the topography of the country, state authorities here expressed the belief that it would be several days before the full extent of the flood could be ascertained.

At least eight villages and mining settlements in the district were either wholly or partly destroyed while many others felt the effect of the storm more or less. Those practically destroyed or badly damaged were Acme, Ronda, Dry Branch, Miami, Sharon, Dawes, Kayford and Eskdale. Between Acme and Kayford sixty persons are reported to have been drowned.

Two companies of the second regiment, West Virginia national guard entrained for the flood zone today with tents, provisions and medical supplies. Major William Wallace, of the United States army, will be in charge of the relief expedition which will proceed by rail as far as possible and then march to all points devastated by the flood. Local officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad today declared that it would be at least two weeks before travel could be resumed in

Indian Scouts With U. S. Army Growing Restless

Headquarters, Mexico, Aug. 10.—Indian scouts with the American troops are becoming restless due to long continued inactivity.

The score of Apache scouts have been placed in a camp by themselves. Their war dances and disputes over the number of notches each is entitled to disturb the peace of the entire camp. The old scouts who surrounded Chief Geronimo, thirty years ago, have united against the younger element. One of the chief troublemakers, Jesus Valesquez, who laid claim to nine "kills," has gone, no one knows where, but rumor says his departure was due to official invitation.

It also requires close watching to keep beverages with more than 3 per cent alcohol out of the Apache camp. On one occasion Lieut. J. E. Shannon, who is responsible for the good conduct of the Indians, had to call upon his boxing ability to subdue two scouts who had gone on a celebration.

To reconcile the Indians to their lot, hunting is allowed. The other day a party brought in ten antelopes.

Metal work also serves to pass the dull hours. Loco Jim hammered out the silver stars for Col. George A. Dodd when the colonel's promotion to brigadier general was received. Officers are wearing rings made by the Indians from silver coins. But peace proves irksome and the scouts break out at intervals either with a quarrel or a war dance.

STONE WANTS INVESTIGATION

SENATOR BORAH DOES NOT AGREE

Executive Sessions Relic of Antiquity, He Declares.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Investigation of the means by which a confidential copy of the treaty under which the United States would acquire the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 became public was demanded in the senate today by Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee. An abstract of the treaty issued this morning is believed to have been made from one of the copies sent by the state department to the senate with a letter transmitting a request of the Danish government that terms of the convention be withheld until the two governments agreed to promulgate them.

"It is hard for me to believe," said Senator Stone, "that any senator of the United States would give this treaty to the public under the circumstances. Every senator has a right to a copy and to go to the executive clerk and get it. If any senator did, he knows where it has gone. But if he exposed it to the public, he did a dishonorable act and ought to be disciplined by the senate."

Senator Stone declared he thought the body of correspondents in the senate press gallery would not resort to dishonorable methods in the acquisition of news.

Only One Opinion.

"I have no criticism of the correspondents," he continued, "but when a great newspaper comes into possession of a confidential communication of this kind sent by the president of the United

POLICE PLACE LITTLE CREDENCE IN STORY

Two Women Tell of Jump from Flying Auto at Midnight Hour.

Police place little credence in the story told by Mrs. Anna Berger, 2139 John street, and Mrs. Bessie Heizer, 819 Eliza street, who tell of a wild leap from a speeding automobile, into which they had been seduced Wednesday night. Mrs. Berger is bruised and scratched as the result of the fall from the machine, she claims, and the other woman is slightly scratched from leaping from the car, she tells.

The women say they do not know who the three men were who induced them to enter the automobile by telling them it was a jitney. They say that they became alarmed when they realized that they had been deceived and were not being taken home. They both leaped from the car when it was speeding in order to gain their freedom, they say.

The affair occurred near the home of F. C. Witte, 3536 Lafayette street, and Mrs. Berger was taken into the house there. Dr. M. B. Catlett was called to administer to her injuries. She was hysterical.

The women say that they expected to be taken home. Police think that the women have not told the entire story. One of the women is well known in police circles and only last week threw a brick through the window of a saloon in a fit of anger, it is alleged. Police have been unable to find any automobile number registered which corresponds with the one given by the women as being on the car.

ENGINEERS SAY THE PROGRESS IS SLOW

Appraisal of Properties for New York Central is Being Taken.

Engineers in Fort Wayne to appraise properties of the New York Central railroad, the data to be for the use of the interstate commerce commission in fixing rates and taxation, report slow progress from their offices in the federal building. So far nine miles of track have been appraised out of this city.

Have Some Trouble.

The engineers have found difficulty, they say, in collecting data in the yards of the railroad in this city. They have 400 miles of road to appraise before January 1, when they are scheduled to go south.

They are working out of this city toward Jackson, Mich. The engineers are using the federal building for quarters until their car is out from a repair shop.

A total of $31 has been paid in gross sums, seven persons have pledged definite sums and eleven have sent checks and did not designate whether they represented a stated monthly contribution or not.

SALESMAN KNOWN HERE EXPIRES AT KOKOMO

Thomas H. Burke, aged fifty years and a traveling salesman well known in Fort Wayne, passed away at a hospital in Kokomo Wednesday. He was active in the state Travelers' Protective and the United Commercial Travelers' associations. He was acquainted with many of the Fort Wayne traveling and business men. He was formerly engaged in business in Kokomo, but in recent years had been a salesman for a Kokomo automobile concern. He was a very active and ardent worker in the Knights of Columbus' circles throughout the state and had at one time held important offices in the order.

BOARD STARTS ITS HARD JOB

First Conference is Held in Effort to Avert Rail Strike.

Little Chance of Railway Employes Consenting to Arbitrate.

New York, Aug. 10.—The United States board of mediation and conciliation held its first conference today with the representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods of employes in its effort to prevent through mediation a country-wide strike to enforce the employes' demands for an eight-hour-basic-day and time and a half for overtime.

Nothing was officially disclosed as to the success the mediators met, but it was learned on good authority that the brotherhoods had shown no disposition to modify their demands.

"The status is unchanged," is the only comment which A. B. Garretson, head of the conductors' brotherhood, was willing to make after the conference adjourned. "We have only scratched the surface," said G. W. W. Hanger, one of the three members of the mediation board. "The situation may be cleared up within twenty-four hours and then negotiations may continue for a week." The mediators arranged for a second conference with the railroad managers this afternoon and to meet the brotherhoods' representatives again tomorrow morning.

Deliberations Are Secret.

The deliberations are secret. Mr. Chambers said the mediator would have a much better idea of the situation after talking with the employes' committee today. There are three possible results of the mediation. One is that the federal board will be able to get the managers and workers to sign an agree-

GROCER IS BANKRUPT WITH $9,000 IN DEBTS

A. T. Brase Files Petition in Bankruptcy in District Court.

Albert F. Brase, grocer at the corner of DeWald and Calhoun streets, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in United States district court. He lists liabilities of $9,000 and assets of $4,000. His chief creditors are relatives although forty merchandise firms are in the list. He operated the store at the location for about a year.

HUGHES MAKES TWO SPEECHES

Republican Nominee Enters North Dakota on Western Tour.

CANDIDATE FORMS NEW ANANIAS CLUB

Secretary of Commerce Redfield is First Charter Member.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles Evans Hughes, republican presidential nominee, entered North Dakota today in his western campaign tour and reached here shortly after 7 a. m. Two speeches were on the day's program—one here this forenoon and the other this evening at Fargo, where the Hughes party will spend the night.

At St. Paul, Minn., Mr. Hughes established a new Ananias club with Secretary of Commerce Redfield of President Wilson's cabinet as the first charter member.

Confronted with a telegram from Secretary Redfield demanding that he retract his charges made in the Detroit speech, that the government service has been prostituted, especially in the census bureau, Mr. Hughes not only refused to retract, but proved his charge to his own satisfaction and, he believes, to the satisfaction of the public.

E. Dana Durand, former director of the census, is out with a formal statement, not only supporting Mr. Hughes in his statement, but charging specifically that Secretary Redfield himself broke the news to him that the administration wanted his job. Durand says over his signature that his resignation was "forced."

Question of Veracity.

The Durand statement raises squarely the question of veracity as between Sec-

GANDY WILL BUILD THE NEW BARRACKS

Contract Awarded Huntertown Man on Receipt of Bids Thursday.

Contract for erecting a barracks at the county farm was awarded by the county commissioners in their court Thursday morning to Wilbur M. Gandy, of Huntertown, on his bid of $3,698, over six other bidders. The Schwegman-Witte company, got the plumbing contract on its bid of $1,007. Four other plumbing firms submitted bids. Contract calls for completion of the barracks October 1.

Appropriation Made.

Appropriation for construction of the barracks was $6,000. The county commissioners have been able to utilize $140 worth of old lumber, thus knocking off some of the expense for timber. The barracks will be 92x35 feet and one story. Plan to erect the building to house lazy husbands has been discussed during the spring and sentiment to build it grew until an appropriation was made.

Bids Opened.

Bids were opened in the court of the commissioners at 10 o'clock. Bidders, excluding the successful bidder on the general building contract, were: W. L. Ringwalt, $4,150; Charles Rodenbeck, $4,360; William Wiegman, $4,483; H. C. Hockemeyer, $4,734; Gustave Lindeman, $4,238, and Charles Wermuth, $4,085. All are from Fort Wayne. Bidders on the plumbing contract, excluding the successful bidder, were: Alfred Rolf & Brothers, $1,294; Jahn & Meyer, $1,132.08; J. P. Martin & Co., $1,049.59; P. B. Arnold Co., $1,032.

MUCH NEW TRADE IS GOBBLED BY THE JAPS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—While the United States has been hammering away at the business of filling war orders, Japan has been hammering just as effectively at the business of gobbling up great slices of the sort of world trade that won't be effected by peace in Europe. This is the fact revealed by statistics gathered by the department of commerce.

The war has changed Japan from an importing to an exporting nation. In 1915 Japan imported merchandise valued at $265,160,069, a decrease of $31,516,322, as compared with 1914. Exports amounted to $352,736,884, an increase of $58,368,356. And note this: Japan's exports to the United States during the eleven months ending May 31, 1916, gained $40,500,000, while American exports to Japan gained only $18,000,000.

DEATH SUMMONS MAN WITHOUT A WARNING

Heart Trouble Claims James Smeathers While He is at His Work.

While at work on the third floor at 908 Calhoun street, Thursday morning, at 8:20 o'clock, James Smeathers, 615 Baltes avenue, dropped dead. The end came without warning as he had not even made a complaint that he was feeling ill. Workmen saw him fall and when they reached his side a few seconds later, all signs of life had gone. The coroner was summoned and found that death was due to heart trouble.

The deceased was employed by Paul Kinder, the contractor, as a handy man. Carpenters had finished their work in this building and Thursday morning he began cleaning up. He had just carried down a basket full of rubbish and returned upstairs. He picked up a piece of wood and asked the other workmen whether they wanted to use the piece. He had hardly finished the sentence when he threw up his hands and fell to the floor, a corpse.

Smeathers had resided in Fort Wayne for the past twenty-five years, moving to this city from a farm north of the city. Since living here he had been employed by Mr. Kinder. He was sixty-eight years old. A widow and two small children survive.

Today's program included a public reception, at which party leaders were expected to recite efforts that have been made during the present congressional session in behalf of the equal suffrage amendment. The election policy of the party, considered the chief business of the conference, is on the program for action on Friday.

ITALIANS TELL OF BIG BATTLE

After Three Days of Hard Fighting Gorizia is Captured.

AUSTRIANS PUT UP STUBBORN FIGHT

Bombs Containing Poisonous Gases Left in the Trenches.

Today's War News Given in Summary

News from the Isonzo front indicates that the army of the Duke of Aosta is rapidly following up the notable success won by the Italians in the capture of the Austrian stronghold of Gorizia with some 20,000 prisoners.

Italian troops are reported in force over the Isonzo, vigorously pursuing the retreating Austrians whose big seaport of Triest, 22 miles to southeast, is threatened.

Along the Somme the British and French are making slow but reasonably steady progress in their respective thrusts toward Bapaume and Peronne. Last night French troops pushed forward further in the Helm wood sector where the most telling blows have been struck in the recent fighting.

The British pressure continues to be exerted northward from Pozieres where they are struggling to gain complete command of the ridge overlooking Bapaume. They made a new advance last night. Another important advance for the Russians in Galicia is announced today.

Gen. Ltschky's army has pushed west of the Stanislau-Kolomea railway line and cut the Stanislau-Nadverna railway at Kryplin. This progress for the Russians brings them to the southwest of Stanislau, whose speedy evacuation by the Austrians is now considered probable as the Russians are rapidly hemming it in.

Rome, Aug. 9 (via Paris, Aug. 10).—10:35 a. m.—The operations which led up to the capture of Gorizia by the Italians are described in the following official narrative given out here tonight:

"The attack began on Aug. 4 in the Monfalcone against hills 85 and 121, east of Rocca. We stormed a very powerful enemy works there, taking 143 prisoners, but the adversary had placed in abandoned trenches quantities of bombs, which, exploded, giving off clouds of poisonous gases just as our troops entered the captured lines. Heavy masses of the enmey then made counter attacks and our troops, stupefied or asphyxiated by the gas, were forced to fall back to their own trenches.

DAMAGE SUIT RESULTS IN FATAL SHOOTING

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 10.—Dr. M. C. Dunne, a physician, today was shot and killed on the main street here by Charles Wynne, a member of a prominent local family. The shooting followed a $10,000 suit for damages filed against Dunne by Wynne, in which he charged the doctor with an attack on Mrs. Wynne when she went to his office for treatment. On yesterday Wynne filed suit for divorce from his wife, alleging misconduct with Dr. Dunne. The shooting occurred this morning as the doctor was stepping from his automobile to make a professional call. Wynne, according to witnesses, rushed up to him and fired five shots at close range. Dunne soon died and Wynne went to the police station and gave himself up.

SHIPPERS WARNED OF CAR SHORTAGE

Washington, Aug. 10.—Carriers, shippers and consignees were warned today by the interstate commerce commission of a threatened shortage and their attention called to the need for close supervision of loading and unloading. The commission urged that cars be not used for storage purposes, and suggested that the carriers return cars to their home lines as quickly as possible.

Heavy movements of grain are said to be partly responsible for the threatened shortage.

RUSSIA SENDS MORE TROOPS

SOLDIERS GIVEN GREAT WELCOME

Brest, Aug. 10.—(1:05 a. m.)—Another contingent of Russian troops has been landed here. The soldiers were given an enthusiastic welcome.

The first Russian troops to land in France arrived in Marseilles on March 20, having sailed half way round the world from Vladivostok. They were followed by three other contingents and after a short rest were sent into the trenches in Champagne. Nothing has been made public officially as to the numbers of this Russian expeditionary force, but unofficial estimates have placed the strength of the first contingents at not less than 20,000 men. The earlier arrivals had no arms and were equipped by the French.

RAIN AND MIST HINDERS.

Fifteen Battles in the Air Took Place on the Somme Yesterday.

Paris, Aug. 10.—10:45 a. m.)—Further progress for the French troops north of Helm wood in the Somme sector is announced in an official announcement by the French war office today.

Rain and mist have impeded the operations north of the Somme. South of the river a German reconnaissance using liquid fire was dispersed by the French infantry fire west of Vermandovillers.

Only intermittent cannonading in the neighborhood of Fleury, Vaux and Chapitre is reported from the Verdun sector.

Fifteen battles in the air took place yesterday on the Somme front. One German aeroplane is reported to have been destroyed and two forced to descend inside the French lines. French machines dropped 413 bombs on various railroad stations.

CAPTURE RAILWAY STATION.

Petrograd, Aug. 10.—The capture by the Russians of the railway station of Kryplin on the Stanislau-Nadvorna railroad was announced officially today.

C. M. Mills, manager of the Rurode dry goods store, left today for a trip down the St. Lawrence river and via Lakes George and Champlain and the Hudson river to New York city, where he goes on business for the firm.

Late News Flashes From Washington

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Captain George L. Converse, who has served for several years as professor of military science and tactics at Ohio State university, has been reappointed for another four-year term.

Isadore Flexner, of Springfield, Ohio, has been appointed a clerk in the war department.

The president today nominated the following to be lieutenants in the medical reserve corps: William David Jack and Harry Knott, of Indiana, and Fred Paul Weltner, of West Virginia.

After many attempts to obtain information as to why Jacob Hoffman, of Dubois county, Indiana, is being held at Victoria, B. C., by the Canadian military authorities, Representative Cox, a former neighbor of Hoffman, today introduced in the house a resolution requesting the secretary of state to furnish the house a statement showing why Hoffman is being detained, what crime, if any, he has committed against the British government in Canada; when he was arrested, by whom and by what authority, military or civil; whether arrested upon affidavit, oral authority or suspicion; also, whether he has had a trial or a hearing, and before whom, and the decree rendered, if any.

Senator Taggart has prepared a vigorous speech which he will make in the senate on the pending revenue bill. He will speak plainly in pointing out the slipshod and extravagant methods of legislating enormous sums out of the treasury and will plead for a more business-like administration of public affairs than has been given by any political party. He will advocate the creation of a tariff commission as a much needed step toward taking the tariff out of politics and adjusting the schedules on a strictly business basis. In reference to raising money to pay for the preparedness program he will advocate a low interest-bearing bond issue, distributing the cost over a period of years.

CAR INSPECTOR IS KILLED UNDER CARS

Andrew W. Moyer Loses Life in Pennsylvania Railroad Yards.

While assisting in making a coupling on a freight train in the local Pennsylvania railroad yards, Andrew W. Moyer, aged thirty-eight years, residing at 1325 Horace street, suffered injuries at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday evening which caused his death a few minutes later. A switch engine crashed into the rear of the train near Winter street, knocking Moyer to the ground. The cars ran over him and he lost both legs.

F. W. McGarry, 2334 John street, a brakeman, who saw the accident, rushed to Moyer's side and while attempting to pull the injured man out from his perilous position, was also injured. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a badly sprained back.

When Moyer saw the brakeman at his side he told him that he believed he was a "goner" and asked him to tell Mrs. Moyer just how the accident happened. He bled to death before a physician arrived.

The freight train had been inspected, but when it started out it was discovered that one of the connections were faulty. An effort was being made to remedy it when the accident occurred. The engineer was given the signal to back up and while Moyer was standing at the point where the connection was to be made the cars crashed in on him.

The deceased was born and reared in Wells county, Indiana, but had resided in Fort Wayne for the past four years. He was employed at Bowsers until last April, when he went to work for the Pennsylvania company.

He was a member of the Red Men and of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Relief. Besides the widow he is survived by two children—Eva, aged twelve, and Glen, aged ten; the father, who resides in Decatur; four brothers and three sisters.

FEWER DEATHS FROM INFANTILE PARALYSIS

But There is Little Change in Development of the Epidemic.

New York, Aug. 10.—Fewer deaths but little change in the development of the epidemic of infantile paralysis was noted in today's bulletin of the health department. During the twenty-four hours preceding 10 a. m. today the plague killed thirty-eight children and 157 new cases were reported in the greater city. Yesterday's deaths numbered fifty-seven and new cases 183.

HEALTH SERVICE ACTS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—The public health service, aroused over the inability to check the infantile paralysis epidemic in New York, has called a meeting of state health authorities to be held here next Thursday. Plans will be developed to combat the spread of the disease. The health service also seeks the experience of those in the states who have dealt with infantile paralysis, and may be able to suggest some means of curbing the epidemic.

COMPLETE PLANS TO ADJOURN CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—September 1 is the latest date now suggested by senate leaders for adjournment of congress.

The plan as formulated in conferences yesterday, provides that no important legislation be considered at the present session except the shipping, revenue, employers' liability and supply bills and conference reports, with a view to adjourn by the end of this month. It would eliminate the corrupt practices bill and the bill to enlarge the interstate commerce commission.

WOMEN WILL USE THE BILL BOARDS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Billboard advertising will be used extensively in an effort to defeat the democratic party for its neglect to adopt the national woman suffrage amendment, it is announced at headquarters of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, and the National Woman's party. The campaign will be waged particularly in western states having equal suffrage. In the districts of representatives who oppose votes for women posters will advertise the legislator's attitude, it was said, with pleas to defeat him.

G. L. Harris, a machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, will leave tomorrow with his wife for Manchester, O., where they will visit relatives.

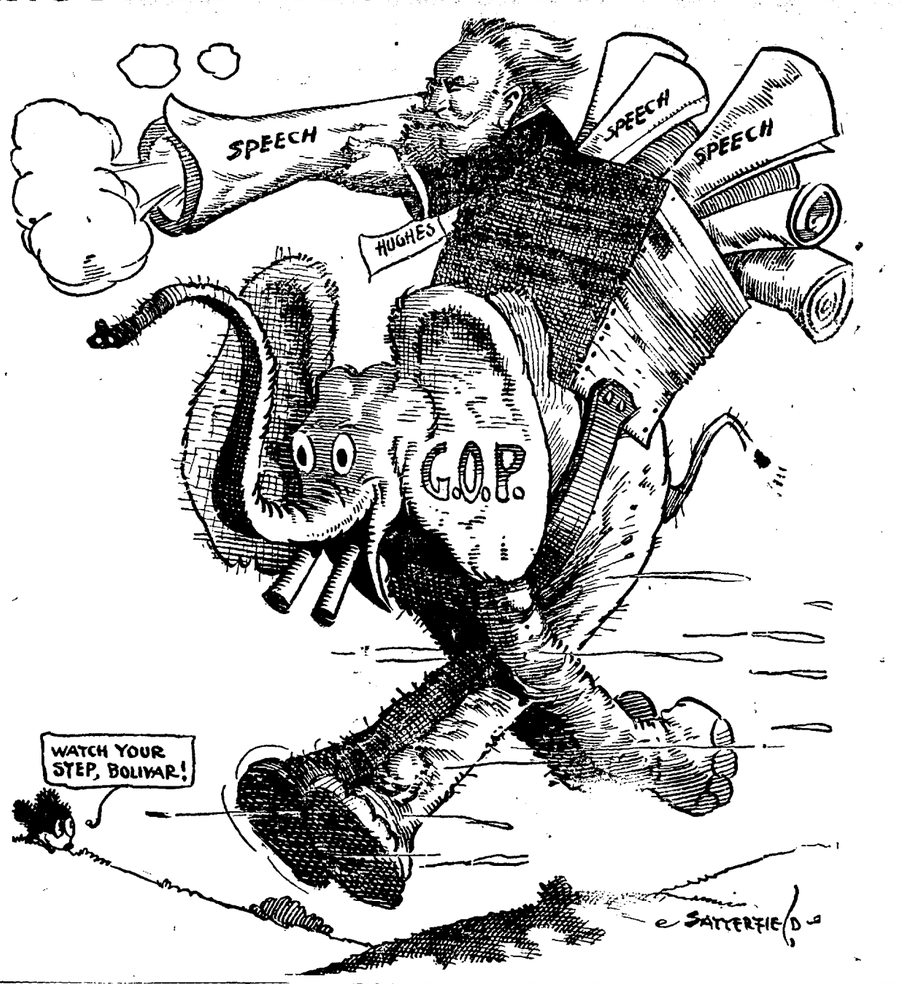
ANOTHER "WESTERN DRIVE" IS ON!



CAPT. JOHN SCHEFFER IS IN DECATUR TODAY

There is Possibility of Securing Several Men for Battery.

Capt. John Scheffer of the local Battery D went to Decatur Thursday morning, where, it is understood, twenty-eight men are awaiting him to be examined and mustered into the service. Peace strength has been reached, but the captain desires to reach 150 by the time the mobilization orders are received from Indianapolis.

As the members fell in for their regular drill practice Wednesday evening Ben Barva and F. T. Wichmann, composing the well-known manufacturing firm on East Berry street, presented the battery with a beautiful silk guidon, or artillery colors, with the cross-guns and regimental number and letter worked in gold.

WILL REACH CRISIS LATE IN OCTOBER

Trade Commission's Report on Paper Prices Will Be Published Oct. 1.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The crisis in the newspaper print situation, which has already cut down newspaper profits enormously, will not be reached till late October when contracts come up for renewal, according to reports received from many sources by the federal trade commission. The presidential election, together with the European war, is expected to increase an already unparalleled demand for news print which manufacturers tell the trade commission they will be hardly able to meet. This year for the first time they have not been able to lay up a large reserve during the summer.

The trade commission's report on its investigation of news print prices, it announced today, will be published no later than October 1, regardless of whether congress still is in session.

The great question in deciding whether there has been collusion among the manufacturers to boost prices unduly is said to be whether the increased demand for paper has been entirely disproportionate to the increased production. Manufacturers claim that publishers are using 20 per cent more paper than ever before. Consumption figures presented to the committee vary widely. G. F. Steele, secretary of the News Print Manufacturers' association, has estimated that figures for June "show the largest daily production of news print ever recorded." Shipments, he declared, represented 99 per cent of this production. None of the substitutes for pulp recently suggested is commercially feasible, according to officials of the various bureaus interested. Cotton stalks, most frequently mentioned, would be prohibitively expensive to collect, they say. The same situation holds for corn stalks, broom corn, rice straw and flax. As yet the experiments have not passed the laboratory stage and as far as known no commercial use of the discoveries is contemplated anywhere.

VILLA BANDITS SLAIN, OTHERS ARE ON TRIAL

Young Social Leaders of Chihuahua City Forced to Clean Streets.

Chihuahua City, Mex., Aug. 10.—Gen. Trevino has received a report that five Villa bandits captured in the Mapimi region and brought to Bermajillo have been condemned and shot. Court-martials are sitting this week in the cases of the bandits captured at San Ignacio, who belonged to the band engaged with the Americans near Fort Hancock, and of those brought from Cerro Gordo. The Cerro Gordo men claim in defense that they were captured by Villa at Jiminez and impressed by him under threats of death.

Col. Benito Garcia, formerly of Villa's army, has left Torreon on a special mission for the Carranza government. He is instructed to bring in Geronima Padilla, former Villa general and head of a band in the Duranga hills. Padilla has made overtures toward a surrender.

A number of young society men of Chihuahua City have been sentenced by Acting Governor Trevino to serve as street sweepers for twenty days. They were found guilty of disturbing the night's rest of the household of the father of Governor Ignacio Enriquez, while serenading the town after a dance. Governor Enriquez is in the City of Mexico.

Dr. Gibbons said the historic vessel is now in the commercial museum in Philadelphia and that he purchased it because he heard it was soon to be demolished. The Holland is sixty-one feet long by eleven feet beam.

ITALIANS TELL OF BIG BATTLE

enemy's whole front with the object of distracting his attention and fixing the ranges accurately. On the morning of Aug. 6 our batteries opened fire simultaneously on the rocky barrier which from Sabotino to Cavario defends the Isonzo and Gorizia to the west and against Monte San Michele, which forms the northern edge of the Gorizian Carso. The real action of the day long and carefully worked out, represented a perfect example of concentrated fire against forified lines.

Infantry Columns Advance.

"Infantry columns then advanced with customary dash, well supported by a curtain of fire of artillery, and carried the entire formidable Sabotino rampart, the point of which formed the base for the Gorizian bridgehead. On the heights which cover the city to the west they stormed the defenses of Oslavia and of the summit of hill 206, which commands Graffenburg. On the plain they drove in a defensive line between the southern border of Podgora and the Isonzo. They also attacked on the right bank of the river as far as Saint Andrea. On the southern border of the Carso Italian troops captured the very strong lines on the summit of St. Michele and the entrenchments running into the San Martino zone. Finally in the Monfalcone section a battalion of Bersaglieri cyclists from the Third, Fourth and Eleventh regiments after a desperate struggle stormed all the defenses on hill 85 and held out there against violent concentrated artillery fire, repulsing furious counter attacks by Austrian infantry.

"Possession of the lateral pivots of the Gorizia bridgehead being assured by the conquest of Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele, it remained to take the imposing barrier formed by the heights immediately to the west of the city. The battle ebbed and flowed incessantly for three days. The ground was fortified strongly and supported by a great number of lines of defense which rendered it easy to offer stubborn resistance and enabled the Austrians to make violent counter attacks. Inch by inch and at the cost of generous sacrifices our infantry, with the admirable co-operation of our artillery, conquered first the crest and then the southeastern slopes of the heights and stormed innumerable trenches, gradually driving the defenders before them, notwithstanding repeated counter attacks.

"As a result of all these continuous efforts all the heights on the right bank of the Isonzo, forming the bridgehead of Gorizia, and Monte San Michele on the left bank, were captured and are securely held by the Italians. The line of the Isonzo below Tolmino is assured to them and as their guns, dominating Gorizia, drove out the enemy lurking along the ruins, this uninterrupted three-day fight covers with glory the troops of the third army, commanded by the duke of Aosta."

POPE IS INTERESTED.

He is Watching the Irish Situation With Keenest Interest.

London, Aug. 10.—The Irish situation is being followed by the pope with the keenest interest, according to the Liverpool Post, which states that the pontiff is most anxious for the pacification of Ireland. In an article in today's issue, the paper says:

"The pope and the statesmen of the vatican are most anxious for what is described as the pacification of Ireland. This anxiety has been made known to the Irish Catholichierarchy through the most direct source and of course it has not escaped attention. The rector of the Irish college in Rome has been in close association of late with diplomats and statesmen of the vatican and has conferred with divines who enjoy the pope's confidence, including Cardinal Gasquet, who has recently been in England."

HEAVY DAMAGE INFLICTED.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Heavy damage was inflicted by bombs dropped from Zeppelin airships in the raid over England on Tuesday night says an official statement issued today by the chief of the naval staff. All the airships returned undamaged, despite a violent counter action by anti-aircraft guns.

BELGIANS IN CHARGE.

BOARD STARTS ITS HARD JOB

ment. Another is that the mediators will be able to induce both parties to consent to arbitration if mediation fails. The third possibility is that the federal board will fail in both these endeavors.

President May Act.

It was predicted today that if the board should be unable to compose their differences President Wilson would ask representatives of the contending factions to meet him in Washington and that he would ask them to arbitrate their differences. The mediators announced that no statement would be forthcoming from them until they either have succeeded or failed. It is understood that the labor leaders pin their hopes of settling the dispute upon mediation rather than arbitration, now that the managers have failed to agree with them. They are opposed to arbitration. W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Enginemen and Firemen, said: "Arbitration is a gambling game even when the dice are not loaded. Railway employes have lost faith in the justice of arbitration boards. They believe arbitration is as fickle as chance. If there is arbitration of this eight-hour demand and every effort is made to appoint neutrals entirely free from prejudice, it is but tossing pennies to decide the question. Why has none suggested that the matter be settled by 'pulling straws' and relieve everybody of the bother."

HUGHES MAKES TWO SPEECHES

retary Redfield and himself. Durand is now a professor in the University of Minnesota.

After reading the Durand letter Mr. Hughes launched into a scathing denunciation of the Wilson administration, not only reiterating his charges made heretofore, but directly accusing the powers that be at Washington with having willfully prostituted the public service of this country by turning out expert public servants and putting political favorites in their places.

He cried shame upon them and brought into play all his powers of indictment, together with the pledge that if elected president not a single unfit or incompetent man would get a political appointment, regardless of his standing in the party councils.

DID NOT RESIGN.

Senator Townsend Says Durand Was Told to Quit.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Senator Townsend, of the census committee, made a statement today supporting the declarations of Charles E. Hughes that E. Dana Durand, former director of the census, was removed from office to make a vacancy for political reasons and taking issue with Secretary Redfield's rejoinder that Mr. Durand retired voluntarily.

"The secretary of commerce says Mr. Durand resigned," said Senator Townsend. "That is not correct. The fact is that Secretary Redfiied called in Durand in April and stated that he desired his position. Durand replied that much important work was in progress and that he ought to be allowed to finish it. The next day Harris' (William J. Harris) nomination was sent to the senate and the next day it was announced that Mr. Durand had resigned."

Senator Townsend said he had explained the facts to the census committee and delayed the confirmation of Harris.

Wants Country to Know.

"I believe it is well for the country to know the facts," continued Senator Townsend. "Mr. Durand was practically removed; he resigned under pressure after he had stated he ought to remain until the census reports were completed. The telegrams sent out by Secretary Redfield absolutely were unfaithful to the facts. Mr. Harris was appointed for political reasons and his name sent after Mr. Durand was forced out of office."

Senator Smith, of Georgia, said he "desired to congratulate the other side in that they have at last found an issue. "My criticism of the president and secretary of commerce in this matter," Senator Smith said, "is that they did not remove Mr. Durand frankly and openly from office. He was inefficient as an executive officer. There was waste of money, duplication of work and carelessness of management in his administration. He was a man utterly without executive capacity of the kind needed in a director of the census."

Senators Stone and Hardwick retorted that the republicans seemed pleased at having found an issue. Mr. Harris is now a member of the federal trade commission.

the Cabin Creek valley. They also said that the company's yards at Kayford had been destroyed and will have to be rebuilt.

Railroad Tracks Washed Out.

Reports said that portions of the track of the Virginian railroad between Robson and Deep Water had been washed out and that service on the road had been temporarily suspended. Word was anxiously awaited from the 300 passengers who were on board an excursion train when it was marooned near St. Albans. A report was received late last night saying the train had been abandoned when the water reached the floors of the railway coaches. Another passenger train was also marooned near that point but no word has been received from it.

FILLED WITH WRECKAGE.

Gallipolis, Ohio, Aug. 10.—The Ohio river here is filled today with wreckage from the Cabin creek cloudburst. Parts of houses, bridges and thousands of logs and vast quantities of lumber compose the mass of debris which has stopped navigation by river boats. It is believed bodies of some of the victims may be going down the river in the wreckage.

States to the senate and prints it, is an entirely different matter. Every senator and every patriotic American can have but one opinion of such action."

The senator emphasized the importance of secrecy because of the fact that a similar treaty with Denmark was interfered with and ratification prevented several years ago. The present case, Senator Borah said, illustrated the inadvisability of considering all treaties in secret. "This dealing with treaties in executive session is wholly fruitless," he said. "Executive sessions have become a relic of antiquity and should be dispensed with."

Before the Committee.

The treaty by which the United States would acquire the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000, recently signed by Secretary Lansing and Danish Minister Brun, is now before the senate foreign relations committee and probably will be considered early next week. It became known today that the treaty was sent to the senate in executive session Tuesday and referred to the committee without discussion. At the request of the Danish foreign office the terms of the convention are to be considered confidential until both governments agree to have them announced.

The fact that $25,000,000 is the consideration to be paid by the United States leaked out some time ago, however, and in a general way the nature of the document has been discussed. It is understood that in return for the cession of the islands of St. Thomas, St Croix, St. John and "adjacent islands and rocks" with all public buildings, fortifications, public funds, rights and concessions belonging to the Danish government the United States is to pay in gold the sum of money stipulated within ninety days after ratification of the treaty, maintain certain grants, licenses and concessions granted in the islands by Denmark and guarantee the rights of Danish citizens residing in the ceded territory."

W. I. Journey Brings Suit Against Western Union Telegraph Company.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 10.—Suit has been entered in the circuit court by William I. Journey against the Western Union Telegraph company, asking judgment for $100. The plaintiff contends that on June 28, 1916, the defendant company negligently transmitted a telegram to James O. Pierce, bookkeeper at the Journey Manufacturing company plant, of which the plaintiff is manager. The message came from George B. Lourie, sales manager of the Peru Plow and Wheel works, Peru, Ill., and was originally intended for Frank W. Journey, to whom it was addressed, but because of the alleged negligent action of the defendant company in telephoning the message, the plaintiff was given to understand that the message was intended for him. The message pertained to work and the plantiff made a trip to Peru, spending $50 in car fare and losing four days and nights, which he valued at ten dollars per day, judgment for $100 being asked.

Discovery Forces Hair to Grow

You Actually See and Measure the Wonderful Results of the New Discovery, "Vola-Vita."

There is no hair discovery which has ever produced such remarkable results as Vola-Vita. This is the new principal hair remedy, which has solved the problem of growing hair, stopping hair from falling, restoring original color to any hair in a natural way without a dye, and stopping dandruff. Vola-Vita contains no alcohol whatever.

"Vola-Vita Positively Stops Your Hair from Falling, and Compels It to Grow—One Trial Proves It!"

It has now been discovered that hair consists of five principal elements. When any of these is missing, the hair begins to fall, dandruff, grayness and baldness follow. When the missing elements are restored, hair begins to grow again, and its real color returns.

This has never before been accomplished. It is now done positively and definitely by the new hair discovery, Vola-Vita.

This remarkable hair grower restores the missing elements to hair. That is why in a short time, by its use, hair is actually grown on heads that have been bald for years. Vola-Vita compels hair to grow luxuriantly, fills out bald, thin spots. Dandruff will positively disappear. Itching and falling of hair absolutely stop.

No matter what was the original color of your hair, whether red, brown, black or other shade, Vola-Vita will bring gray, faded or bleached hair back to its original color. Vola-Vita is not a dye. It contains no alcohol to dry up the natural secretions of the hair. It is different from any other hair treatment known. You will see its results soon after you begin to use it. Start today. Satisfaction guaranteed.

"Vola-Vita" is sold at all drug stores in 50c and $1.00 bottles, or sent direct by Vola-Vita Mfg. Co. Chicago, Ill. The $1.00 bottle contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Proverbs 14:1-18.

1 Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the Lord: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

Amusment Mad

The United States has gone amusement mad within the last decade. At Huntington the manager of a moving picture theater thought he couldn't give his patrons all the amusement they wanted in six days so he opened his place on Sunday with the result that he and his employes were promptly arrested.

The millions invested in theaters of every sort—good and bad—the so-called amusement parks which go to the extremes of absurdity in providing new thrills, the silly cabaret, the wild speed contests of the automobile drivers, the skating rinks, dance halls, the scramble after new games of every sort, all are symptomatic of the fever in the American blood for diversion that can be enjoyed without mental exertion.

It is not to be said that all of these means of amusement are evil; on the contrary, several of them, within limits, have their proper usefulness. But the lamentable thing about it is that as a people we have come to the point where we must have all our pastimes ready-made and we are not content with them six days, but Sunday must be included. Few of us nowadays are able to extract entertainment from life except by buying it or getting it from sources entirely outside ourselves. Self-entertainment is almost a lost art.

A painful basic lack is responsible for this condition: Individual taste—personality—has been smothered by conformity to popular standards. We swallow our education as it is handed us. We get our politics second-hand. We read what the crowd reads—when we read—sing the song that is "popular," talk as the parrot talks, wear what "they" wear, see what is conventional to see, and do what "the others" do all the way through.

The average individual is bored by his own company—and perhaps the fact that he is so bored is the one redeeming and hopeful trait in his make-up. To sit alone for an hour with his own thoughts, to be isolated absolutely from his common sources of entertainment, is not a pleasure but a punishment. Somebody wrote somewhere that there are few persons who can stand the test of waiting all alone half a day at a lonely junction for a train—in other words, that most of us are lost in our own company. And it is true.

The greatest gift that a parent or a teacher can bestow on a boy is to give him a rational hobby—to instill in him a taste for good books, a love of good music, a thirst for things beautiful, an interest in mechanics or nature or art or politics or some subject capable of arousing his enthusiasm and absorbing his energies.

To get a real interest in life—to have some kind of an ideal—is to protect the mind against shiftlessness and the soul against ennui.

If we are going to keep our boys and girls out of the pits of debauchery, we have got to give them something else to think about than mere ready-made entertainment.

For the individual who can't enjoy his own company will seek not better, but worse.

In voicing his protest to the passage of a mother's pension bill Senator Lee S. Overman, of North Carolina, is quoted as saying: "Keeping children at work in cotton mills is one way of keeping them out of jail. What would you do with an orphan boy who is making $10 a week and supporting his widowed mother?" He also is quoted as saying that fewer children are in jail in his state, where they are allowed to work, than in Massachusetts or Missouri, where they are not." But such argument is not very convincing nor does it do credit to a United States senator. Thirty-two states have mother's pension bills. Unfortunately Indiana is not one of the thirty-two.

The agreement of representatives of the railroad employes to accept the offer of the United States board of mediation and conciliation to submit their demands to mediation, has caused general rejoicing throughout the entire country. To tie-up the railroads of the country would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall us. Come to think of it this country has been on the verge of several calamities during the past two or three years and somehow we always avoid them. Surely there are many things for which we should be thankful and the avoidance for the present of this threatened railroad strike is by no means the least of them.

While England, Germany and France are pretending to be making the rich pay the cost of the war now being waged in that country by pointing to the big income tax, big tax on profits, etc., the fact remains that after all it is the plain people who are paying the real price—in suffering and death.

Judge Ben B. Lindsay, of Denver, Colo., simply demonstrated his good judgment. He has announced that he will support President Wilson for re-election

Why Not?

WANTED—A MAN.

[St. Louis Times.]

"We want a man," says a big corporation, advertising in this newspaper. Well, let's see; what sort of a man does it want?

A lazy man, a shirker, a clock watcher? No. It says he must be an "energetic hustler." No fellow who is looking for an easy job, for a soft snap, need apply.

A man who has become flat-chested, stoop-shouldered and sickly from dissipation? No. The very first requirement mentioned in the advertisement is that he must "possess vigor."

A man who is content to drift with the tide? No. It says he must have "enthusiasm and ambition," and the word ambition is in capital letters. Also, he must have "earnest purpose and common sense."

A grouch, a cross-tempered, uncivil man? No. The advertisement states that he must have "good personality," which means that he must be a likable man, a man whom other manly men will respect.

A college man? Not necessarily. "A fair education" is all that is required.

A man of loose character? No chance. He must have a "clear record."

A diffident, bashful, timid man? No, sir. This job is not for him. No good job is or ever was for the shrinking, self-effacing, you-go-first sort of a man. That kind never arrives. This job is for a man "with full confidence in his own ability," and that accomplishment is left for the last punch in the advertisement.

What's the pay? There's no limit. Go as far as you like. The man who can fill this bill is the kind that goes to the top, and they're scarce as hen's teeth. Big business is hunting for this kind; and rewards them. A firm in New York advertised recently for a man to fill a hundred-thousand-dollar-a-year job and did not find him.

There are plenty of the other kind, though. Plenty of the ten-dollar-a-week kind; so many thousands of them that they gang around the bottom rungs of the ladder.

A NEW USE FOR SALT.

(New York World.)

The preservative, the cleansing and the soothing effects of salt have been known for ages. To this extent, and with some recognition of existing practices, the use of saline solutions in British military hospitals, noted in a recent cable dispatch, is not new. The interesting points are in the evolution of salt to the position of a sole healing agent, and in the method of application by a constant stream which, in a single flowing, washes the wound, guards it from infection and contributes healing power.

An ancient and common household article thus supplants, after the initial disinfecting, the highly scientific, antiseptic appliances of the day.

This elaboration of an old remedy recalls to mind the medical stir which followed in 1901 the publication from the University of Chicago, by Dr. Jacques Loeb and Prof. D. J. Lingle of the theory that a solution of common salt in the blood neutralized by calcium and possibly potassium salt solutions, was the cause of the rythmic beating of the heart. All doctors had known of saline injections to stimulate the heart. Those who hesitated over the new proposition admitted the physiological importance of salt and its ability, after a hemorrhage, to supply the deficiency in circulation until new blood is made.

Inland people of old esteemed saline springs as gifts of the gods. Chips of salt were anciently used as money, and the mineral stood, as many passages in the Bible testify, for high religious symbolisms. The sharing of salt represented in other days a sacred pledge of friendship. A precious and essential quantity in our daily living, though but casually regarded on the grocer's bill for supplies, salt may yet be r vealed in a more intimate relation to life itself than daring scientists have guessed.

PETITIONS OUT FOR OPENING OF STREET

Petitions asking that Webster street be opened to make it meet at the north end with Wells street, are being circulated among tax payers of the Webster street neighborhood. The matter will be layed before the board of works. If the plans are carried it will mean a new bridge across the St. Mary's river and a subway at the intersection of Webster street and the Nickel Plate railroad.

Board of works members are discussing the advisability of building a new bridge across the St. Mary's river at the west end of Dayton avenue to replace the present one at the southern terminus at Broadway.

RE-MARK THE HIGHWAY.

Men Arrive to Establish Route of Lincoln Highway With Signs.

Marking of the Lincoln highway through Fort Wayne began Wednesday, when four men employed by the Lincoln Highway association arrived and started work. They started in New Jersey and will continue westward until the Pacific coast is reached. Red, white and blue signs are being repainted and right and left-hand markers are being established. Small pro rata assessment for the men doing the work is the only expense to the local association.

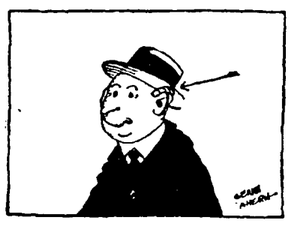
AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL?

Unnatural History, by Eugene Ahern.

"KNUTTY KNOWLEDGE."

Hear ye! Hear ye! To those who wear their hats on either the left or right ear—no more lying awake nights, squirming around the bed in anguish on account of the hat rim rubbing the roof off your ear when you talk.

Harvey L. Tack, an alderman of Rubbish, Ind., in his spare moments, (24 hours a day,) has answered your plaver by inventing an "ear-easer."



It's funny you never thought of it.

It's a juvenile anti-skid chain that fits over the top of the ear, thus preventing the hat rim from starting friction with the rim of the ear when you talk.

At first Harvey will ask a stiff price for his brainy product, so he can get established. And if you can't afford the kale for an "ear-easer" for a while, to overcome the pain of the hat rim one-stepping the edge of the ear when you talk, why, just stop talking!

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

There are thirty-two prisoners at the county jail.

C. J. Bulger has sent in his resignation as captain of the Fort Wayne Rifles.

Miss Helen Moffat returned from Warsaw today after a pleasant visit of a week at the Laubach cottage.

A foundling which was left in the St. Mary's school yard last evening, was taken to the St. Vincent Orphans' asylum.

Dr. J. M. Driver will deliver the Labor day oration in this city. The Simpson church pastor is the champion of labor interests.

The City hospital is one of Fort Wayne's grand benevolent institutions. Valuable additions are now being added to the building.

Dr. George C. Stemen, a young physician of this city, today received a letter asking him to accept the deanship and chair of professor of surgery in the New Orleans Medical college.

Cholera infantum is more prevalent and more fatal than it was last year. One undertaker has buried more children from this disease since August 1 than he did the entire corresponding month a year ago.

Henry Beadell, of the People's store, will leave tomorrow for New York city and other cities of the east to purchase new fall and winter goods for this already popular house. He will be absent about three weeks.

This morning while Letter Carrier John A. Soliday was making his rounds, he was bitten by a vicious dog owned by Daniel Edwards, 22 West Creighton avenue. The wound a deep and ugly one, was cauterized by Dr. Heaton. An order was issued for the dog to be shot.

L. Fulner, a young man whose parents are well to do, near Gar Creek, was found insensible on West Superior street at 5 o'clock this morning. Blood was oozing from ugly wounds about his face, head and hands, indicating that he had been the victim of a murderous assault.

George Reiter's museum of natural curiosities is constantly being added to. Last evening A. J. Krider contributed to it a piece of boatman's tow line, which had lain buried beneath the water of the Rudisill pool for nearly half a century. He found the rope yesterday and it is in a remarkable state of preservation. It recalls the canal boat era.

STATE TEACHERS' FUND AMOUNTS TO $86,750.85

Forty-Four Thousand Dollars Have Been Invested in Bonds.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—Total receipts of $86,750.85 have been the income of the teachers' retirement fund since the state law, enacted in 1913, went into effect, according to a report submitted today to Governor Ralston by the board of trustees of the fund. Receipts from the twenty-five units created under the law amounted to $85,270.33, on which the interest earning was $1,480.52. Administration expenses so far have been $950, while the only beneficiaries of the law thus far—fifteen former teachers of the Evansville schools—have received a total of $3,031.25. JACOBSON PAROLED.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—Max Jacobson, a chauffeur formerly living in Marion, sentenced from the criminal court here to the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville for involuntary manslaughter, has been paroled, Governor Ralston has announced. Jacobson was sentenced more than a year ago. He was 17 years old when an auto he was driving struck another machine north of Indianapolis. A woman in Jacobson's machine was killed and also a woman in the other automobile. The young man had been hired to take a party of men and women to various roadhouses. They all left the state before the trial. Strenuous efforts were made to keep him from being sentenced, and several attempts have been made to get him released since. Judge Collins, Prosecutor Rucker and citizens of both Marion and Indianapolis signed the petition for his release.

He expects to file his verdict in the case later.

Mystery of Dreams! It Has Been Solved! Disguise Can Be Torn from Visions' Meaning by Skilled Interpreter

Night Dreams Are Day Dreams in Disguise, Says Eastman, Student of Freudian Dream Theory.

(This is the first of a series of three articles on "The True Meaning of Dreams," by the American writer who is the greatest American authority on the subject.—Editor.

BY MAX EASTMAN,

Famous American Psychologist and Student of Freudian Dream Theory.

The mystery of dreams, what they are and why they occur, has been solved by a modern psychologist, Dr. Sigmund Freud, of Vienna. And the solution is so simple that we wonder why everybody did not think of it. NIGHT

MAX EASTMAN

DREAMS ARE SIMPLY DAY DREAMS THAT WE HAVE "PUT OUT OF OUR MINDS," RETURNING IN A DISGUISED FORM!

The disguise can be removed by a skillful interpreter, and after he removes it we can generally recognize the old day-dream ourselves!

Here is an example. An unhappy husband who was a musician had a friend named Bob who was a bachelor Bob lived in North Carolina.

The husband dreamed that he took the train for a place called Carolina City and when he got there he found Bob standing outside of a cage and in the cage was a skeleton. It seemed to be the body of a dead bird. Bob said: "Why that isn't a cage, it's a trap!" Then Bob and he went off into the woods together.

That seems to be as foolish and uninteresting as our dreams usually are. But a little interpretation will show that it expresses in a disguised form the fondest desire of that unhappy husband. "Carolina City" means the place where Bob lives, and where he has frequently visited Bob and lived like a bachelor with him. Going to Carolina City means going back to bachelorhood. When he gets there he finds Bob standing OUTSIDE OF a cage in which is a dead bird. The cage is matrimony, and the bird is the soul of the musician who verily feels that marriage is a cage—no, not a cage, but a TRAP! So he and Bob go off together—FREE!

As soon as the interpreter revealed to that dreamer the underlying substance of his dreams, he recognized it as the expression of an inward longing which he "would not allow himself to think about." In other words it was a day-dream that he had "suppressed." He refused to allow it to enter his mind in its own person, and so it went and hunted up those ridiculous disguises, and appeared as a perfectly fantastic and meaningless series of events.

That is what our SUPPRESSED DESIRES, the day-dreams we have "put out of our minds, are always doing. They are coming back to us at night, dressed up in strange and outlandish clothing. They are trying to conceal their true nature, and that is why they slip out of our memory with such mysterious elusiveness after we wake up. They are afraid they will be found out.

Children's dreams are not disguised in this way, because CHILDREN DO NOT TRY TO PUT THINGS OUT OF THEIR MINDS. If they want anything, they naturally think they ought to have it. And so you will find your child dreaming that he ate the cherries you would not let him have for dinner, and dreaming that he stayed up late and had wonderful adventures among the electric lights. Children's dreams FRANKLY AND OPENLY fulfill their unsatisfied wishes. And grown-up people's dreams fulfill their unsatisfied wishes too, but not frankly and openly, because grown-up people are always trying to SUPPRESS THOSE WISHES AND REFUSE TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE THEM!

Do you ever dream that somebody dies? Investigate that dream, and make sure you remove the disguise from the person and find out just who it is that dies.

YOU DO DESIRE OR YOU HAVE DESIRED THAT PERSON'S DEATH. But this desire was so shocking to your moral sense, when it appeared, that you refused to think of it for an instant. You refused CONSCIOUSLY to think of it. But the fact that you still dream it shows that it remained in an UNCONSCIOUS part of your mind.

And that is the second great discovery of Sigmund Freud, the discovery of the existence of an unconscious mind. It is far more important than the discovery of the origin of dreams, because it explains to us a great many diseases and troubles that we never understood before, and often enables us to cure them. It enables us to understand ordinary human nature a great deal better, too.

(The second article in Eastman's great series on "What Dreams Really Mean" will be printed in this paper tomorrow).

"PEAR" POCKETS FOR AFTERNOON GOWN.

Smart afternoon gown of navy blue French faille, with blue chiffon, embroidered in dark blue and burgundy. Notice the huge pear pockets at the hips. They are made of sheerest chiffon and will prove one of the most distinctive features for gowns of this class during the fall season. The sleeves are chiffon, embroidered in rings of burgundy and blue. A circular faille cuff just above the elbow adds a chic effect.

The hat with this gown is of blue velvet, droop rim and trimmed with Paradise feathers flat on the brim.

HOW DO YOU WEAR YOUR HAT—KEY TO CHARACTER, 'TIS SAID.

WORN STRAIGHT, MEANS SHE HAS ABILITY TO DO THINGS.
AT THIS ANGLE SHE HAS LOTS OF "PEP" BUT IS FICKLE AND OBSTINATE
BEWARE - IF SHE HAS ONE EYE OBSCURED SHE IS MISCHIEVOUS AND FLIRTY
SLY AND SECRETIVE.
HAT ON THE BACK OF HER HEAD — SELF INDULGENT.
FLOPPY HAT - SHE IS A BUTTER FLY - INCONSEQUENT

Character reading by hats is a new and interesting pastime.

The girl or woman who wears her hat firmly and squarely is called the girl or woman who has determination and ability to do things and does them.

The girl with a flabby hat set so it seems ready to blow off any minute is said to be of the butterfly variety, without aim or ambition. Hat at a dangerous angle means the wearer is liable to be fickle and to like flattery.

She with the bonnet tilted back on her head, according to fans in character reading by hats, is prone to self indulgence. Then there is the secretive kind, hiding her eyes behind a curtain and pulling her hat down to her eyebrows.

The girl who is continually rearranging her hat and primping her hair may have a fitful mind.

MISS HEFFERN AT RURODE'S TALKS ON NEW MILLINERY.

Miss Harriet Heffern, whose home is in Minneapolis, and who has just come here to take charge of the millinery department of the Rurode store, after trips to New York and Chicago, says hats are to be one of two things this fall, either very large or quite small. As for colors, the new cerise which one may call wine, or claret, or its French name, Borbeaux as it pleases the ear, the Carbeaux, a new blue, the deep purple tones, grays, greens, reds and browns, are all good, so be the woman fair or dark, large or small, old or young, she can surely find a becoming hat. The Derby is to be a favorite among good models for school girls, and Miss Heffern is to feature hats for children and for young matrons.

BUYS HIMSELF AUTO.

Detective Sergeant Charles Spillner is bearing the brunt of remarks which are always directed toward the man who buys his first auto. Spillner bought a roadster machine because it was offered him at a bargain Thursday. He will have it ot overhauled and fitted up for family use. Spillner is a strong German sympathizer and has been called to answer for the fact that his new purchase is bright yellow in color.

MILITARY EFFECT IN PRETTY FALL COAT.

This fall coat of military effect, is made of bottle-green velour and embroidered in dull gold military braid. Large green metallic buttons are used effectively in this design. It has a loose back, hanging straight from the shoulders.

The hat—the "Bishop's Tricorne"—is made of cherry velvet, with an ostrich trim-

CHENILLE, THE LATEST FOR HATS

GO UP in the storeroom and see if you can find in the trunk an old-time tablecloth or a pair of curtains with chenille fringe. Rip off the fringe and then use it to trim or to cover entirely the top of your hat. This form of trimming is the latest thing in millinery.

An illustration of the vogue of chenille is seen in the mushroom sailor. Old rose chenille has been used for the purpose and is held on the crown and brim with black couching threads. A wheel design is embroidered in white, black and old rose wool directly in the center of the crown. Old rose satin faces the brim and throws a becoming blush on the cheeks of the wearer.

A MIDSEASON FROCK

JUST at the point when it seems almost too late to buy anything new for the summer season, a break in the wardrobe is often apparent. Either everything is too perishable and is always in the hamper, or the dark silk which you thought would finish out the season is showing cracks.

Something that will hold over for fall or winter should, therefore, be the choice when selecting the extra midseason frock. The one sketched today would make up very prettily in voile and linen and could answer the purpose of a house frock for cool weather, or it could be made of silk voile and taffeta and do for street wear quite late into the fall.

The underskirt of this frock should be of the heavier material, together with the collar, cuffs, belt and panel sections at each side of the front. These panels, by the way, are very cleverly treated with hemstitched tucks, turned downward for the blouse and upward, to suggest pockets, on the peplum. Collar and cuffs are hemstitched to match.

The rest of the blouse—which can be made in one piece, or with blouse and separate peplum—is composed of the thin material laid in fine side pleats pressed into place. It fastens down the side front.

The belt encircles the waist, crossing in front and fastening with buttons into buttonholes in the upturned tucks or pockets. These buttonholes may be made by merely cutting the hemstitching into a picoted slit at this point.

EASILY MADE DRESSING GOWN

A VERY simple and comfortable dressing gown is made of silk. It is pongee color, cool-looking and a delight to the heart of man. So, mothers and wives and sisters, you had better make one of these for the men folks. They are perfectly plain, cut on straight lines and finished with a collar of dark red or dark blue silk. The silks need not necessarily be plain, as dotted or figured ones are very attractive. Give them large, roomy pockets, as every man has to have lots of room in which to put things, or the garment will not be a success.

A LOYAL GIFT

SOMETHING that will please the ardent freshman who has not yet entered the portals of her future alma mater as well as the seasoned grad of high school or college is a traveling case of rubberized silk in the shape of the school pennant. The two colors are combined by lining the darker color with the lighter one and binding with the lighter braid. When the pennant-case is folded in three a snap holds the points secure. There are pockets in the lining large enough to hold the necessary toilet requirements for traveling, but the practicality of the case cannot dim its other attraction. You won't find a boy turning up his nose at this sort of a traveling case.

THE LINEN CLOSET

EVERY woman who is a housekeeper, whether she be a bride of a few months or a long married wife, likes to have a good supply of household linen. The engaged girl plans her linen a long time ahead of her marriage, but she, as well as the woman who has been married for some time, makes the mistake of providing no place in which to store her linen. If she scatters it all over the house she will not feel the same pride in sorting the snowy piles, and besides she gives herself extra work arranging it.

Almost everybody has a closet which can be converted into a linen receptacle. If it has a well-fitting door, so much the better. If not, a shade will do. In this latter way an alcove can easily be converted into a convenient closet, and the drawing up of the shade will give free access to it. In this case boards may be nailed for at least twelve inches from the bottom up to form a bin. This will hold blankets and extra quilts and pillows, while the wooden boarding, which can be painted to match the room or the hall, will keep out the dust which tends to roll in thru cracks.

If you have an old chest of drawers, your linen closet is supplied, but whether you use closet, alcove or chest of drawers you will find it a special convenience to have a board fastened by hinges to the wall nearby, so that you can sort and arrange the linen upon it. Make it a convenient height so that there will be no necessity for stooping.

If it is an old closet it probably has shelves. If it is new you can arrange the shelves to suit yourself and their separate uses. Paint them white both top and bottom. This will make them easier to keep clean and also give your closet a dainty appearance. White paper may be put on the shelves and lavender sachets made to scatter thru the linen or else each shelf may have a padded sachet to fit.

If you have not made a bin for the bottom, the top shelf, which is out of the way and less convenient for linen more frequently used, may hold blankets, quilts and spreads.

Sheets and pillowcases may have a shelf to themselves; towels, another, and tablecloth and napkins another, while embroidered bureau covers, bread tray covers, centerpieces, table covers, etc., may have a whole shelf on which to spread their charms.

ATTRACTIVE AND USEFUL BAG

A VERY useful bag is that made of two long pieces of flowered ribbon. These are held together by a fagoting in the color of the ribbon and at one end the ribbon is gathered to an oblong piece of covered cardboard. On this cardboard are three little straps for scissors, thimble and emery. The other end is finished in the same way with the exception that there is a little pocket made on the inside to hold various necessities for needlework. The bag may be hung on the arm by two pieces of ribbon suspended from the cardboard tops of the bag.

FASHIONGRAMS

A "VISOR TAM" is the latest arrival in millinery circles. The visor is of stiffened silk or satin and to it a face-veil may be very conveniently draped.

To wear with the military suit of jersey or khaki you may have a military felt hat with pointed crown punched into "Montana peak" creases and surrounded by a ribbon caught in cartridge folds.

The crossed blouse line is very noticeable in new frocks and even coats. It goes a little further than the surplice for it often continues in sash ends which tie in back.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Coffee Stains

Will you please let me know what I can use to take coffee stains out of table linen? I shall be very grateful for any suggestion.
Mrs. L. U.

Use warm water first and then hot water. For an old stain use peroxide of hydrogen or javelle water.

Renewing Silk Underwear

I have a silk vest that turned a yellowish white after it was washed. Is there anything I can use to make it a clear color again?
Miss E. R.

Why not dip it a light pink or any color you wish. Once silk has turned yellow it is impossible to get it white again.

POISON FOR BABY MYSTIFIES POLICE

Cannot Find Where Vials Left in Play Yards Were Purchased.

The mysterious case of two vials of poison thrown into the play yard of baby Morris Guenther, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Guenther, 918 East Creighton avenue, apparently for the purpose of poisoning the child, is causing the police greatest concern.

The baby is still quite ill from the effects of taking a few drops of the dark blue solution in diluted form, Wednesday afternoon. The child found the bottle, which contained bichloride of mercury, while romping in the yard. The thoughtless tot poured out the contents of the bottle. Some of the inky flued remained in the bottle.

The bottle was a nice drinking flask baby thought and filled it with water. Baby drank thewater. He became ill. Dr. G. M. Fonner was called. By strenuous means he succeeded in cleansing the stomach of the child of the poison, of which a few drops will produce slow death by paralysing the kidneys. The child will recover.

The father then walked into the play yard and picked up another bottle of the mercuric solution. The bottle was filled. It seemed fresh from the drug store. A part of the label "poison" had been scratched away. The name of the drug store was not given.

Guenther says he can think of no reason why anybody would seek to kill his small son. Guenther has no enemies that he knows of, he tells police.

Detectives Mystified.

Two detectives have been assigned to clear up the mystery. They have called at all drug stores in the neighborhood. No druggists admit of selling any mercuric solutions of late. There is no tangible clue as yet.

One theory held out is that the finding of the bottles in the yard does not mean that there was any intention of poisoning the baby. It is only the result of the abandoning of a suicide pact. One or two persons may have planned to commit suicide and been frightened by prospects of the awful death. They may have thoughtlessly throwed the bottles over the fence into the baby's play yard.

Police Chief Lenz gives no credit to this theory. He believes the suspicion that somebody tried to kill the child is strong enough to warrant thorough investigation along that line.

All National Guard Officers in Recruiting Duty Mustered Out.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—All national guard officers in Indiana who have been doing recruiting duty have been mustered out by Lieut. Philip Regan. The action was taken following orders from the war department. The officers mustered out were retained in the state guard, although they had been rejected by army physicians. A few recruits have been sent to the border by the recruiting officers and about fourteen now are at Fort Benjamin Harrison. Governor Ralston and Adjutant General Bridges had hoped the order for the officers to be mustered out would be rescinded before it went into effect. Detachments from the Indiana troops on the border will arrive soon to take up the work of recruiting.

HUGHES TALKS ON PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Says He Believes Farmers Should Be Protected as Well as Others.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, told an audience of farmers in the Auditorium here today that he believed in a protective tariff that would protect them as well as the men in the factories. "I believe in a protective tariff," Mr. Hughes said. "I believe in protection without abuse. I think that is possible.

"Our opponents who for generations have told us that it was contrary to the constitution of the United States to have duties except for the purpose of revenue are now telling us that there is an economic revolution and that perhaps we can have a duty on dye stuffs and a nonpartisan commission. But I believe in trusting those who really accept the doctrine of protection with its enforcement. And I believe in protection for the farmers just as I believe in protection for the men in the factories." Mr. Hughes repeated his views on preparedness saying that he stood for reasonable preparedness. "Weakness breeds insults and insults breeds war," he said. "I stand for the protection of American rights. Firm insistence of American rights backed by reasonable preparedness means peace and security."

Crisp weather, so cold that overcoats were necessary, greeted the nominee here. Shortly after noon Mr. Hughes left for Fargo, N. D., where he will address a meeting tonight.

He was born in 1836 on board one of the ships of an East India line of which his father was a director. He was an intimate friend of Dr. David Livingston.

Dr. Webster is survived by a widow and two sons, one of whom was recently decorated by the French government for his courage while serving with the American ambulance corps in France.

It is not known whether the action of the republicans will delay adjournment after Sept. 1.

Armored cars for the United States army, designed primarily to guard railroads and territory adjacent to railroad lines, and for transporting troops past danger points, are being turned out by the Standard Steel Car company at Hammond, Ind., and rushed to the testing grounds at Sandy Hook, N. J.

The cars are armored with one-inch steel plates and equipped with a three-inch field gun and twenty rapid-fire guns, the latter to be operated through openings in the sides of the car.

The interior is divided into three compartments, two for troops operating machine guns and rifles and one, in the center, for ammunition storage.

The new type cars were designed by the army board of engineers. The first was completed in twenty-seven days on a rush order given when trouble with Mexico was expected.

Man Injured In Flier Wreck Has Leg Amputated

Herman Liebig, now residing at Hanna and Pontiac streets, who was injured in the Pennsylvania flier wreck, five years ago, August 13, submitted to an operation at St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The physician found it necessary to amputate his right leg between the knee and hip in an effort to save his life.

Mr. Liebig, who is nearly fifty years of age, sustained serious injuries to his limb when the flier jumped the track near Swinney park in 1911. Several persons were killed and a score or more were hurt.

The limb has been giving him trouble ever since and it was found that he was suffering from necrosis, or death of the bone. Knowing that life depended on an operation he submitted to the surgeon's knife.

Reports from the hospital and from the attending physician Thursday afternoon agreed that he was getting along very nicely and that his chances for complete recovery are very good.

TORPEDO DESIGN IS FOUND ON IVERSON

Several Things Found Among Effects of Man Held as Suspect.

Jersey City, Aug. 10.—A drawing of what at first was thought to be a submarine and later was admitted by the designer to be a self-propelling torpedo, together with an envelope addressed to John D. Rockefeller and a notebook containing the name and address of President Wilson, were found today among the effects of Erling Iverson, who, with Axel Larsen, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of complicity in the disastrous munitions explosion on Black Tom island two weeks ago. Although the two men produced persons who declared they were with them in another part of the city at the time of the explosion the pair was held in $1,000 bail pending investigation. The drawing of the torpedo bore the inscription 'approved by Capt. J. Howard, chief of the United States submarine department June 26, 1916." There was also a notation 'To be built by Iverson & Company, London, and another, "Revolutions 150 miles an hour for U. S."

Iverson told the authorities that he planned and designed the torpedo and said that "Iverson & Company" referred to himself.

Underneath the heading, "President Wilson," in his notebook appeared a meaningless paragraph which Iverson said he wrote to amuse himself.

One letter which Iverson wrote to his mother and did not post told of "the fright he got when 'Black Tom blew up' and said there were still eight cars of ammunition on Black Tom yard."

DENY REPORT THAT KITCHENER IS ALIVE

British Vice-Consul in New York Says There Is No Truth in It.

By Herbert Duckworth.

New York, Aug. 9.—H. S. Fitzroy, British vice-consul in New York, declared today o nhis return from England that there was absolutely no truth in the report that Lord Kitchener might still be alive!

He characterized the action of Sir R. Cooper in demanding a court-martial in the house of commons on the loss of the Hampshire on the ground that there was no direct evidence that Kitchener was dead, as a piece of "political chicanery" designed to draw to himself the attention of his constituents.

There could be no doubt, Fitzroy said, that the great field marshal perished along with all other officers on board the ill-fated vessel on the night she struck a mine.

Vice-Consul Fitzroy said he had personal knowledge of all the circumstances that followed the first astounding report of Kitchener's death.

"I was present," he said, "the morning after the accident when the reports were first issued to the newspapers by the admiralty."

"But there is no direct evidence that Lord Kitchener is dead?" I said to the vice-consul.

"If by lack of evidence," was the answer, "it is meant the body was never found—that is true. In all probability, furthermore, it never will be. Few bodies were washed ashore, owing to the nature of the coast and his was not among them.

"As a final comment on the action of Sir R. Cooper in proposing a court-martial on the loss of the Hampshire, I should ask whom it would be possible to court-martial? nly an officer is subject to such action, and all the officers on board the Hampshire lost their lives."

In making his motion for a court-martial, Sir R. Cooper, among others, had asked the question, "why arrangements were made for a memorial service in St. Paul's cathedral within a few hours after the report had been received of the loss of the Hampshire.

The implication thrown out in the question was that insufficient time had been allowed for full confirmation of Kitchener's death and that the report had the color of prearrangemtnt.

FORMIDABLE DEFENSES ON BELGIAN COAST

No Spot Unguarded Says Associated Press Correspondent.

Rotterdam, Netherlands, July 31.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—A correspondent who has just been permitted to visit the Belgian coast reports on the formidable defenses that have been raised there. A long line of barbed wire entanglement stretches along the coast, and an endless series of long slender ship's guns protrude from the coarse grass of the dunes, and behind the dunes crouch the heavy howitzers.

Underground dwellings of bomb-proof concrete form part of the great trench along the entire coast, he says. "No spot is unguarded. Everywhere the endless line is occupied by sailors, who endeavor to find relief for the monotony of their life in gardening and in the care of their pigs, goats, rabbits and birds.

"Here and there one comes across an enormous unexploded shell, hurled ashore by one of the big British warships, and which now forms the ornamental center of a flower garden. I saw a big fellow among them, some of 38 centimeter calibre

"What one sees in the way of destruction is the work of the fast torpedo destroyers, which have on occasion hailed smaller shells on the coastal towns with their quick firing guns. The corners of houses are gnawed away; here and there a gable exhibits great holes. But the damage is not very bad, at least not in Ostend and Zeebrugge, much less than one would have supposed. Even on the seaside the towns appear to be little damaged. The big bath hotel at Ostend is untouched, and the great glass Kurhaus shows no breakage in its innumerable panes. A few big buildings by Zeebrugge have been leveled to the ground but that was the work of the Germans, owing to the fact that these buildings helped to direct the enemy's fire on the occasions when they sought to destroy the most susceptible feature of the harbor, the big lock.

"The real work of destruction begins where the French land guns have been able to have their say. Middelkerke is a mass of ruins. It is a remarkable fact, that 600 people continue to crouch there. The school is even still attended by eighty children. But every house has its underground refuge, such as the soldiers construct in the front lines. Shells still fall in the place almost daily.

"Middlekerke is now in such a state that the Germans no longer take up quarters there, but prefer to live in dwelling holes burrowed in the dunes. Some streets always lie open to the French observers and gunners. Long walks can be taken in the southern part of the place, by winding cover ways that have been broken and dug out, half in, half under the earth, through garden walls, houses and cellars. A deep trench is the only safe communication with the Westende watering pace where no house remains standing in the village of Westende, which is if possible even more thoroughly knocked to pieces than the watering place, I noticed that the enemy's shells had spared the part of a wall of an inn on which was inscribed its name, "In den Vrede" (The Peace Tavern.)"

MAN JUMPS FROM TOP OF SINGER BUILDING

Leaps from Fortieth Floor to Street Below, Distance of 600 Feet.

New York, Aug. 10.—From the tower of the Singer building, one of the tallest in the city, a man jumped to death today. He was identified as Albert Goldman, 60 years old. He leaped from the fortieth floor, nearly 600 feet above the street level, striking the cornice of the main building as he fell and landing directly in front of the Broadway entrance. His body narrowly escaped passersby and was crushed beyond recognition. It was identified by a will and letters found in the man's pockets.

A letter signed by Goldman saying he intended to commit suicide "from some high building down town" and containing an apology for "the trouble I am about to cause the police," was received this morning by Police Commissioner Woods. Detectives were searching for Goldman when he leaped to his death.

HAVE NOT SOLVED CASE OF DOPED GIRL

Woman Found Unconscious by Roadside Does Not Know What Happened.

After a day of careful investigation police are still at loss as to how the unconscious form of Fronie Lamare, 17, from Frankfort, came to be by the side of the Hayden road, two miles from the city, Wednesday evening.

The girl was discovered by a passing autoist when his light flashed on her motionless form lying in the ditch by the roadside. He brought her to the St. Joseph hospital. For more than an hour she lay unconscious. Doctors R. B. McKeeman and J. Frank Dinnen, who attended the girl, say that she had been heavily drugged.

She can remember nothing that took place after she left the Interurban restaurant, on Columbia street, at noon Wednesday, she says. All efforts to get her to admit that she joined friends and went for a joy ride have been fruitless. Matron Winch questioned the girl for nearly an hour Thursday.

The young woman came to Fort Wayne Monday. She expected to stay with a friend, but found that her friend had gone to Mentone for a visit. Miss Lamare saw in a paper that a girl was wanted at the restaurant. She took the place Tuesday and worked until her strange disappearance Wednesday noon.

WANTS AUSTRIA TO MAKE DECLARATION

Count Karolyi Says Government Should Make Public War Aims.

Amsterdam, Aug. 10.—A telegram from Budapest says that Count Michael Karolyi, leader of the new independence party, speaking in the Hungarian chamber of deputies, asserted it would be in the interests of peace if the government would make a declaration in regard to the war aims of the monarchy and the conditions demanded for terminating the struggle. Although he desired a speedy peace he wished it to be a lasting one. Referring to Roumania and the aspirations supposed to be cherished there for possession of Transylvania the count said:

"So long as a Hungarian breathes we shall fight unswervingly for the integrity of Hungary and the defense of Transylvania."

Count Albert Apponyi, leader of the opposition, who has accepted the program of Count Karolyi, said he saw the best guaranty of lasting peace in the strengthening of the monarchy's alliance.

FORD OWNERS TO BE IN POLICE COURT

Two Ford automobiles were lined up in front of the city hall in less than fifteen minutes after the police decided to stop the practice of running new cars about the city without proper license tags, late yesterday afternoon. The machines belonged to J. A. Shirk, Spy Run, and Tony Sarro. The men were ordered to appear in police court Friday morning to answer charges of running cars without proper numbers.

The local Ford agency is to blame, police say, for allowing the automobiles to be sent out with only a pasteboard tag "M 90" on them. Police gave Ford dealers permission to use the home made numbers if cars were to leave the city at once. They were not to be allowed to run in Fort Wayne, however. Police have noted several cars of late bearing pasteboard tags. The practice must stop, they say.

BASEBALL ATHLETICS

The New Line-Up Hits the Vanity of the Local Fans.

Next Sunday afternoon the Clearyites will have as their opponents the fast Butler Blues. This team is without a doubt the hardest hitting aggregation around these parts and is coming Sunday with their bats shined up to knock a few over the fence.

The fans have seen several classy teams in action at the park this season but the Clearyites' manager has knocked all caution into a cocked hat and secured the most expensive outfit he can find to furnish the fans with real baseball.

Olds, the pitcher that is considered by most critics as the best semi-pro pitcher in the state, will be in the box for the Blues and from the way he has been going this season he stands a fine chance of giving the Clearyites a good cleaning.

Win Five Straight.

The Clearyites have won five straight now and are sure that they can continue to do so for some time to come if aspirations have anything to do with it.

George Nill took a good workout at the park yesterday and finds himself as good as ever. Cleary has decided to put him as the lead-off man of the crowd, with the speed demon Weberus in the second stall. Nill has everything he ever had and seems good for a long time yet and the coming of the star will help the Clearyites not a little.

Bartels, the shifty third sacker of the Clearyites, will quit the Sunday ball as he says it puts him on the hummer for work Monday. Bartels is suffering from an injured hip. Dornick will take Bartel's place. The game will start at 3 o'clock. The Blues are bringing with them almost all the town.

IN PIKE'S PEAK RACE.

Rae Lentz, driving a Romano car equipped with an aviator motor, entered the Pike's Peak road race, one of the hardest races in the automobile game. In practice spins the car covered the thirty miles in fast time, passing two other machines that had a two minute start. Hughie Hughes in a Duesenburg, raced to the top in forty-five minutes, making the world's record for the upward climb. The course is thirty and one-half miles to the top and is an upward distance of 6,100 feet.

CHRISTIAENS ENTERS BIG HARVEST CLASSIC

Noted Foreign Driver Will Pilot His Sunbeam in Three Events.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—The fourth entry for the three events in the harvest auto racing classic at the Indianapolis motor speedway on Sept. 9 adds the international touch which has not been lacking in any of the events ever raced on the big brick race course. Josef Christiaens is the first foreign driver to enter the 20, 50 and 100-mile events on the program and he will drive the English Sunbeam in which he has made a name for himself on the various tracks of America as well as in foreign countries.

The car is the same which raced first in New York last spring, then in the Decoration day race here last May and then at Chicago in June. Christiaens was in the money in all three events. He finished second to Aitken in the Coney island cup event at New York, fourth in the local event and third in the 300-mile race at Chicago.

The big Belgian soldier, aviator and race driver has proven his ability in many races and is a consistent money winner. He conserves his car and if unable to finish first at the pace set seems satisfied with second, third or fourth. The car is exceptionally fast and it should make a great showing in the short races.

The motor is a six-cylinder Sunbeam, manufactured by the English Sunbeam company. It has a bore of 3.21 inches and a stroke of 6.14 inches, giving a piston displacement of 299.8 cubic inches. The car is rather heavy, weighing 2,300 pounds, but the weight seems to give it a certain traction on the giant speedway curves which causes it to ride them easily at high speed.

Christiaens Powerful Man.

Christiaens is a powerful man with a wealth of racing experience. He also has seen service as an aviator and understands the gasoline motor thoroughly. His many victories and his ability to finish high in a majority of the races he enters should make him one of the favorites here.

With Christiaens will ride Frank Bill, the little Englishman who was with him in the 300-mile race here last May. Bill is a thorough mechanic and always succeeds in keeping things lively around the track with his quaint humor. He insists that the Sunbeam is the fastest thing on wheels.

The Sunbeam brings the total to four cars entered in the Sept. 9 event. Two Peugeots, with Aitken and Merz at the wheels, and the Ostewig Special with S. Ostewig driving, are the other entries received by General Manager T. E. Myers, of the speedway.

WESLEYAN LOSES CAPTAIN.

Delaware, O., Aug. 10.—It was announced Wednesday that Captain-elect John Miller, of Ohio Wesleyan football team, who is to graduate from Ohio Wesleyan university, now at Camp Willis in hospital service, will not take advantage of his discharge Sept. 1. He will remain in the service.

COAST TWINS DISPROVE THEORY THAT TWINS LACK VITALITY.

LAMPORT BOYS, 19, PICKED TO WIN HONORS IN FAR WESTERN ATHLETIC MEET.

HARRY LAMPORT. WARREN LAMPORT.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 10—Twins are picked to furnish the thrills at the far western track and field meet to be held at the exposition Aug. 19.

The twins are the Lamport boys of Los Angeles, who disprove all theories that twins suffer in vitality and prove conclusively that both may be wonderful athletes.

For three years the Lamport boys were winners in their events in track and field sports at Manual Art school of Los Angeles. Both were hurdlers until Warren dislocated his knee in football, when he was changed to the sprints.

Harry Lamport has been captain of the Manual Arts team for two years and won the state interscholastic championship, took firsts in the high hurdles, low hurdles and broad jump. In 1915 he placed in the hurdles, shotput and broad jump. Warren placed fourth in both sprints in the Southern California and state meets in 1915 and 1916.

The twins were mainly responsible for the two state championships won at Manuel Arts and both have won their school emblems in tracks and field sports. Warren was picked on the all-southern football team as halfback and Harry was chosen on the All-Los Angeles city team as end.

Harry Lamport now holds the world's interscholastic 220-yard low hurdle record jointly with Corey, of Lewis institute, Chicago, in the time of 0:24 2-5.

Both athletes are big fellows, weighing 185 pounds, and the resemblance is striking. They are just 19 years of age, and will matriculate at the University of California in the fall.

CHANEY-KILBANE, HURRAH!

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 10.—Henry L. Bletzer, manager of George Chaney, has signed articles for the Chaney-Kilbane championship bout Sept. 4, at Cedar Point, O., and sent them by special delivery to Promoter Matt J. Hinkel, at Cleveland, with a check for $1,000 as a forfeit. Bletzer made few corrections to the original agreement, over which dispute arose, simply making it plain that the boxers must wear five ounce gloves during the mill, that he shall receive $50 forfeit should Kilbane weigh more than 122 pounds, and that the pugs step upon the scales thirty minutes before they are called to the center of the ring for final instructions.

SCRAPPERS GET LAY-OFF.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Chester Thomas, the Boston Americans' catcher, and Jimmy Austin, third baseman of the St. Louis Americans, were indefinitely suspended Wednesday by President Johnson for their participation in a fist-fight at St. Louis Sunday.

The suspension of Thomas is considered a blow to the Red Sox in their crucial series with the White Sox, which began Tuesday.

ANOTHER NO-HIT PITCHER.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Harry Seibold, of Wheeling, pitched a no-hit no-run game against Muskegon. Five men reached first base, two as a result of errors, but none passed second.

BRICKLEY NOT A GOOD LOVER.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 10—It was reported here Wednesday that the engagement of Charles E. Brickley, noted Harvard football player, to Miss Agnes Coakley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Coakley, of this city, has been broken.

Brickley is a former Harvard gridiron hero. He was captain of the famous Harvard eleven in 1914 and has been credited with being the best drop kicker ever developed. Since leaving college in 1915 Brickley has been in the insurance business. He lives with his family in Everett. Miss Coakley is 19 years old, and is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coakley.

COPS RELEASE HIM.

Durham, N. C., Aug. 10—Charles Novac, catcher for the Asheville club of the North Carolina league, was arrested here Monday, charged with an affray with Jack Corbett, of Toledo, manager of the Asheville club. The trial was held Wednesday but Novac did not appear in court. Corbett was found not guilty, as the clinching of the two men did not constitute an affray, according to the recorder. Novac was released by the club and left for Cincinnati.

PLAYER HIT BY BALL, DIES.

Jamaica, L. I., Aug. 10.—Martin Meyer, who was struck on the head by a pitched ball in a game here Saturday, and who was carried off the field when he became ill fifteen minutes later, died Monday from the effects of the blow.

RACES REARRANGED.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10—Re-arrangement for the races of the Grand circuit meet now being held here, was announced Thursday. This was made necessary owing to the postponement of the local opening for two days because of rain. The Furniture Manufacturers $5,000 stake, originally scheduled, has been postponed until Saturday.

The principal event under the new arrangement was the 2:10 trot for a $1,000 purse, in which Director Todd, Esperanza and Guy Nella were among the starters.

HINKEL GETS PERMIT FOR BOUT.

Sandusky, O., Aug. 10.—By a vote of three to two the city commission agreed Wednesday to issue a permit for the Kilbane-Chaney bout. Those who declared themselves in favor of vesting City Manager K. B. Ward with necessary authority were Commissioners C. H. Stubig, R. A. Koegle and William H. Reinhart. Commissioners Henry Graefe and R. D. Mitchell voted "no."

MISS HARRIS M WINS THE WILLIAMS' STAKE

"Pop" Geers Pilots a Winner in Postponed Races of Card.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10—Miss Harris M. won the William $2,000 purse, the feature event of the Grand circuit race meeting which opened here yesterday after rain had prevented a start on the two preceding days. She took the race in straight heats, Billy Dale and the Savoy giving her little opposition. "Pop" Geers brought Bonington in a winner in the 2:08 trot. In the second heat Mirthful, who won the first heat, again took the lead and retained it until the final stretch when Geers shoved Bonington into first place and won by about a head. The veteran driver also took the third heat in commanding fashion, which gave him the race.

Despite the heavy rains, the track was in fair condition. Summaries:

WHEN THE BIG STRIKE COMES

The people of this country will realize how much they depend on the railroad man. For years railroaders have been so matter-of-fact to us that we never give them a thought. Think of the engineers who through day and night speed us along and the dependence placed on their keen sight.

Good sight, or "20-20" as the railroaders say for perfect vision, can be had from the glasses Meigs, at 1012 Calhoun street, makes. They pass the 200% test for comfort and sight.

ICE FAMINE FEARED IN MANY CITIES

Chicago Dealers Refuse to Supply Gary and Other Communities.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 10.—Northern Indana will be without ice in its scores of huge storage houses within thirty days is the prediction of local dealers, who are alarmed at the heavy shipments to Chicago.

The Chicago companies already have cut off many northern Indana communities from their ice resources by refusing to sell supplies. Indiana ice is for Chicago, not for Indiana, local dealers have been told. Most of the storage houses are controlled from Chicago.

As a result of the Chicago companies' action in refusing to supply Indiana cities with ice, there is much distress in this region, especially in the foreign quarter of Gary, and prices have soared to $1.50 a 100 pounds. Formerly Chicago companies permitted Gary to have six cars a day, but this has been cut off. The ice that has reached the city has come by way of motor trucks sent into the country. Local dealers' contracts with Chicago companies have been broken. Gary's sole local source of supply is an artificial ice plant capable of making only fifty tons a day. On several days even the local hospital was unable to get ice, but aid was given the institution when volunteers agreed to "steal" ice from cars, enough being obtained for the fever wards.

Scores of Indiana ice cars pass through the city on the way to Chicago. Gary authorities are considering taking forcible possession of cars.

An endeavor will be made to establish a municipal ice house for the poor. It is feared motor trucks cannot bring in enough.

It is possible there will be an appeal to Governor Ralston and the Indiana state board of health, with a view of having the latter body intervene and prohibit exportation of ice from the state as a necessary protection for the public health.

CALLING FOR MARSHALL.

Kentucky Democrats Ask Vice-President to Open Their Campaign.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Urgent requests from Kentucky democrats that he open the campaign for them at Winchester on Sept. 9 have caused Vice-President Marshall to waver a bit on his determination not to make any campaign speeches until the adjournment of the congress. At the request of Representative A. B. Rouse, chairman of the Kentucky speakers' bureau, the vice-president has reopened the matter with Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national speakers' bureau.

The vice-president is also working because of the insistent demand for his services in Indiana. It is stated that if the vice-president accepted all the invitations to speak in Indiana that he now has on hand, he would make a speech there every hour from now until election. He will probably arrange the whole matter by making one speech in the most important city of each congressional district.

NICKEL PLATE YARD OFFICE TO BE MOVED

To Be Located on North Side of Tracks, West of Osage Street.

Included in the improvements now in progress at the Nickel Plate west yards will be the removal of Yard Master Charles Lyons office building, which is also the home of the yard telegraph office, and the building just west of it, occupied as an office by Track Supervisor R. A. Blair to the north side of the tracks, west of the Osage subway and near the Lake Erie and Western tracks. The foundations for the buildings are already in. The space now occupied by the yard office and track supervisor's office buildings will be filled up to the grade of the yards and become a part of them some day. The old canal basin, east of the yard office, will also be filled up and added to the yards, but the time of doing this is not set. The transfer of the buildings to the north side of the yards will be accomplished soon, however.

UP TO THE WEATHER.

Nothing but Severe Storm Can Interfere with Electricians Saturday.

The committees having charge of the arrangements for the annual excursion to Cedar Point of the Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works has performed its duties well, and the success of the event in a numerical way is now up to the weatherman. A local shower will have no bearing, but a steady and heavy downpour at the time of the departure of the trains may cause some of the timid ones to stay home. So great is the interest in the event, however, that nothing will prevent it from being the largest excursion party to leave the city for many years. Arrangements have been made with the street car company to run cars earlier enough to give service to all who wish to reach the depot in that manner, the first cars starting at 4:45 in the morning. The trains leave at 5:30, 5:45, 6:00 and 6:15 o'clock, and provision has been made for all the cars necessary to handle the crowd. In addition to the train crews, the following members of the benefit association have been assigned to look after the safety and comfort of the excursionists to and from the excursion point: F. S. Walburn, on first train; Joseph Schwartzkopf, second train; George Harkenrider, third train, and William Bierbaum, fourth train. Local Ticket Agent Ray Phillips and Traveling Passenger Agent A. H. Breed will also be with the trains.

HORSESHOERS TO CELEBRATE.

Will Observe National Holiday by Blowout Aug. 19.

The holiday of the Master Horseshoers' National Protective association will be appropriately observed in Fort Wayne Saturday, Aug. 19, when an all-day picnic and athletic tournament will be held at Centlivre park, the local association being assisted by the horseshoers from Kendallville, Albion, Auburn and New Haven and from various points throughout the state. The program will include the following events:

Ladies' race—For wives of members belonging to the organization.

Ladies' race—For wives of members belonging to Journeymen Horseshoers' union No. 81.

A girls' race (any age).

There will also be a 100-yard dash for fat men; 100-yard dash for lean men.

Hammer-throwing contest.

Three-legged sack race.

Potato race, pole vaulting and numerous minor events.

In the afternoon the Fort Wayne Amateur Driving club will stage a matinee for the entertainment of the visitors and the city's leading horsemen have entered their steeds in the four events carded on the program.

In addition to the special apprentice course he has developed considerable special work, including an investigation of the southern valve gear. Mr. Tinsley's present title will be motive power inspector.

WILL INSTALL DISPENSARY.

The officials of the Knitting Mills company have decided to install a hospital system at the plant similar to that in operation at the General Electric works. Rooms on the second floor of the main building are to be fitted up and a trained nurse will be employed. At the General Electric works, Mrs. Nora Lee Turner, the trained nurse, has an average of over forty patients daily, each accident, no matter how trivial, and each case of sickness among employes receiving first aid from her. Very few of the cases are serious enough to require medical or surgical attendance.

M. E. Dogget, employed as a pumper at the St. Mary's river station, by the Pennsylvania, had one of the small bones of his right foot broken while at work several days ago, when a wrench he was using was forced downward with great force on his foot. He was engaged in turning a bar which automatically dumps a coal car. He was taken to the Lutheran hospital, where Dr. Van Sweringen dressed his injuries.

KIDNAPING CHARGE ERASED BY MARRIAGE

James Malotista and Jennie Granatempo, 14, the pair taken by police from a house on Melita street two weeks ago after Chicago police had ordered the arrest of Malotista on a charge of kidnaping the girl, are to be married. They were returned to Chicago last week, from whence Malotista was said to have forced the girl to come to Fort Wayne at the point of a revolver. White slave proceedings against the Italian were threatened by government officials.

The couple were taken before Judge Flanagan in Chicago Wednesday afternoon. The girl denied that she had been kidnaped or had been forced to leave Chicago with Malotista. She said they were soon to be married. Malotista admitted that was true. Judge Flanagan continued the case until Aug. 30. He will have the case dropped if the pair are married then.

Fort Wayne police had been asked to locate Malotista's trunk which he had left at a railroad depot here, they said, and which was believed to hold the revolver he had used to threaten the girl. Police found the trunk, but there was no revolver in it. A long, slender dirk knife and a heavy lead slug were packed in the trunk, however.

HEAT PERIOD ENDS.

Cooler in New York Today Than It Has Been in Three Weeks.

New York, Aug. 10.—It was cooler here at 9:30 o'clock this morning than at any time at the same hour during the last three weeks. The end of the period of record heat and humidity was marked by a drop in temperature of 19 degrees and a relative decrease in humidity. The mercury in the weather bureau's thermometer registered 62 at 9:30 a. m., 19 degrees cooler than yesterday. The humidity was 78, or 15 degrees lower. Cloudy skies and sharp breeze made the weather "almost chilly," according to New Yorkers who have suffered with heat and humidity during the last twenty-one days.

KILLS PESKY BED BUGS P. D. Q.

A 25c box of P. D. Q. makes a full quart of the best bug-killer on earth. Better than a barrel of old-fashioned bug-killers.

P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quietus), kills like a 42-centimetre shell. It settles bedbugs, fleas, roaches, ants and chicken lice, and not only kills the live pests but the eggs as well.

P. D. Q. won't injure clothing, carpets, curtains, draperies or wall paper. Try it on the dog and see the fleas hop.

Your druggist has it or can get it for you. Owl Chemical Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

WHEAT CONTINUES ON ITS UPWARD CLIMB

But Fluctuations as a Rule Did Not Exceed the Usual Limits.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Notwithstanding that the wheat market overtopped at times today the highest prices of the previous session, trading was relatively contracted in volume and the fluctuations as a rule, did not exceed the usual limits. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½c decline to 2c advance with September at $1.43@1.44 and December at $1.48@1.48½ were followed by a material setback all around and then a rise to well above yesterday's finish.

Word of scattered showers had a bearish effect on corn. After opening ½@1½c lower, the market underwent a further sag, but later rallied to a moderate extent.

Heavy selling weakened oats. Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions.

Caution seemed to be the watchword today among wheat speculators, and there was a return to something like normal conditions greatly in contrast with yesterday's feverish excitement and skyrocket course of prices. Opening quotations today ranged from ½c decline to an advance of 2c, the latter confined to the May option with September at $1.43@1.44 and December at $1.48@1.48½. Many traders inclined to the view that the advance in prices had sufficiently discounted for the present all the crop damage in sight.

ADVANCING MOVEMENT RESUMED

New York, Aug. 10.—Yesterday's advancing movement was resumed in more moderate degree at the opening of today's market, gains of fractions to a full point being recorded by various specialties, including shipping shares, munitions and equipments, motors and Consolidated Gas. There were fairly large offerings of United States Steel, Reading and other speculative favorites, slightly above or under final prices of the preceding session. Trading was active and broad with variable recession before the end of the first half hour due to realizing for profits.

Transactions of the first hour approximately 250,000 shares, exceeded the entire output of some recent sessions. Declines of the usual character of profit taking were followed by a fresh inquiry which carried leading issues, notably Reading, to higher levels. There was another and more moderate reversal in the second hour, with considerable dimunition of activity. United States steel wavered, probably in anticipation of an indifferent July tonnage statement.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The western disturbance has moved eastward to the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, and a moderate high area has developed over northwestern sections. In connection therewith local showers have occurred in widely separated areas in the Rocky mountain region, and in central, southern and eastern localities, with heavy falls in parts of Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee and Florida. Seasonal temperatures prevail in southern and central districts, but as a result of the development of the western high area temperatures have fallen decidedly from the eastern slope of the Rockies westward to the coast, and frost has occurred at Edmonton, Alberta, with a temperature of 32 degrees.

The disturbance that is now passing over the Mississippi valley will move eastward and be followed by a general change to cooler weather over the middle plains states and upper Mississippi valley within the next 24 to 36 hours, and the lower Ohio valley and upper lake region within the next 36 to 48 hours. It is probable that this change to cooler weather will terminate the prolonged period of abnormal temperatures over the middle west.

REGARDS BABY BONDS AS HIS INSURANCE

"Because of an illness of some years ago," said a local business man, "I have had some trouble in securing the kind of a sick and accident policy I desire and I now invest the same amount as I would pay for the premium on such a policy in Baby Bonds with the expectation of exchanging them together with the accumulated interest for one $500 bond as soon as I hold enough to reach that figure."

Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate and bear 6 per cent. interest. There are, also, some $500 bonds with the same security and the same rate of interest. For further details see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

AN EASY WAY TO GET FAT AND BE STRONG

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams" or following some foolish physicial culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestion and nutrition assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, The Family Drug Store and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about usisng it unless a gain of weigh tis desired.—Advertisement.

SAYS PROGRESSIVES VOTE AS THEY WISH

Chairman Lee Sees No Inconsistency in Hale's Stand for Wilson.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—Matthew Hale, of Massachusetts, who, as acting chairman of the progressive national committee, presided at the progressive national conference in this city last week, has indicated that he will support President Wilson in this campaign, according to New York dispatches today. This announcement, following on the heels of the similar announcement of J. A. H. Hopkins, the New Jersey progressive chairman, who served as secretary of the Indianapolis conference last week, has aroused suspicion that an effort is being made to swing to Wilson the Indianapolis conference remnant of the party, which was left after George W. Perkins had driven through the Hughes endorsement at Chicago. It is expected that Bainbridge Colby, who was conspicuous as one of the leaders in the Indianapolis conference, will come out for Wilson in the next few days.

Lee Not Disturbed by Reports.

E. M. Lee, the Indiana state chairman, who was made by the Indianapolis conference, chairman of the committee of fifteen which was instructed to carry on a vigorous fight for progressive electors in a selected number of states this fall, and to take steps to perpetuate the party, was undisturbed by the reports from the east.

"I think," said Lee, "that Hale, Hopkins, and even Colby, if he should join them in lining up for President Wilson, are consistent, and that there should be no suspicion directed, by their acts, to the sincerity of our decision to keep the party alive and make vigorous campaigns for progressive presidential electors in those states where we can make such fights. In Hale's state, Massachusetts, and in Hopkin's state, New Jersey, and also in New York, where Colby lives, there are no tickets of progressive presidential electors. They can not vote the progressive ticket, so there is no reason why they should not come out for any set of electors that is offered, and at the same time come into Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, Louisiana and other states and campaign for our progressive state tickets and electors. This they will do."

Names Are Not Announced.

Lee was asked whether Hale had announced the names of the nine members completing the committee of fifteen which is to perpetuate the progressive party and direct this fall's campaign.

"No," he replied, "but he will within the next week or two, and we will probably have our first committee meeting about September 1 and perfect our campaign plans."

GOT INSPIRATION HERE.

Author Wrote "My Mother" While Helping Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

"My Mother," a poem by Hervey Smith McCowan, of Dallas, Tex., inspiration for which came in Fort Wayne, was written by the author following participation in the field-day speaking preliminary to the opening of the Y. M. C. A. building campaign. He spoke at the First Presbyterian and Plymouth Congregational churches. It was Mothers' day and he opened his addresses that day with words of tribute to mother. Later he massed his remarks into a poem, which has come to be widely read and appreciated.

"The Letter He Was Ashamed Of" is Mr. McCowan's most recent work. It deals with relations of mother and son in letter writing. "The Trail of Boy Travels," one of the author's popular books, has passed the 200,000 mark in sales.

GUN TOTER GOES TO HIGHER COURT

John Langston, From Whom Revolver Was Taken, is Bound Over.

Mrs. John Langston, 1206 West Jefson street, was prostrated after her testimony in police court Thursday morning and had to be helped from the courtroom. She wept constantly while on the witness stand because she did not want to tell of threats made by her husband.

"I am afraid of him when he carries a revolver and says mean things," she sobbed, "but other times he is all right."

Edgar Langston, son of John Langston, was prosecuting witness in the case and had signed the affidavit for his father's arrest. He said Langston had threatened to throw him out of the window and had said he would shoot his son and wife.

A new Colt's automatic revolver was taken from Langston's pocket when he was arrested at the electric light plant Wednesday afternoon. He had purchased the weapon in Huntington two weeks before. He got it because he is "a great hand for guns," he told the court.

Judge Kerr bound Langston over to circuit court under $500 bond.

Langston has been out of prison at Michigan City but three months. He was sent up for stealing chickens. He had served a year and three months. Police had heard that he intended to shoot people who had testified against him at his former trial and that he went to Huntington to purchase the powerful weapon so that Fort Wayne authorities would not know he had it.

Relates Life of Jersey Cow.

A grey Jersey cow, gaunt and mild-eyed, that has spent the past six years of her life at the end of a twenty-foot rope out on the commons in the region of Federal Park place and Cour street was the subject of lengthy discussion in court.

From the first warm breath of spring until the snow swirls in late fall the gentle animal has lived on the open lots and sometimes trampled gardens, six indignant residents of the neighborhood related. Sometimes she raised her plaintive voice in a call for water. Through sunshine and beating storms, day and night, during all summer months she has been a fixture of the landscape, the citizens told.

They filed an affidavit and brought the matter into police court. The owner of the cow said they were "troublemakers" and were "mean." He agreed to "swap" or sell the cow before Saturday.

Freeman Case Not Decided.

For the third time Peter Freeman, his head turbaned in bandages, came from his cell and took a place in the prisoners' row Thursday morning. He will do the same thing Friday morning. His case has not been decided yet.

Freeman was arrested Monday night at his homt at 943 East Wayne street. He had a razor in his hand with which he was menacing Theodore Shilling, his brother-in-law. Freeman was locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct. He brought a hammer and wrench with him to jail and displayed them before the court as the objects with which his brother-in-law had struck him. Freeman's head is badly cut and his arm bruised.

Shilling was in court Thursday and testified that Freeman had attacked him with a chair. Freeman was drunk at the time, Shilling told. Judge Kerr will decide the case Friday, he said.

Colored Boy Hurt Himself.

The state did not make a case in the trial of Walter Walford, colored, 232 Melita street, charged with assault and battery on his son, Booker T. Walford. The boy has a dislocated shoulder and broken left arm. Testimony showed that the lad injured himself when he ran from the house, after his father had whipped him with a small cane, and struck the corner of a grocery store near the house. The boy hit his shoulder on the corner and was knocked down, testimony revealed.

The son said that his father was living with a woman not his wife and the lad did not like to stay in the house with the woman. The case will be left open until Saturday. Police will investigate conditions in the home in the meantime.

Seven Boys in Court.

Seven boys, from the ages of 15 to 20, filed in and filled a row of seats when the docket was called. Three of them carried rolls of bedclothes. They had been brought to the station from Old Fort place at 2:30 Thursday morning. Police had found them prowling around the neighborhood and had locked them up.

The boys went there to sleep because of the hot weather, they said, only they did not know it would be so cold. They gave their names as Grover Mathews, 1305 Elida street; Ralph Hollands, Fairfield avenue; John Speidell, 615 Harrison street; John Gordon, Floyd Taylor, Joe Barr and Hugh Swartwood. Kerr gave them a severe lecturing and turned them loose.

Other Police Court Cases.

Floyd Smith and Joseph Carr, charged with selling liquor to minors, will be tried on August 15. Witnesses could not be in court Thursday.

Evelyn Haines, taken in a "redlight" raid Monday morning, was granted continuance of her case until Aug. 14.

Coleman Brown, charged with assault and battery on his mother-in-law, will be tried next Tuesday morning.

Charles Bailey was fined $5 and costs and John Condron $1 and costs after pleading guilty to intoxication charges. Jacob Openheimer, convicted on a drunk charge, was placed on probation until Aug. 31. Eli Coumbacker, blacksmith, of Ossian, will be tried Friday on a drunk charge.

HAVE REPAIRED CELL.

The cell from which William Schidler, 22, and Joe Reimerski, 21, escaped from the city jail Sunday night, has been repaired. A kit of blacksmith tools, including two large sledges, were used to force the twisted iron bars into shape again. The young men broke from the cell by prying the bars loose with a large oak plank, wrenched from the cell bench. No trace of either of the men have been found by the police. All large cities have been notified and a sharp lookout is being kept in three states for the loud gray suit worn by Schneider. He is charged with burglary and escaped from both the county and city jails last week. Reimerski is a parole violator.

BITTEN BY DOG.

Reo Swager, who lives at the corner of Gay street and Creighton avenue, reported to the police Thursday that he had been bitten by a dog while riding his motorcycle on Smith street, Wednesday night. The animal ran from in front of 2122 Smith street, he said, and grabbed his foot. A physician is caring for the wound which consists of a rent two inches long in Swager's left ankle. He asked that the dog be killed.

TWO SMALL FIRES.

A high board fence, fired by sparks from burning rubbish in the alley, was blazing merrily when firemen arrived at 533 Wallace street in answer to a still call Thursday morning. A few minutes later the dumping grounds back of the electric light works was found to be on fire. There was little damage in either case.

FLOOD HORROR GROWS

West Virginia is Swept by Floods Result of a Cloudburst.

Property Damage Totals More Than $2,000,000, It is Estimated.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Twenty-three bodies have been recovered from the debris carried down by the flood which swept the Cabin Creek valley near here yesterday. Rescue parties have penetrated some distance above Cabin Creek junction and meagre reports brought back by couriers and from the railroads indicate that the loss of life has been heavy although no accurate estimate can be made. Persons driven from their homes to the mountains are returning to find whole villages of mining cabins swept away, while distress and suffering is seen on every hand.

Two companies of the Second West Virginia infantry left camp Kanawha by trolley this morning and were taken to Cabin Creek Junction with orders to penetrate the valley and extend relief to all who needed it. They carried provisions and tents.

A special train was being made up here on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad and will go as far as the hastily repaired tracks will permit. From that point numbers of men provided with provisions will search out the spots where destitution is most pronounced. It is expected they will be able to go the entire length of the valley and penetrate adjoining valleys, also hard hit, before tomorrow.

Looting Begins.

Reports reached here today from United States Commissioner Howard C. Smith, who led a relief party for a number of mining camps last night, that looting had commenced and that a number of arrests had been made and some property recovered.

R. Jaco, a lineman of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone company, reached Cabin Creek Junction shortly before noon after a walk of over thirteen miles of the company's lines between Miami and Desota. He declared that forty persons had been drowned and half that number of bodies had been recovered.

Jaco was unable to get up the Kayford branch of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, but expressed the belief that damage and loss of life in that district was greater than in other sections. The entire valley between Miami and Desota was devastated, he said, everything movable having been washed away. The excursion train carrying 1410 persons, marooned by the flood, was located today between Horse Creek and Little Horse Creek with washouts on both sides. Relief was sent from St. Albans. Women and children constitute the majority of excursionists. Soon after 11 o'clock the soldiers reached Ronda, where headquarters were established and from which point the relief work will be carried on. At that hour an estimate of the dead remained at 100, but those responsible for the statement admitted it was only an estimate.

RESCUE PARTIES AT WORK.

Full Extent of Damage Will Not Be Known for Several Days.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Rescue parties worked desperately today in an effort to make their way up the Cabin creek and Coal river valley, which for twenty miles southward from the Kanawha river, were devastated yesterday by a cloudburst which left in its wake a death toll estimated at more than one hundred persons and a property loss of at least $2,000,000. Because of the topography of the country, state authorities here expressed the belief that it would be several days before the full extent of the flood could be ascertained.

At least eight villages and mining settlements in the district were either wholly or partly destroyed while many others felt the effect of the storm more or less. Those practically destroyed or badly damaged were Acme, Ronda, Dry Branch, Miami, Sharon, Dawes, Kayford and Eskdale. Between Acme and Kayford sixty persons are reported to have been drowned.

Two companies of the second regiment, West Virginia national guard entrained for the flood zone today with tents, provisions and medical supplies. Major William Wallace, of the United States army, will be in charge of the relief expedition which will proceed by rail as far as possible and then march to all points devastated by the flood. Local officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad today declared that it would be at least two weeks before travel could be resumed in

Headquarters, Mexico, Aug. 10.—Indian scouts with the American troops are becoming restless due to long continued inactivity.

The score of Apache scouts have been placed in a camp by themselves. Their war dances and disputes over the number of notches each is entitled to disturb the peace of the entire camp. The old scouts who surrounded Chief Geronimo, thirty years ago, have united against the younger element. One of the chief troublemakers, Jesus Valesquez, who laid claim to nine "kills," has gone, no one knows where, but rumor says his departure was due to official invitation.

It also requires close watching to keep beverages with more than 3 per cent alcohol out of the Apache camp. On one occasion Lieut. J. E. Shannon, who is responsible for the good conduct of the Indians, had to call upon his boxing ability to subdue two scouts who had gone on a celebration.

To reconcile the Indians to their lot, hunting is allowed. The other day a party brought in ten antelopes.

Metal work also serves to pass the dull hours. Loco Jim hammered out the silver stars for Col. George A. Dodd when the colonel's promotion to brigadier general was received. Officers are wearing rings made by the Indians from silver coins. But peace proves irksome and the scouts break out either with a quarrel or a war dance.

Executive Sessions Relic of Antiquity, He Declares.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Investigation of the means by which a confidential copy of the treaty under which the United States would acquire the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 became public was demanded in the senate today by Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee. An abstract of the treaty issued this morning is believed to have been made from one of the copies sent by the state department to the senate with a letter transmitting a request of the Danish government that terms of the convention be withheld until the two governments agreed to promulgate them.

"It is hard for me to believe," said Senator Stone, "that any senator of the United States would give this treaty to the public under the circumstances. Every senator has a right to a copy and to go to the executive clerk and get it. If any senator did, he knows where it has gone. But if he exposed it to the public, he did a dishonorable act and ought to be disciplined by the senate."

Senator Stone declared he thought the body of correspondents in the senate press gallery would not resort to dishonorable methods in the acquisition of news.

Only One Opinion.

"I have no criticism of the correspondents," he continued, "but when a great newspaper comes into possession of a confidential communication of this kind sent by the president of the United

POLICE PLACE LITTLE CREDENCE IN STORY

Two Women Tell of Jump from Flying Auto at Midnight Hour.

Police place little credence in the story told by Mrs. Anna Berger, 2139 John street, and Mrs. Bessie Meizer, 819 Eliza street, who tell of a wild leap from a speeding automobile, into which they had been seduced Wednesday night. Mrs. Berger is bruised and scratched as the result of the fall from the machine, she claims, and the other woman is slightly scrtched from leaping from the car, she tells.

The women say they do not know who the three men were who induced them to enter the automobile by telling them it was a jitney. They say that they became alarmed when they realized that they had been deceived and were not being taken home. They both leaped from the car when it was speeding in order to gain their freedom, they say.

The affair occurred near the home of F. C. Witte, 3536 Lafayette street, and Mrs. Berger was taken into the house there. Dr. M. B. Catlett was called to administer to her injuries. She was hysterical.

The women say that they expected to be taken home. Police think that the women have not told the entire story. One of the women is well known in police circles and only last week threw a brick through the window of a saloon in a fit of anger, it is alleged. Police have been unable to find any automobile number registered which corresponds with the one given by the women as being on the car.

ENGINEERS SAY THE PROGRESS IS SLOW

Appraisal of Properties for New York Central is Being Taken.

Engineers in Fort Wayne to appraise properties of the New York Central railroad, the data to be for the use of the interstate commerce commission in fixing rates and taxation, report slow progress from their offices in the federal building. So far nine miles of track have been appraised out of this city.

Have Some Trouble.

The engineers have found difficulty, they say, in collecting data in the yards of the railroad in this city. They have 400 miles of road to appraise before January 1, when they are scheduled to go south.

They are working out of this city toward Jackson, Mich. The engineers are using the federal building for quarters until their car is out from a repair shop.

BOARD STARTS ITS HARD JOB

Little Chance of Railway Employes Consenting to Arbitrate.

New York, Aug. 10.—The United States board of mediation and conciliation held its first conference today with the representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods of employes in its effort to prevent through mediation a country-wide strike to enforce the employes' demands for an eight-hour-basic-day and time and a half for overtime.

Nothing was officially disclosed as to the success the mediators met, but it was learned on good authority that the brotherhoods had shown no disposition to modify their demands.

"The status is unchanged," is the only comment which A. B. Garretson, head of the conductors' brotherhood, was willing to make after the conference adjourned. "We have only scratched the surface," said G. W. W. Hanger, one of the three members of the mediation board. "The situation may be cleared up within twenty-four hours and then negotiations may continue for a week." The mediators arranged for a second conference with the railroad managers this afternoon and to meet the brotherhoods' representatives again tomorrow morning.

Deliberations Are Secret.

The deliberations are secret. Mr. Chambers said the mediator would have a much better idea of the situation after talking with the employes' committee today. There are three possible results of the mediation. One is that the federal board will be able to get the managers and workers to sign an agree-

HUGHES MAKES TWO SPEECHES

Republican Nominee Enters North Dakota on Western Tour.

CANDIDATE FORMS NEW ANANIAS CLUB

Secretary of Commerce Redfield is First Charter Member.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles Evans Hughes, republican presidential nominee, entered North Dakota today in his western campaign tour and reached here shortly after 7 a. m. Two speeches were on the day's program—one here this forenoon and the other this evening at Fargo, where the Hughes party will spend the night.

At St. Paul, Minn., Mr. Hughes established a new Ananias club with Secretary of Commerce Redfield of President Wilson's cabinet as the first charter member.

Confronted with a telegram from Secretary Redfield demanding that he retract his charges made in the Detroit speech, that the government service has been prostituted, especially in the census bureau, Mr. Hughes not only refused to retract, but proved his charge to his own satisfaction and, he believes, to the satisfaction of the public.

E. Dana Durand, former director of the census, is out with a formal statement, not only supporting Mr. Hughes in his statement, but charging specifically that Secretary Redfield himself broke the news to him that the administration wanted his job. Durand says over his signature that his resignation was "forced."

Question of Veracity.

The Durand statement raises squarely the question of veracity as between Sec-

Contract Awarded Huntertown Man on Receipt of Bids Thursday.

Contract for erecting a barracks at the county farm was awarded by the county commissioners in their court Thursday morning to Wilbur M. Gandy, of Huntertown, on his bid of $3,695, over six other bidders. The Schwegman-Witte company, got the plumbing contract on its bid of $1,007. Four other plumbing firms submitted bids. Contract calls for completion of the barracks October 1.

Appropriation Made.

Appropriation for construction of the barracks was $6,000. The county commissioners have been able to utilize $140 worth of old lumber, thus knocking off some of the expense for timber. The barracks will be 22x35 feet and one story. Plan to erect the building to house lazy husbands has been discussed during the spring and sentiment to build it grew until an appropriation was made.

Bids Opened.

Bids were opened in the court of the commissioners at 10 o'clock. Bidders, excluding the successful bidder on the general building contract, were: W. L. Ringwalt, $4,150; Charles Rodenbeck, $4,360; William Wiegman, $4,483; H. C. Hockemeyer, $4,734; Gustave Lindeman, $4,238, and Charles Wermuth, $4,085. All are from Fort Wayne. Bidders on the plumbing contract, excluding the successful bidder, were: Alfred Rolf & Brothers, $1,294; Jahn & Meyer, $1,132.08; J. P. Martin & Co., $1,049.59; P. B. Arnold Co., $1,032.

MUCH NEW TRADE IS GOBBLED BY THE JAPS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—While the United States has been hammering away at the business of filling war orders, Japan has been hammering just as effectively at the business of gobbling up great slices of the sort of world trade that won't be effected by peace in Europe. This is the fact revealed by statistics gathered by the department of commerce.

The war has changed Japan from an importing to an exporting nation. In 1915 Japan imported merchandise valued at $265,160,082, a decrease of $31,516,322, as compared with 1914. Exports amounted to $352,736,854, an increase of $58,368,356. And note this: Japan's exports to the United States during the eleven months ending May 31, 1916, gained $40,500,000, while American exports to Japan gained only $28,000,000.

DEATH SUMMONS MAN WITHOUT A WARNING

Heart Trouble Claims James Smeathers While He is at His Work.

While at work on the third floor at 908 Calhoun street, Thursday morning, at 8:20 o'clock, James Smeathers, 615 Baltes avenue, dropped dead. The end came without warning as he had not even made a complaint that he was feeling ill. Workmen saw him fall and when they reached his side a few seconds later, all signs of life had gone. The coroner was summoned and found that death was due to heart trouble.

The deceased was employed by Paul Kinder, the contractor, as a handy man. Carpenters had finished their work in this building and Thursday morning he began cleaning up. He had just carried down a basket full of rubbish and returned upstairs. He picked up a piece of wood and asked the other workmen whether they wanted to use the piece. He had hardly finished the sentence when he threw up his hands and fell to the floor, a corpse.

Smeathers had resided in Fort Wayne for the past twenty-five years, moving to this city from a farm north of the city. Since living here he had been employed by Mr. Kinder. He was sixty-eight years old. A widow and two small children survive.

ITALIANS TELL OF BIG BATTLE

After Three Days of Hard Fighting Gorizia is Captured.

Today's War News Given in Summary

News from the Isonzo front indicates that the army of the Duke of Aosta is rapidly following up the notable success won by the Italians in the capture of the Austrian stronghold of Gorizia with some 20,000 prisoners.

Italian troops are reported in force over the Isonzo, vigorously pursuing the retreating Austrians whose big seaport of Triest, 22 miles to southeast, is threatened.

Along the Somme the British and French are making slow but reasonably steady progress in their respective thrusts toward Bapaume and Peronne. Last night French troops pushed forward further in the Helm wood sector where the most telling blows have been struck in the recent fighting.

The British pressure continues to be exerted northward from Pozieres where they are struggling to gain complete command of the ridge overlooking Bapaume. They made a new advance last night. Another important advance for the Russians in Galicia is announced today.

Gen. Ltschky's army has pushed west of the Stanislau-Kolomea railway line and cut the Stanislau-Nadverna railway at Kryplin. This progress for the Russians brings them to the southwest of Stanislau, whose speedy evacuation by the Austrians is now considered probable as the Russians are rapidly hemming it in.

Rome, Aug. 9 (via Paris, Aug. 10).—10:35 a. m.—The operations which led up to the capture of Gorizia by the Italians are described in the following official narrative given out here tonight:

"The attack begun on Aug. 4 in the Monfalcone against hills 85 and 121, east of Rocca. We stormed a very powerful enemy works there, taking 143 prisoners, but the adversary had placed in abandoned trenches quantities of bombs, which, exploded, giving off clouds of poisonous gases just as our troops entered the captured lines. Heavy masses of the enmey then made counter attacks and our troops, stupefied or asphyxiated by the gas, were forced to fall back to their own trenches.

DAMAGE SUIT RESULTS IN FATAL SHOOTING

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 10.—Dr. M. C. Dunne, a physician, today was shot and killed on the main street here by Charles Wynne, a member of a prominent local family. The shooting followed a $10,000 suit for damages filed against Dunne by Wynne, in which he charged the doctor with an attack on Mrs. Wynne when she went to his office for treatment. On yesterday Wynne filed suit for divorce from his wife, alleging misconduct with Dr. Dunne. The shooting occurred this morning as the doctor was stepping from his automobile to make a professional call. Wynne, according to witnesses, rushed up to him and fired five shots at close range. Dunne soon died and Wynne went to the police station and gave himself up.

SHIPPERS WARNED OF CAR SHORTAGE

Washington, Aug. 10.—Carriers, shippers and consignees were warned today by the interstate commerce commission of a threatened shortage and their attention called to the need for close supervision of loading and unloading. The commission urged that cars be not used for storage purposes, and suggested that the carriers return cars to their home lines as quickly as possible.

Heavy movements of grain are said to be partly responsible for the threatened shortage.

SOLDIERS GIVEN GREAT WELCOME

French Make Further Progress North of Hem Wood in Somme Sector.

Brest, Aug. 10.—(1:05 a. m.)—Another contingent of Russian troops has been landed here. The soldiers were given an enthusiastic welcome.

The first Russian troops to land in France arrived in Marseilles on March 29, having sailed half way round the world from Vladivostok. They were followed by three other contingents and after a short rest were sent into the trenches in Champagne. Nothing has been made public officially as to the numbers of this Russian expeditionary force, but unofficial estimates have placed the strength of the first contingents at not less than 20,000 men. The earlier arrivals had no arms and were equipped by the French.

RAIN AND MIST HINDERS.

Fifteen Battles in the Air Took Place on the Somme Yesterday.

Paris, Aug. 10.—10:45 a. m.)—Further progress for the French troops north of Helm wood in the Somme sector is announced in an official announcement by the French war office today.

Rain and mist have impeded the operations north of the Somme. South of the river a German reconnaissance using liquid fire was dispersed by the French infantry fire west of Vermandovillers.

Only intermittent cannonading in the neighborhood of Fleury, Vaux and Chapitre is reported from the Verdun sector.

Fifteen battles in the air took place yesterday on the Somme front. One German aeroplane is reported to have been destroyed and two forced to descend inside the French lines. French machines dropped 413 bombs on various railroad stations.

After many attempts to obtain information as to why Jacob Hoffman, of Dubois county, Indiana, is being held at Victoria, B. C., by the Canadian military authorities, Representative Cox, a former neighbor of Hoffman, today introduced in the house a resolution requesting the secretary of state to furnish the house a statement showing why Hoffman is being detained, what crime, if any, he has committed against the British government in Canada; when he was arrested, by whom and by what authority, military or civil; whether arrested upon affidavit, oral authority or suspicion; also, whether he has had a trial or a hearing, and before whom, and the decree rendered, if any.

Senator Taggart has prepared a vigorous speech which he will make in the senate on the pending revenue bill. He will speak plainly in pointing out the slipshod and extravagant methods of legislating enormous sums out of the treasury and will plead for a more business-like administration of public affairs than has been given by any political party. He will advocate the creation of a tariff commission as a much needed step toward taking the tariff out of politics and adjusting the schedules on a strictly business basis. In reference to raising money to pay for the preparedness program he will advocate a low interest-bearing bond issue, distributing the cost over a period of years.

CAR INSPECTOR IS KILLED UNDER CARS

Andrew W. Moyer Loses Life in Pennsylvania Railroad Yards.

While assisting in making a coupling on a freight train in the local Pennsylvania railroad yards, Andrew W. Moyer, aged thirty-eight years, residing at 1325 Horace street, suffered injuries at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday evening which caused his death a few minutes later. A switch engine crashed into the rear of the train near Winter street, knocking Moyer to the ground. The cars ran over him and he lost both legs.

F. W. McClarry, 2334 John street, a brakeman, who saw the accident, rushed to Moyer's side and while attempting to pull the injured man out from his perilous position, was also injured. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a badly sprained back.

When Moyer saw the brakeman at his side he told him that he believed he was a "goner" and asked him to tell Mrs. Moyer just how the accident happened. He died to death before a physician arrived.

The freight train had been inspected, but when it started out it was discovered that one of the connections were faulty. An effort was being made to remedy it when the accident occurred. The engineer was given the signal to back up and while Moyer was standing at the point where the connection was to be made the cars crashed in on him.

The deceased was born and reared in Wells county, Indiana, but had resided in Fort Wayne for the past four years. He was employed at Bowsers until last April, when he went to work for the Pennsylvania company.

He was a member of the Red Men and of the Pennsylvania Volunteer Relief. Besides the widow he is survived by two children—Eva, aged twelve, and Glen, aged ten; the father, who resides in Decatur; four brothers and three sisters.

FEWER DEATHS FROM INFANTILE PARALYSIS

But There is Little Change in Development of the Epidemic.

New York, Aug. 10.—Fewer deaths but little change in the development of the epidemic of infantile paralysis was noted in today's bulletin of the health department. Yesterday's deaths numbered fifty-seven and new cases 183.

HEALTH SERVICE ACTS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—The public health service, aroused over the inability to check the infantile paralysis epidemic in New York, has called a meeting of state health authorities to be held here next Thursday. Plans will be developed to combat the spread of the disease. The health service also seeks the experience of those in the states who have dealt with infantile paralysis, and may be able to suggest some means of curbing the epidemic.

COMPLETE PLANS TO ADJOURN CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—September 1 is the latest date now suggested by senate leaders for adjournment of congress.

The plan as formulated in conferences yesterday, provides that no important legislation be considered at the present session except the shipping, revenue, employers' liability and supply bills and conference reports, with a view to adjourn by the end of this month. It would eliminate the corrupt practices bill and the bill to enlarge the interstate commerce commission.

WOMEN WILL USE THE BILL BOARDS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Billboard advertising will be used extensively in an effort to defeat the democratic party for its neglect to adopt the national woman suffrage amendment, it is announced at headquarters of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, and the National Woman's party. The campaign will be waged particularly in western states having equal suffrage. In the districts of representatives who oppose votes for women posters will advertise the legislator's attitude, it was said, with pleas to defeat him.

G. L. Harris, a machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, will leave tomorrow with his wife for Manchester, O., where they will visit relatives.

Trade Commission's Report on Paper Prices Will Be Published Oct. 1.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The crisis in the newspaper print situation, which has already cut down newspaper profits enormously, will not be reached till late October when contracts come up for renewal, according to reports received from many sources by the federal trade commission. The presidential election, together with the European war, is expected to increase an already unparalleled demand for news print which manufacturers tell the trade commission they will be hardly able to meet. This year for the first time they have not been able to lay up a large reserve during the summer.

The trade commission's report on its investigation of news print prices, announced today, will be published no later than October 1, regardless of whether congress still is in session.

The great question in deciding whether there has been collusion among the manufacturers to boost prices unduly is said to be whether the increased demand for paper has been entirely disproportionate to the increased production. Manufacturers claim that publishers are using 20 per cent more paper than ever before. Consumption figures presented to the committee vary widely. G. F. Steele, secretary of the News Print Manufacturers' association, has estimated that figures for June "show the largest daily production of news print ever recorded." Shipments, he declared, represented 99 per cent of this production. None of the substitutes for pulp recently suggested is commercially feasible, according to officials of the various bureaus interested. Cotton stalks, most frequently mentioned, would be prohibitively expensive to collect, they say. The same situation holds for corn stalks, broom corn, rice straw and flax. As yet the experiments have not passed the laboratory stage and as far as known no commercial use of the discoveries is contemplated anywhere.

VILLA BANDITS SLAIN, OTHERS ARE ON TRIAL

Chihuahua City, Mex., Aug. 10.—Gen. Trevino has received a report that five Villa bandits captured in the Mapimi region and brought to Bermajillo have been condemned and shot. Court-martials are sitting this week in the cases of the bandits captured at San Ignacio, who belonged to the band engaged with the Americans near Fort Hancock, and of those brought from Cerro Gordo. The Cerro Gordo men claim in defense that they were captured by Villa at Jiminez and impressed by him under threats of death.

Col. Benito Garcia, formerly of Villa's army, has left Torreon on a special mission for the Carranza government. He is instructed to bring in Geronima Padilla, former Villa general and head of a band in the Duranga hills. Padilla has made overtures toward a surrender.

A number of young society men of Chihuahua City have been sentenced by Acting Governor Trevino to serve as street sweepers for twenty days. They were found guilty of disturbing the night's rest of the household of the father of Governor Ignacio Enriquez, while serenading the town after a dance. Governor Enriquez is in the City of Mexico.

Dr. Gibbons said the historic vessel is now in the commercial museum in Philadelphia and that he purchased it because he heard it was soon to be demolished. The Holland is sixty-one feet long by eleven feet beam.

enemy's whole front with the object of distracting his attention and fixing the ranges accurately. On the morning of Aug. 6 our batteries opened fire simultaneously on the rocky barrier which from Sabotino to Cavario defends the Isonzo and Gorizia to the west and against Monte San Michele, which forms the northern edge of the Gorizian Carso. The real action of the day long and carefully worked out, represented a perfect example of concentrated fire against fortified lines.

Infantry Columns Advance.

"Infantry columns then advanced with customary dash, well supported by a curtain of fire of artillery, and carried the entire formidable Salotino rampart, the point of which formed the base for the Gorizian bridgehead. On the heights which cover the city to the west they stormed the defenses of Oslavia and of the summit of hill 206, which commands Graffenburg. On the plain they drove in a defensive line between the southern border of Podgora and the Isonzo. They also attacked on the right bank of the river as far as Saint Andrea. On the southern border of the Carso Italian troops captured the very strong lines on the summit of St. Michele and the entrenchments running into the San Martino zone. Finally in the Monfalcone section a battalion of Bersaglieri cyclists from the Third, Fourth and Eleventh regiments after a desperate struggle stormed all the defenses on hill 85 and held out there against violent concentrated artillery fire, repulsing furious counter attacks by Austrian infantry.

"Possession of the lateral pivots of the Gorizia bridgehead being assured by the conquest of Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele, it remained to take the imposing barrier formed by the heights immediately to the west of the city. The battle ebbed and flowed incessantly for three days. The ground was fortified strongly and supported by a great number of lines of defense which rendered it easy to offer stubborn resistance and enabled the Austrians to make violent counter attacks. Inch by inch and at the cost of generous sacrifices our infantry, with the admirable co-operation of our artillery, conquered first the crest and then the southeastern slopes of the heights and stormed innumerable trenches, gradually driving the defenders before them, notwithstanding repeated counter attacks.

"As a result of all these continuous efforts all the heights on the right bank of the Isonzo, forming the bridgehead of Gorizia, and Monte San Michele on the left bank, were captured and are securely held by the Italians. The line of the Isonzo below Tolmino is assured to them and as their guns, dominating Gorizia, drove out the enemy lurking along the ruins, this uninterrupted three-day fight covers with glory the troops of the third army, commanded by the duke of Aosta."

POPE IS INTERESTED.

He is Watching the Irish Situation With Keenest Interest.

London, Aug. 10.—The Irish situation is being followed by the pope with the keenest interest, according to the Liverpool Post, which states that the pontiff is most anxious for the pacification of Ireland. In an article in today's issue, the paper says:

"The pope and the statesmen of the vatican are most anxious for what is described as the pacification of Ireland. This anxiety has been made known to the Irish Catholichierarchy through the most direct source and of course it has not escaped attention. The rector of the Irish college in Rome has been in close association of late with diplomats and statesmen of the vatican and has conferred with divines who enjoy the pope's confidence, including Cardinal Gasquet, who has recently been in England."

HEAVY DAMAGE INFLICTED.

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Heavy damage was inflicted by bombs dropped from Zeppelin airships in the raid over England on Tuesday night says an official statement issued today by the chief of the naval staff. All the airships returned undamaged, despite a violent counter action by anti-aircraft guns.

BOARD STARTS ITS HARD JOB

ment. Another is that the mediators will be able to induce both parties to consent to arbitration if mediation fails. The third possibility is that the federal board will fail in both these endeavors.

President May Act.

It was predicted today that if the board should be unable to compose their differences President Wilson would ask representatives of the contending factions to meet him in Washington and that he would ask them to arbitrate their differences. The mediators announced that no statement would be forthcoming from them until they either have succeeded or failed. It is understood that the labor leaders pin their hopes of settling the dispute upon mediation rather than arbitration, now that the managers have failed to agree with them. They are opposed to arbitration. W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Engineman and Firemen, said: "Arbitration is a gambling game even when the dice are not loaded. Railway employes have lost faith in the justice of arbitration boards. They believe arbitration is as fickle as chance. If there is arbitration of this eight-hour demand and every effort is made to appoint neutrals entirely free from prejudice, it is but tossing pennies to decide the question. Why has none suggested that the matter be settled by 'pulling straws' and relieve everybody of the bother."

retary Redfield and himself. Durand is now a professor in the University of Minnesota.

After reading the Durand letter Mr. Hughes launched into a scathing denunciation of the Wilson administration, not only reiterating his charges made heretofore, but directly accusing the powers that be at Washington with having wilfully prostituted the public service of this country by turning out expert public servants and putting political favorites in their places.

He cried shame upon them and brought into play all his powers of indictment, together with the pledge that if elected president not a single unfit or incompetent man would get a political appointment, regardless of his standing in the party councils.

DID NOT RESIGN.

Senator Townsend Says Durand Was Told to Quit.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Senator Townsend, of the census committee, made a statement today supporting the declarations of Charles E. Hughes that E. Dana Durand, former director of the census, was removed from office to make a vacancy for political reasons and taking issue with Secretary Redfield's rejoinder that Mr. Durand retired voluntarily.

"The secretary of commerce says Mr. Durand resigned," said Senator Townsend. "That is not correct. The fact is that Secretary Redfield called in Durand in April and stated that he desired his position. Durand replied that much important work was in progress and that he ought to be allowed to finish it. The next day Harris' (William J. Harris) nomination was sent to the senate and the next day it was announced that Mr. Durand had resigned."

Senator Townsend said he had explained the facts to the census committee and delayed the confirmation of Harris.

Wants Country to Know.

"I believe it is well for the country to know the facts," continued Senator Townsend. "Mr. Durand was practically removed: he resigned under pressure after he had stated he ought to remain until the census reports were completed. The telegrams sent out by Secretary Redfield absolutely were unfaithful to the facts. Mr. Harris was appointed for political reasons and his name sent after Mr. Durand was forced out of office."

Senator Smith, of Georgia, said he "desired to congratulate the other side in that they have at last found an issue. "My criticism of the president and secretary of commerce in this matter," Senator Smith said, "is that they did not remove Mr. Durand frankly and openly from office. He was inefficient as an executive officer. There was waste of money, duplication of work and carelessness of management in his administration. He was a man utterly without executive capacity of the kind needed in a director of the census."

Senators Stone and Hardwick retorted that the republicans seemed pleased at having found an issue. Mr. Harris is now a member of the federal trade commission.

the Cabin Creek valley. They also said that the company's yards at Kayford had been destroyed and will have to be rebuilt.

Railroad Tracks Washed Out.

Reports said that portions of the track of the Virginian railroad between Robson and Deep Water had been washed out and that service on the road had been temporarily suspended. Word was anxiously awaited from the 300 passengers who were on board an excursion train when it was marooned near St. Albans. A report was received late last night saying the train had been abandoned when the water reached the floors of the railway coaches. Another passenger train was also marooned near that point but no word has been received from it.

FILLED WITH WRECKAGE.

Gallipolis, Ohio, Aug. 10.—The Ohio river here is filled today with wreckage from the Cabin creek cloudburst. Parts of houses, bridges and thousands of logs and vast quantities of lumber compose the mass of debris which has stopped navigation by river boats. It is believed bodies of some of the victims may be going down the river in the wreckage.

States to the senate and prints it, is an entirely different matter. Every senator and every patriotic American can have but one opinion of such action."

The senator emphasized the importance of secrecy because of the fact that a similar treaty with Denmark was interfered with and ratification prevented several years ago. The present case, Senator Borah said, illustrated the inadvisability of considering all treaties in secret. "This dealing with treaties in executive session is wholly fruitless," he said. "Executive sessions have become a relic of antiquity and should be dispensed with."

Before the Committee.

The treaty by which the United States would acquire the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000, recently signed by Secretary Lansing and Danish Minister Brun, is now before the senate foreign relations committee and probably will be considered early next week. It became known today that the treaty was sent to the senate in executive session Tuesday and referred to the committee without discussion. At the request of the Danish foreign office the terms of the convention are to be considered confidential until both governments agree to have them announced.

The fact that $25,000,000 is the consideration to be paid by the United States leaked out some time ago, however, and in a general way the nature of the document has been discussed. It is understood that in return for the cession of the islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. John and "adjacent islands and rocks" with all public buildings, fortifications, public funds, rights and concessions belonging to the Danish government the United States is to pay in gold the sum of money stipulated within ninety days after ratification of the treaty, maintain certain grants, licenses and concessions granted in the islands by Denmark and guarantee the rights of Danish citizens residing in the ceded territory."

Affidavit Is Filed Against Lake Wawasee Hotel Keeper as a Result.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 10.—E. A. Gast, democratic chairman of the Thirteenth Indiana district, was summoned yesterday before a court of inquiry here conducted by Justice T. R. North and questioned about an article appearing in Tuesday's edition of the Warsaw Union, of which he is owner and editor. Murray is now out on a suspended sentence of six months to the penal farm for operating a "blind tiger."

Discovery Forces Hair to Grow

You Actually See and Measure the Wonderful Results of the New Discovery, "Vola-Vita."

There is no hair discovery which has ever produced such remarkable results as Vola-Vita. This is the new principal hair remedy, which has solved the problem of growing hair, stopping hair from falling, restoring original color to any hair in a natural way without a dye, and stopping dandruff. Vola-Vita contains no alcohol whatever.

"Vola-Vita Positively Stops Your Hair from Falling, and Compels It to Grow—One Trial Proves It!"

It has now been discovered that hair consists of five principal elements. When any of these is missing, the hair begins to fall, dandruff, grayness and baldness follow. When the missing elements are restored, hair begins to grow again, and its real color returns.

This has never before been accomplished. It is now done positively and definitely by the new hair discovery, Vola-Vita.

This remarkable hair grower restores the missing elements to hair. That is why in a short time, by its use, hair is actually grown on heads that have been bald for years. Vola-Vita compels hair to grow luxuriantly, fills out bald, thin spots. Dandruff will positively disappear. Itching and falling of hair absolutely stop.

No matter what was the original color of your hair, whether red, brown, black or other shade, Vola-Vita will bring gray, faded or bleached hair back to its original color. Vola-Vita is not a dye. It contains no alcohol to dry up the natural secretions of the hair. It is different from any other hair treatment known. You will see its results soon after you begin to use it. Start today. Satisfaction guaranteed.

WANTS $100 FOR MISTAKE.

W. I. Journey Brings Suit Against Western Union Telegraph Company.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 10.—Suit has been entered in the circuit court by William I. Journey against the Western Union Telegraph company, asking judgment for $100. The plaintiff contends that on June 28, 1916, the defendant company negligently transmitted a telegram to James O. Pierce, bookkeeper at the Journey Manufacturing company plant, of which the plaintiff is manager. The message came from George B. Lourie, sales manager of the Peru Plow and Wheel works, Peru, Ill., and was originally intended for Frank W. Journey, to whom it was addressed, but because of the alleged negligent action of the defendant company in telephoning the message, the plaintiff was given to understand that the message was intended for him. The message pertained to work and the plantiff made a trip to Peru, spending $50 in car fare and losing four days and nights, which he valued at ten dollars per day, judgment for $100 being asked.

Proverbs 14:1-18.

1 Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the Lord: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

Amusment Mad

The United States has gone amusement mad within the last decade. At Huntington the manager of a moving picture theater thought he couldn't give his patrons all the amusement they wanted in six days so he opened his place on Sunday with the result that he and his employes were promptly arrested.

The millions invested in theaters of every sort—good and bad—the so-called amusement parks which go to the extremes of absurdity in providing new thrills, the silly cabaret, the wild speed contests of the automobile drivers, the skating rinks, dance halls, the scramble after new games of every sort, all are symptomatic of the fever in the American blood for diversion that can be enjoyed without mental exertion.

It is not to be said that all of these means of amusement are evil; on the contrary, several of them, within limits, have their proper usefulness. But the lamentable thing about it is that as a people we have come to the point where we must have all our pastimes ready-made and we are not content with them six days, but Sunday must be included. Few of us nowadays are able to extract entertainment from life except by buying it or getting it from sources entirely outside ourselves. Self-entertainment is almost a lost art.

A painful basic lack is responsible for this condition: Individual taste—personality—has been smothered by conformity to popular standards. We swallow our education as it is handed us. We get our politics second-hand. We read what the crowd reads—when we read—sing the song that is "popular," talk as the parrot talks, wear what "they" wear, see what is conventional to see, and do what "the others" do all the way through.

The average individual is bored by his own company—and perhaps the fact that he is so bored is the one redeeming and hopeful trait in his make-up. To sit alone for an hour with his own thoughts, to be isolated absolutely from his common sources of entertainment, is not a pleasure but a punishment. Somebody wrote somewhere that there are few persons who can stand the test of waiting all alone half a day at a lonely junction for a train—in other words, that most of us are lost in our own company. And it is true.

The greatest gift that a parent or a teacher can bestow on a boy is to give him a rational hobby—to instill in him a taste for good books, a love of good music, a thirst for things beautiful, an interest in mechanics or nature or art or politics or some subject capable of arousing his enthusiasm and absorbing his energies.

To get a real interest in life—to have some kind of an ideal—is to protect the mind against shiftlessness and the soul against ennui.

If we are going to keep our boys and girls out of the pits of debauchery, we have got to give them something else to think about than mere ready-made entertainment.

For the individual who can't enjoy his own company will seek not better, but worse.

In voicing his protest to the passage of a mother's pension bill Senator Lee S. Overman, of North Carolina, is quoted as saying: "Keeping children at work in cotton mills is one way of keeping them out of jail. What would you do with an orphan boy who is making $10 a week and supporting his widowed mother?" He also is quoted as saying that fewer children are in jail in his state, where they are allowed to work, than in Massachusetts or Missouri, where they are not." But such argument is not very convincing nor does it do credit to a United States senator. Thirty-two states have mother's pension bills. Unfortunately Indiana is not one of the thirty-two.

The agreement of representatives of the railroad employes to accept the offer of the United States board of mediation and conciliation to submit their demands to mediation, has caused general rejoicing throughout the entire country. To tie-up the railroads of the country would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall us. Come to think of it this country has been on the verge of several calamities during the past two or three years and somehow we always avoid them. Surely there are many things for which we should be thankful and the avoidance for the present of this threatened railroad strike is by no means the least of them.

While England, Germany and France are pretending to be making the rich pay the cost of the war now being waged in that country by pointing to the big income tax, big tax on profits, etc., the fact remains that after all it is the plain people who are paying the real price—in suffering and death.

Judge Ben B. Lindsay, of Denver, Colo., simply demonstrated his good judgment. He has announced that he will support President Wilson for re-election

WANTED—A MAN.

[St. Louis Times.]

"We want a man," says a big corporation, advertising in this newspaper. Well, let's see; what sort of a man does it want?

A lazy man, a shirker, a clock watcher? No. It says he must be an "energetic hustler." No fellow who is looking for an easy job, for a soft snap, need apply.

A man who has become flat-chested, stoop-shouldered and sickly from dissipation? No. The very first requirement mentioned in the advertisement is that he must "possess vigor."

A man who is content to drift with the tide? No. It says he must have "enthusiasm and ambition," and the word ambition is in capital letters. Also, he must have "earnest purpose and common sense."

A grouch, a cross-tempered, uncivil man? No. The advertisement states that he must have "good personality," which means that he must be a likable man, a man whom other manly men will respect.

A college man? Not necessarily. "A fair education" is all that is required.

A man of loose character? No chance. He must have a "clear record."

A diffident, bashful, timid man? No, sir. This job is not for him. No good job is or ever was for the shrinking, self-effacing, you-go-first sort of a man. That kind never arrives. This job is for a man "with full confidence in his own ability," and that accomplishment is left for the last punch in the advertisement.

What's the pay? There's no limit. Go as far as you like. The man who can fill this bill is the kind that goes to the top, and they're scarce as hen's teeth. Big business is hunting for this kind; and rewards them. A firm in New York advertised recently for a man to fill a hundred-thousand-dollar-a-year job and did not find him.

There are plenty of the other kind, though. Plenty of the ten-dollar-a-week kind; so many thousands of them that they gang around the bottom rungs of the ladder.

A NEW USE FOR SALT.

(New York World.)

The preservative, the cleansing and the soothing effects of salt have been known for ages. To this extent, and with some recognition of existing practices, the use of saline solutions in British military hospitals, noted in a recent cable dispatch, is not new. The interesting points are in the evolution of salt to the position of a sole healing agent, and in the method of application by a constant stream which, in a single flowing, washes the wound, guards it from infection and contributes healing power.

An ancient and common household article thus supplants, after the initial disinfecting, the highly scientific, antiseptic appliances of the day.

This elaboration of an old remedy recalls to mind the medical stir which followed in 1901 the publication from the University of Chicago, by Dr. Jacques Loeb and Prof. D. J. Lingle of the theory that a solution of common salt in the blood neutralized by calcium and possibly potassium salt solutions, was the cause of the rythmic beating of the heart. All doctors had known of saline injections to stimulate the heart. Those who hesitated over the new proposition admitted the physiological importance of salt and its ability, after a hemorrhage, to supply the deficiency in circulation until new blood is made.

Inland people of old esteemed saline springs as gifts of the gods. Chips of salt were anciently used as money, and the mineral stood, as many passages in the Bible testify, for high religious symbolisms. The sharing of salt represented in other days a sacred pledge of friendship. A precious and essential quantity in our daily living, though but casually regarded on the grocer's bill for supplies, salt may yet be revealed in a more intimate relation to life itself than daring scientists have guessed.

PETITIONS OUT FOR OPENING OF STREET

Petitions asking that Webster street be opened to make it meet at the north end with Wells street, are being circulated among tax payers of the Webster street neighborhood. The matter will be layed before the board of works. If the plans are carried it will mean a new bridge across the St. Mary's river and a subway at the intersection of Webster street and the Nickel Plate railroad.

Board of works members are discussing the advisability of building a new bridge across the St. Mary's river at the west end of Dayton avenue to replace the present one at the southern terminus at Broadway.

RE-MARK THE HIGHWAY.

Men Arrive to Establish Route of Lincoln Highway With Signs.

Marking of the Lincoln highway through Fort Wayne began Wednesday, when four men employed by the Lincoln Highway association arrived and started work. They started in New Jersey and will continue westward until the Pacific coast is reached. Red, white and blue signs are being repainted and right and left-hand markers are being established. Small pro rata assessment for the men doing the work is the only expense to the local association.

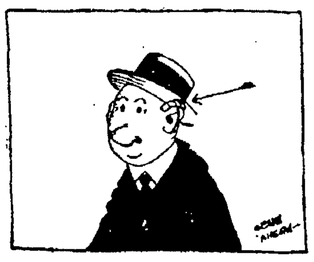
AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL?

Unnatural History, by Eugene Ahern.

"KNUTTY KNOWLEDGE."

Hear ye! Hear ye! To those who wear their hats on either the left or right ear—no more lying awake nights, squirming around the bed in anguish on account of the hat rim rubbing the roof off your ear when you talk.

Harvey L. Tack, an alderman of Rubbish, Ind., in his spare moments, (24 hours a day,) has answered your player by inventing an "ear-easer."



It's funny you never thought of it.

It's a juvenile anti-skid chain that fits over the top of the car, thus preventing the hat rim from starting friction with the rim of the ear when you talk.

At first Harvey will ask a stiff price for his brainy product, so he can get established. And if you can't afford the kale for an "ear-easer" for a while, to overcome the pain of the hat rim onestepping the edge of the ear when you talk, why, just stop talking!

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Perosns and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

There are thirty-two prisoners at the county jail.

C. J. Bulger has sent in his resignation as captain of the Fort Wayne Rifles.

Miss Helen Moffat returned from Warsaw today after a pleasant visit of a week at the Laubach cottage.

A foundling which was left in the St. Mary's school yard last evening, was taken to the St. Vincent Orphans' asylum.

Dr. J. M. Driver will deliver the Labor day oration in this city. The Simpson church pastor is the champion of labor interests.

The City hospital is one of Fort Wayne's grand benevolent institutions. Valuable additions are now being added to the building.

Dr. George C. Stemen, a young physician of this city, today received a letter asking him to accept the deanship and chair of professor of surgery in the New Orleans Medical college.

Cholera infantum is more prevalent and more fatal than it was last year. One undertaker has buried more children from this disease since August 1 than he did the entire corresponding month a year ago.

Henry Beadell, of the People's store, will leave tomorrow for New York city and other cities of the east to purchase new fall and winter goods for this already popular house He will be absent about three weeks

This morning while Letter Carrier John A. Soliday was making his rounds, he was bitten by a vicious dog owned by Daniel Edwards, 22 West Creighton avenue. The wound a deep and ugly one, was cauterized by Dr. Heaton. An order was issued for the dog to be shot.

L. Fulner, a young man whose parents are well to do, near Gas Creek, was found insensible on West Superior street at 5 o'clock this morning. Blood was oozing from ugly wounds about his face, head and hands, indicating that he had been the victim of a murderous assault.

George Reiter's museum of natural curiosities is constantly being added to. Last evening A. J. Krider contributed to it a piece of boatman's tow line, which had lain buried beneath the water of the Rudisill pool for nearly half a century. He found the rope yesterday and it is in a remarkable state of preservation. It recalls the canal boat era.

A woman in Jacobson's machine was killed and also a woman in the other automobile. The young man had been hired to take a party of men and women to various roadhouses. They all left the state before the trial. Strenuous efforts were made to keep him from being sentenced, and several attempts have been made to get him released since. Mystery of Dreams! It Has Been Solved! Disguise Can Be Torn from Visions' Meaning by Skilled Interpreter

(This is the first of a series of three articles on "The True Meaning of Dreams," by the American writer who is the greatest American authority on the subject.—Editor.

BY MAX EASTMAN,

Famous American Psychologist and Student of Freudian Dream Theory.

The mystery of dreams, what they are and why they occur, has been solved by a modern psychologist, Dr. Sigmund Freud, of Vienna. And the solution is so simple that we wonder why everybody did not think of it. NIGHT

MAX EASTMAN

DREAMS ARE SIMPLY DAY DREAMS THAT WE HAVE "PUT OUT OF OUR MINDS," RETURNING IN A DISGUISED FORM!

The disguise can be removed by a skillful interpreter, and after he removes it we can generally recognize the old day-dream ourselves!

Here is an example. An unhappy husband wh owas a musician had a friend named Bob who was a bachelor Bob lived in North Carolina.

The husband dreamed that he took the train for a place called Carolina City and when he got there he found Bob standing outside of a cage and in the cage was a skeleton. It seemed to be the body of a dead bird. Bob said: "Why that isn't a cage, it's a trap!" Then Bob and he went off into the woods together.

That seems to be as foolish and uninteresting as our dreams usually are. But a little interpretation will show that it expresses in a disguised form the fondest desire of that unhappy husband. "Carolina City" means the place where Bob lives, and where he has frequently visited Bob and lived like a bachelor with him. Going to Carolina City means going back to bachelorhood. When he gets there he finds Bob standing OUTSIDE OF a cage in which is a dead bird. The cage is matrimony, and the bird is the soul of the musician who verily feels that marriage is a cage—no, not a cage, but a TRAP! So he and Bob go off together—FREE!

As soon as the interpreter revealed to that dreamer the underlying substance of his dreams, he recognized it as the expression of an inward longing which he "would not allow himself to think about." In other words it was a day-dream that he had "suppressed." He refused to allow it to enter his mind in its own person, and so it went and hunted up those ridiculous disguises, and appeared as a perfectly fantastic and meaningless series of events.

That is what our SUPPRESSED DESIRES, the day-dreams we have "put out of our minds, are always doing. They are coming back to us at night dressed up in strange and outlandish clothing. They are trying to conceal their true nature, and that is why they slip out of our memory with such mysterious elusiveness after we wake up. They are afraid they will be found out!

Children's dreams are not disguised in this way, because CHILDREN DO NOT TRY TO PUT THINGS OUT OF THEIR MINDS. If they want anything, they naturally think they ought to have it. And so you will find your child dreaming that he ate the cherries you would not let him have for dinner, and dreaming that he stayed up late and had wonderful adventures among the electric lights. Children's dreams FRANKLY AND OPENLY fulfill their unsatisfied wishes. And grown-up people's dreams fulfill their unsatisfied wishes too, but not frankly and openly, because grown-up people are always trying to SUPPRESS THOSE WISHES AND REFUSE TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE THEM!

Do you ever dream that somebody dies? Investigate that dream, and make sure you remove the disguise from the person and find out just who it is that dies.

YOU DO DESIRE OR YOU HAVE DESIRED THAT PERSON'S DEATH. But this desire was so shocking to your moral sense, when it appeared, that you refused to think of it for an instant. You refused CONSCIOUSLY to think of it. But the fact that you still dream it shows that it remained in an UNCONSCIOUS part of your mind.

And that is the second great discovery of Sigmund Freud, the discovery of the existence of an unconscious mind. It is far more important than the discovery of the origin of dreams, because it explains to us a great many diseases and troubles that we never understood before, and often enables us to cure them. It enables us to understand ordinary human nature a great deal better, too.

"PEAR" POCKETS FOR AFTERNOON GOWN.

Smart afternoon gown of navy blue French faille, with blue chiffon, embroidered in dark blue and burgundy. Notice the huge pear pockets at the hips. They are made of sheerest chiffon and will prove one of the most distinctive features for gowns of this class during the fall season. The sleeves are chiffon, embroidered in rings of burgundy and blue. A circular faille cuff just above the elbow adds a chic effect.

The hat with this gown is of blue velvet, droop rim and trimmed with Paradise feathers flat on the brim.

WORN STRAIGHT, MEANS SHE HAS ABILITY TO DO THINGS.
AT THIS ANGLE SHE HAS LOTS OF "PEP" BUT IS FICKLE AND OBSTINATE
BEWARE · IF SHE HAS ONE EYE OBSCURED SHE IS MISCHIEVOUS AND FLIRTY
SLY AND SECRETIVE.
HAT ON THE BACK OF HER HEAD — SELF INDULGENT.
FLOPPY HAT - SHE IS A BUTTER FLY - INCONSEQUENT

Character reading by hats is a new and interesting pastime.

The girl or woman who wears her hat firmly and squarely is called the girl or woman who has determination and ability to do things and does them.

The girl with a flabby hat set so it seems ready to blow off any minute is said to be of the butterfly variety, without aim or ambition. Hat at a dangerous angle means the wearer is liable to be fickle and to like flattery.

She with the bonnet tilted back on her head, according to fans in character reading by hats, is prone to self indulgence. Then there is the secretive kind, hiding her eyes behind a curtain and pulling her hat down to her eyebrows.

MISS HEFFERN AT RURODE'S TALKS ON NEW MILLINERY.

Miss Harriet Heffern, whose home is in Minneapolis, and who has just come here to take charge of the millinery department of the Rurode store, after trips to New York and Chicago, says hats are to be one of two things this fall, either very large or quite small. As for colors, the new cerise which one may call wine, or claret, or its French name, Borbeaux as it pleases the ear, the Carbeaux, a new blue, the deep purple tones, grays, greens, reds and browns, are all good, so be the woman fair or dark, large or small, old or young, she can surely find a becoming hat. The Derby is to be a favorite among good models for school girls, and Miss Heffern is to feature hats for children and for young matrons.

Spillner is a strong German sympathizer and has been called to answer for the fact that his new purchase is bright yellow in color.

MILITARY EFFECT IN PRETTY FALL COAT.

This fall coat of military effect, is made of bottle-green velour and embroidered in dull gold military braid. Large green metallic buttons are used effectively in this design. It has a loose back, hanging straight from the shoulders.

The hat—the "Bishop's Tricorne"—is made of cherry velvet, with an ostrich trim.

CHENILLE, THE LATEST FOR HATS

GO UP in the storeroom and see if you can find in the trunk an old-time tablecloth or a pair of curtains with chenille fringe. Rip off the fringe and then use it to trim or to cover entirely the top of your hat. This form of trimming is the latest thing in millinery.

An illustration of the vogue of chenille is seen in the mushroom sailor. Old rose chenille has been used for the purpose and is held on the crown and brim with black couching threads. A wheel design is embroidered in white, black and old rose wool directly in the center of the crown. Old rose satin faces the brim and throws a becoming blush on the cheeks of the wearer.

A MIDSEASON FROCK

JUST at the point when it seems almost too late to buy anything new for the summer season, a break in the wardrobe is often apparent. Either everything is too perishable and is always in the hamper, or the dark silk which you thought would finish out the season is showing cracks.

Something that will hold over for fall or winter should, therefore, be the choice when selecting the extra midseason frock. The one sketched today would make up very prettily in voile and linen and could answer the purpose of a house frock for cool weather, or it could be made of silk voile and taffeta and do for street wear quite late into the fall.

The underskirt of this frock should be of the heavier material, together with the collar, cuffs, belt and panel sections at each side of the front. These panels, by the way, are very cleverly treated with hemstitched tucks, turned downward for the blouse and upward, to suggest pockets, on the peplum. Collar and cuffs are hemstitched to match.

The rest of the blouse—which can be made in one piece, or with blouse and separate peplum—is composed of the thin material laid in fine side pleats pressed into place. It fastens down the side front.

The belt encircles the waist, crossing in front and fastening with buttons into buttonholes in the upturned tucks or pockets. These buttonholes may be made by merely cutting the hemstitching into a picoted slit at this point.

EASILY MADE DRESSING GOWN

A VERY simple and comfortable dressing gown is made of silk. It is pongee color, cool-looking and a delight to the heart of man. So, mothers and wives and sisters, you had better make one of these for the men folks. They are perfectly plain, cut on straight lines and finished with a collar of dark red or dark blue silk. The silks need not necessarily be plain, as dotted or figured ones are very attractive. Give them large, roomy pockets, as every man has to have lots of room in which to put things, or the garment will not be a success.

A LOYAL GIFT

SOMETHING that will please the ardent freshman who has not yet entered the portals of her future alma mater as well as the seasoned grad of high school or college is a traveling case of rubberized silk in the shape of the school pennant. The two colors are combined by lining the darker color with the lighter one and binding with the lighter braid. When the pennant-case is folded in three a snap holds the points secure. There are pockets in the lining large enough to hold the necessary toilet requirements for traveling, but the practicality of the case cannot dim its other attraction. You won't find a boy turning up his nose at this sort of a traveling case.

THE LINEN CLOSET

EVERY woman who is a housekeeper, whether she be a bride of a few months or a long married wife, likes to have a good supply of household linen. The engaged girl plans her linen a long time ahead of her marriage, but she, as well as the woman who has been married for some time, makes the mistake of providing no place in which to store her linen. If she scatters it all over the house she will not feel the same pride in sorting the snowy piles, and besides she gives herself extra work arranging it.

Almost everybody has a closet which can be converted into a linen receptacle. If it has a well-fitting door, so much the better. If not, a shade will do. In this latter way an alcove can easily be converted into a convenient closet, and the drawing up of the shade will give free access to it. In this case boards may be nailed for at least twelve inches from the bottom up to form a bin. This will hold blankets and extra quilts and pillows, while the wooden boarding, which can be painted to match the room or the hall, will keep out the dust which tends to roll in thru cracks.

If you have an old chest of drawers, your linen closet is supplied, but whether you use closet, alcove or chest of drawers you will find it a special convenience to have a board fastened by hinges to the wall nearby, so that you can sort and arrange the linen upon it. Make it a convenient height so that there will be no necessity for stooping.

If it is an old closet it probably has shelves. If it is new you can arrange the shelves to suit yourself and their separate uses. Paint them white both top and bottom. This will make them easier to keep clean and also give your closet a dainty appearance. White paper may be put on the shelves and lavender sachets made to scatter thru the linen or else each shelf may have a padded sachet to fit.

If you have not made a bin for the bottom, the top shelf, which is out of the way and less convenient for linen more frequently used, may hold blankets, quilts and spreads.

Sheets and pillowcases may have a shelf to themselves; towels, another, and tablecloth and napkins another, while embroidered bureau covers, bread tray covers, centerpieces, table covers, etc., may have a whole shelf on which to spread their charms.

ATTRACTIVE AND USEFUL BAG

A VERY useful bag is that made of two long pieces of flowered ribbon. These are held together by a fagoting in the color of the ribbon and at one end the ribbon is gathered to an oblong piece of covered cardboard. On this cardboard are three little straps for scissors, thimble and emery. The other end is finished in the same way with the exception that there is a little pocket made on the inside to hold various necessities for needlework. The bag may be hung on the arm by two pieces of ribbon suspended from the cardboard tops of the bag.

FASHIONGRAMS

A "VISOR TAM" is the latest arrival in millinery circles. The visor is of stiffened silk or satin and to it a face-veil may be very conveniently draped.

To wear with the military suit of jersey or khaki you may have a military felt hat with pointed crown punched into "Montana peak" creases and surrounded by a ribbon caught in cartridge folds.

The crossed blouse line is very noticeable in new frocks and even coats. It goes a little further than the surplice for it often continues in sash ends which tie in back.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Coffee Stains

Will you please let me know what I can use to take coffee stains out of table linen? I shall be very grateful for any suggestion.
Mrs. L. U.

Use warm water first and then hot water. For an old stain use peroxide of hydrogen or javelle water.

Renewing Silk Underwear

I have a silk vest that turned a yellowish white after it was washed. Is there anything I can use to make it a clear color again?
Miss E. R.

Why not dip it a light pink or any color you wish. Once silk has turned yellow it is impossible to get it white again.

POISON FOR BABY MYSTIFIES POLICE

Cannot Find Where Vials Left in Play Yards Were Purchased.

The mysterious case of two vials of poison thrown into the play yard of baby Morris Guenther, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Guenther, 918 East Creighton avenue, apparently for the purpose of poisoning the child, is causing the police greatest concern.

The baby is still quite ill from the effects of taking a few drops of the dark blue solution in diluted form, Wednesday afternoon. The child found the bottle, which contained bichloride of mercury, while romping in the yard. The thoughtless tot poured out the contents of the bottle. Some of the inky flued remained in the bottle.

The bottle was a nice drinking flask baby thought and filled it with water. Baby drank thewater. He became ill. Dr. G. M. Fonner was called. By strenuous means he succeeded in cleansing the stomach of the child of the poison, of which a few drops will produce slow death by paralysing the kidneys. The child will recover.

The father then walked into the play yard and picked up another bottle of the mercuric solution. The bottle was filled. It seemed fresh from the drug store. A part of the label "poison" had been scratched away. The name of the drug store was not given.

Guenther says he can think of no reason why anybody would seek to kill his small son. Guenther has no enemies that he knows of, he tells police.

Detectives Mystified.

Two detectives have been assigned to clear up the mystery. They have called at all drug stores in the neighborhood. No druggists admit of selling any mercuric solutions of late. There is no tangible clue as yet.

One theory held out is that the finding of the bottles in the yard does not mean that there was any intention of poisoning the baby. It is only the result of the abandoning of a suicide pact. One or two persons may have planned to commit suicide and been frightened by prospects of the awful death. They may have thoughtlessly throwed the bottles over the fence into the baby's play yard.

Police Chief Lenz gives no credit to this theory. He believes the suspicion that somebody tried to kill the child is strong enough to warrant thorough investigation along that line.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—All national guard officers in Indiana who have been doing recruiting duty have been mustered out by Lieut. Philip Regan. The action was taken following orders from the war department. The officers mustered out were retained in the state guard, although they had been rejected by army physicians. A few recruits have been sent to the border by the recruiting officers and about fourteen now are at Fort Benjamin Harrison. Governor Ralston and Adjutant General Bridges had hoped the order for the officers to be mustered out would be rescinded before it went into effect. Detachments from the Indiana troops on the border will arrive soon to take up the work of recruiting.

HUGHES TALKS ON PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles E. Hughes, republican presidential nominee, told an audience of farmers in the Auditorium here today that he believed in a protective tariff that would protect them as well as the men in the factories. "I believe in a protective tariff," Mr. Hughes said. "I believe in protection without abuse. I think that is possible.

"Our opponents who for generations have told us that it was contrary to the constitution of the United States to have duties except for the purpose of revenue are now telling us that there is an economic revolution and that perhaps we can have a duty on dye stuffs and a nonpartisan commission. But I believe in trusting those who really accept the doctrine of protection with its enforcement. And I believe in protection for the farmers just as I believe in protection for the men in the factories." Mr. Hughes repeated his views on preparedness saying that he stood for reasonable preparedness. "Weakness breeds insults and insults breeds war," he said. "I stand for the protection of American rights. Firm insistence of American rights backed by reasonable preparedness means peace and security."

Crisp weather, so cold that overcoats were necessary, greeted the nominee here. Shortly after noon Mr. Hughes left for Fargo, N. D., where he will address a meeting tonight.

HEAT CAUSES DEATH OF MEDICAL EXPERT

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—Dr. K. P. Webster, widely known in medical and geographical circles, is dead at his home here from heat exhaustion. Dr. Webster took a prominent part in the relief of Lucknow during the India revolution in 1857. He came to America in 1875 from England. He was born in 1836 on board one of the ships of an East India line of which his father was a director. He was an intimate friend of Dr. David Livingston.

Dr. Webster is survived by a widow and two sons, one of whom was recently decorated by the French government for his courage while serving with the American ambulance corps in France.

HINKEL WILL MEET KILBANE LABOR DAY

Cleveland, O., Aug. 10.—Matt Hinkel, who is offering a purse of $16,500 for a fifteen round featherweight championship bout between Champion Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, and George Chaney, of Baltimore, to be fought on Labor day at Cedar Point, O., announced today that both men have posted their forfeits and have signed agreements to meet. This removes the last doubt. Hinkel will referee the match himself. The fighters posted $1,500 each to assure their appearance.

REPUBLICANS MAY DELAY ADJOURNMENT

Washington, Aug. 10.—After two hours' debate on the democratic proposal that no contested legislation be taken up except the shipping, revenue, workmen's compensation, appropriation bills and conference reports the republican conference adopted a resolution declaring: "The power to control both legislation and adjournment rests with the democratic majority in congress. The republican senators reserve the right to support or oppose or request action on any legislation now pending and they further urge that the immigration bill shall be taken up, considered and acted on at this session."

It is not known whether the action of the republicans will delay adjournment after Sept. 1.

PRINTERS WILL MEET NEXT IN ST. PAUL

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 10.—St. Paul was chosen as the place for holding the 1917 tournament of the Union Printers National Baseball league at a business session of the league here today. John J. McGowan, of Chicago, was re-elected president, and Joseph J. Dallas, of Boston, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Mr. McGowan has been an officer since 1[illegible]. A vice president, living in St. Paul, will be chosen. He does not have to be a member of the league and it was said Louis Hill, son of the late James J. Hill, probably would be selected. Two baseball games, one between St. Louis and New York, and the [illegible] between Cleveland and St. [illegible] to be played this afternoon.

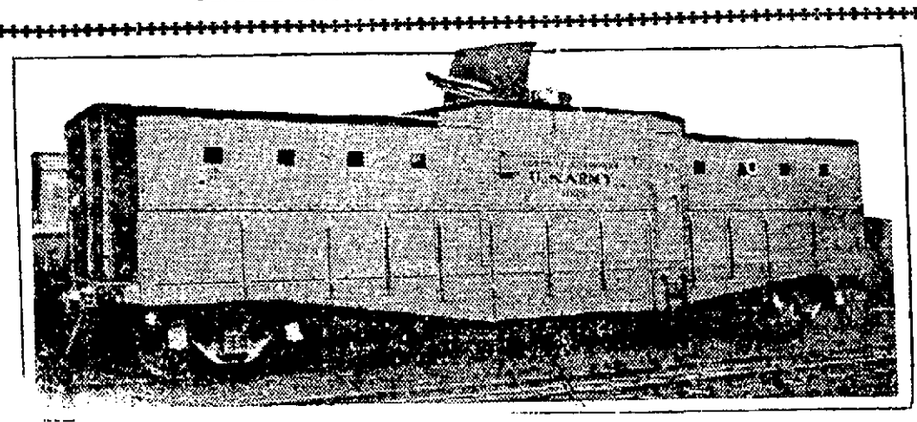
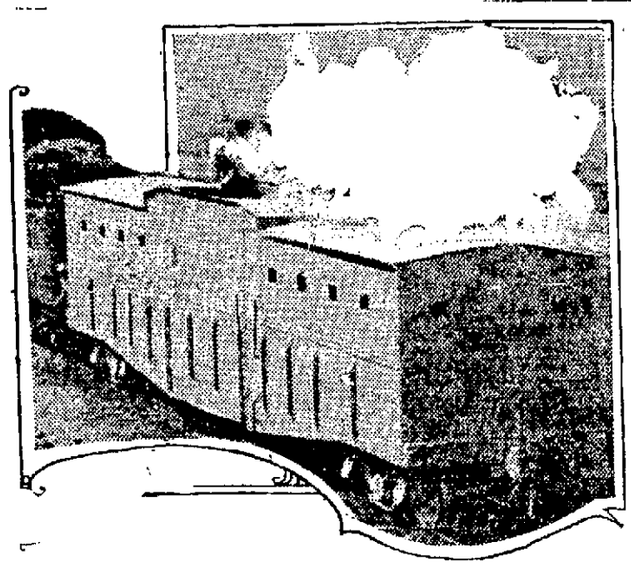
UNCLE SAM'S NEWEST MACHINE OF WAR.





Armored cars for the United States army, designed primarily to guard railroads and territory adjacent to railroad lines, and for transporting troops past danger points, are being turned out by the Standard Steel Car company at Hammond, Ind., and rushed to the testing grounds at Sandy Hook, N. J.

The cars are armored with one-inch steel plates and equipped with a three-inch field gun and twenty rapid-fire guns, the latter to be operated through openings in the sides of the car.

The interior is divided into three compartments, two for troops operating machine guns and rifles and one, in the center, for ammunition storage.

The new type cars were designed by the army board of engineers. The first was completed in twenty-seven days on a rush order given when trouble with Mexico was expected.

Herman Liebig, now residing at Hanna and Pontiac streets, who was injured in the Pennsylvania flier wreck, five years ago, August 13, submitted to an operation at St. Joseph's hospital Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The physician found it necessary to amputate his right leg between the knee and hip in an effort to save his life.

Mr. Liebig, who is nearly fifty years of age, sustained serious injuries to his limb when the flier jumped the track near Swinney park in 1911. Several persons were killed and a score or more were hurt.

The limb has been giving him trouble ever since and it was found that he was suffering from necrosis, or death of the bone. Knowing that life depended on an operation he submitted to the surgeon's knife.

Reports from the hospital and from the attending physician Thursday afternoon agreed that he was getting along very nicely and that his chances for complete recovery are very good.

TORPEDO DESIGN IS FOUND ON IVERSON

Several Things Found Among Effects of Man Held as Suspect.

Jersey City, Aug. 10.—A drawing of what at first was thought to be a submarine and later was admitted by the designer to be a self-propelling torpedo, together with an envelope addressed to John D. Rockefeller and a notebook containing the name and address of President Wilson, were found today among the effects of Erling Iverson, who, with Axel Larsen, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of complicity in the disastrous munitions explosion on Black Tom island two weeks ago. Although the two men produced persons who declared they were with them in another part of the city at the time of the explosion the pair was held in $1,000 bail pending investigation. The drawing of the torpedo bore the inscription 'approved by Capt. J. Howard, chief of the United States submarine department June 26, 1916." There was also a notation 'To be built by Iverson & Company, London, and another, "Revolutions 150 miles an hour for U. S."

Iverson told the authorities that he planned and designed the torpedo and said that "Iverson & Company" referred to himself.

Underneath the heading, "President Wilson," in his notebook appeared a meaningless paragraph which Iverson said he wrote to amuse himself.

One letter which Iverson wrote to his mother and did not post told of "the fright he got when 'Black Tom blew up' and said there were still eight cars of ammunition on Black Tom yard."

DENY REPORT THAT KITCHENER IS ALIVE

By Herbert Duckworth.

New York, Aug. 9.—H. S. Fitzroy, British vice-consul in New York, declared today o nhis return from England that there was absolutely no truth in the report that Lord Kitchener might still be alive!

He characterized the action of Sir R. Cooper in demanding a court-martial in the house of commons on the loss of the Hampshire on the ground that there was no direct evidence that Kitchener was dead, as a piece of "political chicanery" designed to draw to himself the attention of his constituents.

There could be no doubt, Fitzroy said, that the great field marshal perished along with all other officers on board the ill-fated vessel on the night she struck a mine.

Vice-Consul Fitzroy said he had personal knowledge of all the circumstances that followed the first astounding report of Kitchener's death.

"I was present," he said, "the morning after the accident when the reports were first issued to the newspapers by the admiralty."

"But there is no direct evidence that Lord Kitchener is dead?" I said to the vice-consul.

"If by lack of evidence," was the answer, "it is meant the body was never found—that is true. In all probability, furthermore, it never will be. Few bodies were washed ashore, owing to the nature of the coast and his was not among them.

"As a final comment on the action of Sir R. Cooper in proposing a court-martial on the loss of the Hampshire, I should ask whom it would be possible to court-martial? nly an officer is subject to such action, and all the officers on board the Hampshire lost their lives."

In making his motion for a court-martial, Sir R. Cooper, among others, had asked the question, "why arrangements were made for a memorial service in St. Paul's cathedral within a few hours after the report had been received of the loss of the Hampshire.

The implication thrown out in the question was that insufficient time had been allowed for full confirmation of Kitchener's death and that the report had the color of prearrangement.

The "sneezewood" tree of South America, so called because dust made by sawing the wood has the effect of snuff, never is touched by insects or worms.

FORMIDABLE DEFENSES ON BELGIAN COAST

No Spot Unguarded Says Associated Press Correspondent.

Rotterdam, Netherlands, July 31.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—A correspondent who has just been permitted to visit the Belgian coast reports on the formidable defenses that have been raised there. A long line of barbed wire entanglement stretches along the coast, and an endless series of long slender ship's guns protrude from the coarse grass of the dunes, and behind the dunes crouch the heavy howitzers.

Underground dwellings of bomb-proof concrete form part of the great trench along the entire coast, he says. "No spot is unguarded. Everywhere the endless line is occupied by sailors, who endeavor to find relief for the monotony of their life in gardening and in the care of their pigs, goats, rabbits and birds.

"Here and there one comes across an enormous unexploded shell, hurled ashore by one of the big British warships, and which now forms the ornamental center of a flower garden. I saw a big fellow among them, some of 38 centimeter calibre

"What one sees in the way of destruction is the work of the fast torpedo destroyers, which have on occasion hailed smaller shells on the coastal towns with their quick firing guns. The corners of houses are gnawed away; here and there a gable exhibits great holes. But the damage is not very bad, at least not in Ostend and Zeebrugge, much less than one would have supposed. Even on the seaside the towns appear to be little damaged. The big bath hotel at Ostend is untouched, and the great glass Kurhaus shows no breakage in its innumerable panes. A few big buildings by Zeebrugge have been leveled to the ground but that was the work of the Germans, owing to the fact that these buildings helped to direct the enemy's fire on the occasions when they sought to destroy the most susceptible feature of the harbor, the big lock.

"The real work of destruction begins where the French land guns have been able to have their say. Middelkerke is a mass of ruins. It is a remarkable fact, that 600 people continue to crouch there. The school is even still attended by eighty children. But every house has its underground refuge, such as the soldiers construct in the front lines. Shells still fall in the place almost daily.

"Middlekerke is now in such a state that the Germans no longer take up quarters there, but prefer to live in dwelling holes burrowed in the dunes. Some streets always lie open to the French observers and gunners. Long walks can be taken in the southern part of the place, by winding cover ways that have been broken and dug out, half in, half under the earth, through garden walls, houses and cellars. A deep trench is the only safe communication with the Westende watering pace where no house remains standing in the village of Westende, which is if possible even more thoroughly knocked to pieces than the watering place. I noticed that the enemy's shells had spared the part of a wall of an inn on which was inscribed its name, "In den Vrede" (The Peace Tavern.)"

MAN JUMPS FROM TOP OF SINGER BUILDING

New York, Aug. 10.—From the tower of the Singer building, one of the tallest in the city, a man jumped to death today. He was identified as Albert Goldman, 60 years old. He leaped from the fortieth floor, nearly 600 feet above the street level, striking the cornice of the main building as he fell and landing directly in front of the Broadway entrance. His body narrowly escaped passersby and was crushed beyond recognition. It was identified by a will and letters found in the man's pockets.

A letter signed by Goldman saying he intended to commit suicide "from some high building down town" and containing an apology for "the trouble I am about to cause the police," was received this morning by Police Commissioner Woods. Detectives were searching for Goldman when he leaped to his death.

HAVE NOT SOLVED CASE OF DOPED GIRL

Woman Found Unconscious by Roadside Does Not Know What Happened.

After a day of careful investigation police are still at loss as to how the unconscious form of Fronie Lamare, 17, from Frankfort, came to be by the side of the Hayden road, two miles from the city, Wednesday evening.

The girl was discovered by a passing autoist when his light flashed on her motionless form lying in the ditch by the roadside. He brought her to the St. Joseph hospital. For more than an hour she lay unconscious. Doctors R. B. McKeeman and J. Frank Dinnen, who attended the girl, say that she had been heavily drugged.

She can remember nothing that took place after she left the Interurban restaurant, on Columbia street, at noon Wednesday, she says. All efforts to get her to admit that she joined friends and went for a joy ride have been fruitless. Matron Winch questioned the girl for nearly an hour Thursday.

The young woman came to Fort Wayne Monday. She expected to stay with a friend, but found that her friend had gone to Mentone for a visit. Miss Lamare saw in a paper that a girl was wanted at the restaurant. She took the place Tuesday and worked until her strange disappearance Wednesday noon.

WANTS AUSTRIA TO MAKE DECLARATION

Count Karolyi Says Government Should Make Public War Aims.

Amsterdam, Aug. 10.—A telegram from Budapest says that Count Michael Karolyi, leader of the new independence party, speaking in the Hungarian chamber of deputies, asserted it would be in the interests of peace if the government would make a declaration in regard to the war aims of the monarchy and the conditions demanded for terminating the struggle. Although he desired a speedy peace he wished it to be a lasting one. Referring to Roumania and the aspirations supposed to be cherished there for possession of Transylvania the count said:

"So long as a Hungarian breathes we shall fight unswervingly for the integrity of Hungary and the defense of Transylvania."

Count Albert Apponyi, leader of the opposition, who has accepted the program of Count Karolyi, said he saw the best guaranty of lasting peace in the strengthening of the monarchy's alliance.

FORD OWNERS TO BE IN POLICE COURT

Two Ford automobiles were lined up in front of the city hall in less than fifteen minutes after the police decided to stop the practice of running new cars about the city without proper license tags, late yesterday afternoon. The machines belonged to J. A. Shirk, Spy Run, and Tony Sarro. The men were ordered to appear in police court Friday morning to answer charges of running cars without proper numbers.

The local Ford agency is to blame, police say, for allowing the automobiles to be sent out with only a pasteboard tag "M 98" on them. Police gave Ford dealers permission to use the home made numbers if cars were to leave the city at once. They were not to be allowed to run in Fort Wayne, however. Police have noted several cars of late bearing pasteboard tags. The practice must stop, they say.

The New Line-Up Hits the Vanity of the Local Fans.

Next Sunday afternoon the Clearyites will have as their opponents the fast Butler Blues. This team is without a doubt the hardest hitting aggregation around these parts and is coming Sunday with their bats shined up to knock a few over the fence.

The fans have seen several classy teams in action at the park this season but the Clearyites' manager has knocked all caution into a cocked hat and secured the most expensive outfit he can find to furnish the fans with real baseball.

Olds, the pitcher that is considered by most critics as the best semi-pro pitcher in the state, will be in the box for the Blues and from the way he has been going this season he stands a fine chance of giving the Clearyites a good cleaning.

Win Five Straight.

The Clearyites have won five straight now and are sure that they can continue to do so for some time to come if aspirations have anything to do with it.

George Nill took a good workout at the park yesterday and finds himself as good as ever. Cleary has decided to put him as the lead-off man of the crowd, with the speed demon Weberus in the second stall. Nill has everything he ever had and seems good for a long time yet and the coming of the star will help the Clearyites not a little.

Bartels, the shifty third sacker of the Clearyites, will quit the Sunday ball as he says it puts him on the hummer for work Monday. Bartels is suffering from an injured hip. Dornick will take Bartel's place. The game will start at 3 o'clock. The Blues are bringing with them almost all the town.

CHRISTIAENS ENTERS BIG HARVEST CLASSIC

Noted Foreign Driver Will Pilot His Sunbeam in Three Events.

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—The fourth entry for the three events in the harvest auto racing classic at the Indianapolis motor speedway on Sept. 9 adds the international touch which has not been lacking in any of the events ever raced on the big brick race course. Josef Christiaens is the first foreign driver to enter the 20, 50 and 100-mile events on the program and he will drive the English Sunbeam in which he has made a name for himself on the various tracks of America as well as in foreign countries.

The car is the same which raced first in New York last spring, then in the Decoration day race here last May and then at Chicago in June. Christiaens was in the money in all three events. He finished second to Aitken in the Coney island cup event at New York, fourth in the local event and third in the 300-mile race at Chicago.

The big Belgian soldier, aviator and race driver has proven his ability in many races and is a consistent money winner. He conserves his car and if unable to finish first at the pace set seems satisfied with second, third or fourth. The car is exceptionally fast and it should make a great showing in the short races.

The motor is a six-cylinder Sunbeam, manufactured by the English Sunbeam company. It has a bore of 3.21 inches and a stroke of 6.14 inches, giving a piston displacement of 299.8 cubic inches. The car is rather heavy, weighing 2,300 pounds, but the weight seems to give it a certain traction on the giant speedway curves which causes it to ride them easily at high speed.

Christiaens Powerful Man.

Christiaens is a powerful man with a wealth of racing experience. He also has seen service as an aviator and understands the gasoline motor thoroughly. His many victories and his ability to finish high in a majority of the races he enters should make him one of the favorites here.

With Christiaens will ride Frank Bill, the little Englishman who was with him in the 300-mile race here last May. Bill is a thorough mechanic and always succeeds in keeping things lively around the track with his quaint humor. He insists that the Sunbeam is the fastest thing on wheels.

The Sunbeam brings the total to four cars entered in the Sept. 9 event. Two Peugeots, with Aitken and Merz at the wheels, and the Ostewig Special with S. Ostewig driving, are the other entries received by General Manager T. E. Myers, of the speedway.

WESLEYAN LOSES CAPTAIN.

Delaware, O., Aug. 10.—It was announced Wednesday that Captain-elect John Miller, of Ohio Wesleyan football team, who is to graduate from Ohio Wesleyan university, now at Camp Willis in hospital service, will not take advantage of his discharge Sept. 1. He will remain in the service.

COAST TWINS DISPROVE THEORY THAT TWINS LACK VITALITY.

HARRY LAMPORT. WARREN LAMPORT.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 10—Twins are picked to furnish the thrills at the far western track and field meet to be held at the exposition Aug. 19.

The twins are the Lamport boys of Los Angeles, who disprove all theories that twins suffer in vitality and prove conclusively that both may be wonderful athletes.

For three years the Lamport boys were winners in their events in track and field sports at Manual Art school of Los Angeles. Both were hurdlers until Warren dislocated his knee in football, when he was changed to the sprints.

Harry Lamport has been captain of the Manual Arts team for two years and won the state interscholastic championship, took firsts in the high hurdles, low hurdles and broad jump. In 1915 he placed in the hurdles, shotput and broad jump. Warren placed fourth in both sprints in the Southern California and state meets in 1915 and 1916.

The twins were mainly responsible for the two state championships won at Manuel Arts and both have won their school emblems in tracks and field sports. Warren was picked on the all-southern football team as halfback and Harry was chosen on the All-Los Angeles city team as end.

Harry Lamport now holds the world's interscholastic 220-yard low hurdle record jointly with Corey, of Lewis institute, Chicago, in the time of 0:24 2-5.

Both athletes are big fellows, weighing 185 pounds, and the resemblance is striking. They are just 19 years of age, and will matriculate at the University of California in the fall.

CHANEY-KILBANE, HURRAH!

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 10.—Henry L. Pletzer, manager of George Chaney, has signed articles for the Chaney-Kilbane championship bout Sept. 4, at Cedar Point, O., and sent them by special delivery to Promoter Matt J. Hinkel, at Cleveland, with a check for $1,000 as a forfeit. Pletzer made few corrections to the original agreement, over which dispute arose, simply making it plain that the boxers must wear five ounce gloves during the mill, that he shall receive $50 forfeit should Kilbane weigh more than 122 pounds, and that the pugs step upon the scales thirty minutes before they are called to the center of the ring for final instructions.

SCRAPPERS GET LAY-OFF.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—Chester Thomas, the Boston Americans' catcher, and Jimmy Austin, third baseman of the St. Louis Americans, were indefinitely suspended Wednesday by President Johnson for their participation in a fist-fight at St. Louis Sunday.

The suspension of Thomas is considered a blow to the Red Sox in their crucial series with the White Sox, which began Tuesday.

ANOTHER NO-HIT PITCHER.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Harry Seibold, of Wheeling, pitched a no-hit no-run game against Muskegon. Five men reached first base, two as a result of errors, but none passed second.

BRICKLEY NOT A GOOD LOVER.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 10—It was reported here Wednesday that the engagement of Charles E. Brickley, noted Harvard football player, to Miss Agnes Coakley daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Coakley, of this city, has been broken.

Brickley is a former Harvard gridiron hero. He was captain of the famous Harvard eleven in 1914 and has been credited with being the best drop kicker ever developed. Since leaving college in 1915 Brickley has been in the insurance business. He lives with his family in Everett. Miss Coakley is 19 years old, and is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coakley.

COPS RELEASE HIM.

Durham, N. C., Aug. 10—Charles Novac, catcher for the Asheville club of the North Carolina league, was arrested here Monday, charged with an affray with Jack Corbett, of Toledo, manager of the Asheville club. The trial was held Wednesday but Novac did not appear in court. Corbett was found not guilty, as the clinching of the two men did not constitute an affray, according to the recorder. Novac was released by the club and left for Cincinnati.

PLAYER HIT BY BALL, DIES.

Jamaica, L. I., Aug. 10.—Martin Meyer, who was struck on the head by a pitched ball in a game here Saturday, and who was carried off the field when he became ill fifteen minutes later, died Monday from the effects of the blow.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10—Re-arrangement for the races of the Grand circuit meet now being held here, was announced Thursday. This was made necessary owing to the postponement of the local opening for two days because of rain. The principal event under the new arrangement was the 2:10 trot for a $1,000 purse, in which Director Todd, Esperanza and Guy Nella were among the starters.

"Pop" Geers Pilots a Winner in Postponed Races of Card.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10—Miss Harris M. won the William $2,000 purse, the feature event of the Grand circuit race meeting which opened here yesterday after rain had prevented a start on the two preceding days. She took the race in straight heats, Billy Dale and the Savoy giving her little opposition. "Pop" Geers brought Bonington in a winner in the 2:08 trot. In the second heat Mirthful, who won the first heat, again took the lead and retained it until the final stretch when Geers shoved Bonington into first place and won by about a nead. The veteran driver also took the third heat in commanding fashion, which gave him the race.

Despite the heavy rains, the track was in fair condition. Summaries:

WHEN THE BIG STRIKE COMES

The people of this country will realize how much they depend on the railroad man. For years railroaders have been so matter-of-fact to us that we never give them a thought. Think of the engineers who through day and night speed us along and the dependence placed on their keen sight.

Good sight, or "20-20" as the railroaders say for perfect vision, can be had from the glasses Meigs, at 1012 Calhoun street, makes. They pass the 100% test for comfort and sight.

ICE FAMINE FEARED IN MANY CITIES

Chicago Dealers Refuse to Supply Gary and Other Communities.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 10.—Northern Indana will be without ice in its scores of huge storage houses within thirty days is the prediction of local dealers, who are alarmed at the heavy shipments to Chicago.

The Chicago companies already have cut off many northern Indana communities from their ice resources by refusing to sell supplies. Indiana ice is for Chicago, not for Indiana, local dealers have been told. Most of the storage houses are controlled from Chicago.

As a result of the Chicago companies' action in refusing to supply Indiana cities with ice, there is much distress in this region, especially in the foreign quarter of Gary, and prices have soared to $1.50 a 100 pounds. Formerly Chicago companies permitted Gary to have six cars a day, but this has been cut off. The ice that has reached the city has come by way of motor trucks sent into the country. Local dealers' contracts with Chicago companies have been broken. Gary's sole local source of supply is an artificial ice plant capable of making only fifty tons a day. On several days even the local hospital was unable to get ice, but aid was given the institution when volunteers agreed to "steal" ice from cars, enough being obtained for the fever wards.

Scores of Indiana ice cars pass through the city on the way to Chicago. Gary authorities are considering taking forcible possession of cars.

An endeavor will be made to establish a municipal ice house for the poor. It is feared motor trucks cannot bring in enough.

It is possible there will be an appeal to Governor Ralston and the Indiana state board of health, with a view of having the latter body intervene and prohibit exportation of ice from the state as a necessary protection for the public health.

CALLING FOR MARSHALL.

Kentucky. Democrats Ask Vice-President to Open Their Campaign.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 10.—Urgent requests from Kentucky democrats that he open the campaign for them at Winchester on Sept. 9 have caused Vice-President Marshall to waver a bit on his determination not to make any campaign speeches until the adjournment of the congress. At the request of Representative A. B. Rouse, chairman of the Kentucky speakers' bureau, the vice-president has reopened the matter with Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national speakers' bureau.

The vice-president is also working because of the insistent demand for his services in Indiana. It is stated that if the vice-president accepted all the invitations to speak in Indiana that he now has on hand, he would make a speech there every hour from now until election. He will probably arrange the whole matter by making one speech in the most important city of each congressional district.

To Be Located on North Side of Tracks, West of Osage Street.

Included in the improvements now in progress at the Nickel Plate west yards will be the removal of Yard Master Charles Lyons office building, which is also the home of the yard telegraph office, and the building just west of it, occupied as an office by Track Supervisor R. A. Blair to the north side of the tracks, west of the Osage subway and near the Lake Erie and Western tracks. The foundations for the buildings are already in. The space now occupied by the yard office and track supervisor's office buildings will be filled up to the grade of the yards and become a part of them some day. The old canal basin, east of the yard office, will also be filled up and added to the yards, but the time of doing this is not set. The transfer of the buildings to the north side of the yards will be accomplished soon, however.

UP TO THE WEATHER.

Nothing but Severe Storm Can Interfere with Electricians Saturday.

The committees having charge of the arrangements for the annual excursion to Cedar Point of the Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works has performed its duties well, and the success of the event in a numerical way is now up to the weatherman. A local shower will have no bearing, but a steady and heavy downpour at the time of the departure of the trains may cause some of the timid ones to stay home. So great is the interest in the event, however, that nothing will prevent it from being the largest excursion party to leave the city for many years. Arrangements have been made with the street car company to run cars earlier enough to give service to all who wish to reach the depot in that manner, the first cars starting at 4:45 in the morning. The trains leave at 5:30, 5:45, 6:00 and 6:15 o'clock, and provision has been made for all the cars necessary to handle the crowd. In addition to the train crews, the following members of the benefit association have been assigned to look after the safety and comfort of the excursionists to and from the excursion point: F. S. Walburn, on first train; Joseph Schwartzkopf, second train; George Harkenrider, third train, and William Bierbaum, fourth train. Local Ticket Agent Ray Phillips and Traveling Passenger Agent A. H. Breed will also be with the trains.

HORSESHOERS TO CELEBRATE.

Will Observe National Holiday by Blowout Aug. 19.

The holiday of the Master Horseshoers' National Protective association will be appropriately observed in Fort Wayne Saturday, Aug. 19, when an all-day picnic and athletic tournament will be held at Centlivre park, the local association being assisted by the horseshoers from Kendallville, Albion, Auburn and New Haven and from various points throughout the state. The program will include the following events:

Ladies' race—For wives of members belonging to the organization.

Ladies' race—For wives of members belonging to Journeymen Horseshoers' union No. 81.

A girls' race (any age).

There will also be a 100-yard dash for fat men; 100-yard dash for lean men.

Hammer-throwing contest.

Three-legged sack race.

Potato race, pole vaulting and numerous minor events.

In the afternoon the Fort Wayne Amateur Driving club will stage a matinee for the entertainment of the visitors and the city's leading horsemen have entered their steeds in the four events carded on the program.

TINSLEY TAKES UP NEW WORK.

Succeeds T. Titus as Motor Power Inspector.

C. M. Tinsley, of the Pennsylvania motive power department, has now assumed the duties of the position left vacant by promotion of Theodore Titus as electrical engineer a few weeks ago. Mr. Tinsley is a graduate of the mechanical engineering course of Mississippi College of M. & A., graduating in June, 1913, at which time he entered the service of Pennsylvania company as special apprentice. In addition to the special apprentice course he has developed considerable special work, including an investigation of the southern valve gear. Mr. Tinsley's present title will be motive power inspector.

WILL INSTALL DISPENSARY.

The officials of the Knitting Mills company have decided to install a hospital system at the plant similar to that in operation at the General Electric works. Rooms on the second floor of the main building are to be fitted up and a trained nurse will be employed. At the General Electric works, Mrs. Nora Lee Turner, the trained nurse, has an average of over forty patients daily, each accident, no matter how trivial, and each case of sickness among employes receiving first aid from her. Very few of the cases are serious enough to require medical or surgical attendance.

HAS FOOT CRUSHED.

M. E. KIDNAPING CHARGE ERASED BY MARRIAGE

James Malotista and Jennie Granatempo, 14, the pair taken by police from a house on Melita street two weeks ago after Chicago police had ordered the arrest of Malotista on a charge of kidnaping the girl, are to be married. They were returned to Chicago last week, from whence Malotista was said to have forced the girl to come to Fort Wayne at the point of a revolver. White slave proceedings against the Italian were threatened by government officials.

The couple were taken before Judge Flanagan in Chicago Wednesday afternoon. The girl denied that she had been kidnaped or had been forced to leave Chicago with Malotista. She said they were soon to be married. Malotista admitted that was true. Judge Flanagan continued the case until Aug. 30. He will have the case dropped if the pair are married then.

Fort Wayne police had been asked to locate Malotista's trunk which he had left at a railroad depot here, they said, and which was believed to hold the revolver he had used to threaten the girl. Police found the trunk, but there was no revolver in it. A long, slender dirk knife and a heavy lead slug were packed in the trunk, however.

WHEAT CONTINUES ON ITS UPWARD CLIMB

But Fluctuations as a Rule Did Not Exceed the Usual Limits.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Notwithstanding that the wheat market overtopped at times today the highest prices of the previous session, trading was relatively contracted in volume and the fluctuations as a rule, did not exceed the usual limits. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½c decline to 2c advance with September at $1.43@1.44 and December at $1.48@1.48½ were followed by a material setback all around and then a rise to well above yesterday's finish.

Word of scattered showers had a bearish effect on corn. After opening ½@1½c lower, the market underwent a further sag, but later rallied to a moderate extent.

Heavy selling weakened oats. Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions.

Caution seemed to be the watchword today among wheat speculators, and there was a return to something like normal conditions greatly in contrast with yesterday's feverish excitement and skyrocket course of prices. Opening quotations today ranged from ½c decline to an advance of 2c, the latter confined to the May option with September at $1.43@1.44 and December at $1.48@1.48½. Many traders inclined to the view that the advance in prices had sufficiently discounted for the present all the crop damage in sight.

ADVANCING MOVEMENT RESUMED

New York, Aug. 10.—Yesterday's advancing movement was resumed in more moderate degree at the opening of today's market, gains of fractions to a full point being recorded by various specialties, including shipping shares, munitions and equipments, motors and Consolidated Gas. There were fairly large offerings of United States Steel, Reading and other speculative favorites, slightly above or under final prices of the preceding session. Trading was active and broad with variable recession before the end of the first half hour due to realizing for profits.

Transactions of the first hour approximately 250,000 shares, exceeded the entire output of some recent sessions. Declines of the usual character of profit taking were followed by a fresh inquiry which carried leading issues, notably Reading, to higher levels. There was another and more moderate reversal in the second hour, with considerable dimunition of activity. United States steel wavered, probably in anticipation of an indifferent July tonnage statement.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The western disturbance has moved eastward to the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, and a moderate high area has developed over northwestern sections. In connection therewith local showers have occurred in widely separated areas in the Rocky mountain region, and in central, southern and eastern localities, with heavy falls in parts of Arkansas, Missouri, Tennessee and Florida. Seasonal temperatures prevail in southern and central districts, but as a result of the development of the western high area temperatures have fallen decidedly from the eastern slope of the Rockies westward to the coast, and frost has occurred at Edmonton, Alberta, with a temperature of 32 degrees.

REGARDS BABY BONDS AS HIS INSURANCE

"Because of an illness of some years ago," said a local business man, "I have had some trouble in securing the kind of a sick and accident policy I desire and I now invest the same amount as I would pay for the premium on such a policy in Baby Bonds with the expectation of exchanging them together with the accumulated interest for one $500 bond as soon as I hold enough to reach that figure."

Baby Bonds are in $10 denominations, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate and bear 6 per cent. interest. There are, also, some $500 bonds with the same security and the same rate of interest. For further details see the Wildwood Sales company, Shoaff building.

The disturbance that is now passing over the Mississippi valley will move eastward and be followed by a general change to cooler weather over the middle plains states and upper Mississippi valley within the next 24 to 36 hours, and the lower Ohio valley and upper lake region within the next 36 to 48 hours. It is probable that this change to cooler weather will terminate the prolonged period of abnormal temperatures over the middle west.

AN EASY WAY TO GET FAT AND BE STRONG

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams" or following some foolish physicial culture stunt, when the real cause of thinness goes unto... You cannot get fat until your digestion assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the checks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Dreier Drug Co., D. & N. Pharmacy, The Family Drug Store and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about usisng it unless a gain of weigh tis desired.—Advertisement.

SAYS PROGRESSIVES VOTE AS THEY WISH

Indianapolis, Aug. 10.—Matthew Hale, of Massachusetts, who, as acting chairman of the progressive national committee, presided at the progressive national conference in this city last week, has indicated that he will support President Wilson in this campaign, according to New York dispatches today. This announcement, following on the heels of the similar announcement of J. A. H. Hopkins, the New Jersey progressive chairman, who served as secretary of the Indianapolis conference last week, has aroused suspicion that an effort is being made to swing to Wilson the Indianapolis conference remnant of the party, which was left after George W. Perkins had driven through the Hughes endorsement at Chicago. It is expected that Bainbridge Colby, who was conspicuous as one of the leaders in the Indianapolis conference, will come out for Wilson in the next few days.

Lee Not Disturbed by Reports.

E. M. Lee, the Indiana state chairman, who was made by the Indianapolis conference, chairman of the committee of fifteen which was instructed to carry on a vigorous fight for progressive electors in a selected number of states this fall, and to take steps to perpetuate the party, was undisturbed by the reports from the east.

"I think," said Lee, "that Hale, Hopkins, and even Colby, if he should join them in lining up for President Wilson, are consistent, and that there should be no suspicion directed, by their acts, to the sincerity of our decision to keep the party alive and make vigorous campaigns for progressive presidential electors in those states where we can make such fights. In Hale's state, Massachusetts, and in Hopkin's state, New Jersey, and also in New York, where Colby lives, there are no tickets of progressive presidential electors. They can not vote the progressive ticket, so there is no reason why they should not come out for any set of electors that is offered, and at the same time come into Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, Louisiana and other states and campaign for our progressive state tickets and electors. This they will do."

Names Are Not Announced.

Lee was asked whether Hale had announced the names of the nine members completing the committee of fifteen which is to perpetuate the progressive party and direct this fall's campaign.

"No," he replied, "but he will within the next week or two, and we will probably have our first committee meeting about September 1 and perfect our campaign plans."

Author Wrote "My Mother" While Helping Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

"My Mother," a poem by Hervey Smith McCowan, of Dallas, Tex., inspiration for which came in Fort Wayne, was written by the author following participation in the field-day speaking preliminary to the opening of the Y. M. C. A. building campaign. He spoke at the First Presbyterian and Plymouth Congregational churches. It was Mothers' day and he opened his addresses that day with words of tribute to mother. Later he massed his remarks into a poem, which has come to be widely read and appreciated.

"The Letter He Was Ashamed Of" is Mr. McCowan's most recent work. It deals with relations of mother and son in letter writing. "The Trail of Boy Travels," one of the author's popular books, has passed the 200,000 mark in sales.

Mrs. John Langston, 1206 West Jefferson street, was prostrated after her testimony in police court Thursday morning and had to be helped from the courtroom. She wept constantly while on the witness stand because she did not want to tell of threats made by her husband.

"I am afraid of him when he carries a revolver and says mean things," she sobbed, "but other times he is all right."

Edgar Langston, son of John Langston, was prosecuting witness in the case and had signed the affidavit for his father's arrest. He said Langston had threatened to throw him out of the window and had said he would shoot his son and wife.

A new Colt's automatic revolver was taken from Langston's pocket when he was arrested at the electric light plant Wednesday afternoon. He had purchased the weapon in Huntington two weeks before. He got it because he is "a great hand for guns," he told the court.

Judge Kerr bound Langston over to circuit court under $500 bond.

Langston has been out of prison at Michigan City but three months. He was sent up for stealing chickens. He had served a year and three months. Police had heard that he intended to shoot people who had testified against him at his former trial and that he went to Huntington to purchase the powerful weapon so that Fort Wayne authorities would not know he had it.

Relates Life of Jersey Cow.

A grey Jersey cow, gaunt and mild-eyed, that has spent the past six years of her life at the end of a twenty-foot rope out on the commons in the region of Federal Park place and Cour street was the subject of lengthy discussion in court.

From the first warm breath of spring until the snow swirls in late fall the gentle animal has lived on the open lots and sometimes trampled gardens, six indignant residents of the neighborhood related. Sometimes she raised her plaintive voice in a call for water. Through sunshine and beating storms, day and night, during all summer months she has been a fixture of the landscape, the citizens told.

They filed an affidavit and brought the matter into police court. The owner of the cow said they were "troublemakers" and were "mean." He agreed to "swap" or sell the cow before Saturday.

Freeman Case Not Decided.

For the third time Peter Freeman, his head turbaned in bandages, came from his cell and took a place in the prisoners' row Thursday morning. He will do the same thing Friday morning. His case has not been decided yet.

Freeman was arrested Monday night at his home at 942 East Wayne street. He had a razor in his hand with which he was menacing Theodore Shilling, his brother-in-law. Freeman was locked up on a charge of disorderly conduct. He brought a hammer and wrench with him to jail and displayed them before the court as the objects with which his brother-in-law had struck him. Freeman's head is badly cut and his arm bruised.

Shilling was in court Thursday and testified that Freeman had attacked him with a chair. Freeman was drunk at the time, Shilling told. Judge Kerr will decide the case Friday, he said.

Colored Boy Hurt Himself.

The state did not make a case in the trial of Walter Walford, colored, 232 Melita street, charged with assault and battery on his son, Booker T. Walford. The boy has a dislocated shoulder and broken left arm. Testimony showed that the lad injured himself when he ran from the house, after his father had whipped him with a small cane, and struck the corner of a grocery store near the house. The boy hit his shoulder on the corner and was knocked down, testimony revealed.

The son said that his father was living with a woman not his wife and the lad did not like to stay in the house with the woman. The case will be left open until Saturday. Police will investigate conditions in the home in the meantime.

Seven Boys in Court.

Seven boys, from the ages of 15 to 20, filed in and filled a row of seats when the docket was called. Three of them carried rolls of bedclothes. They had been brought to the station from Old Fort place at 2:30 Thursday morning. Police had found them prowling around the neighborhood and had locked them up.

The boys went there to sleep because of the hot weather, they said, only they did not know it would be so cold. They gave their names as Grover Mathews, 1305 Elida street; Ralph Hollands, Fairfield avenue; John Speidell, 615 Harrison street; John Gordon, Floyd Taylor, Joe Barr and Hugh Swartwood. Kerr gave them a severe lecturing and turned them loose.

Other Police Court Cases.

Floyd Smith and Joseph Carr, charged with selling liquor to minors, will be tried on August 15. Witnesses could not be in court Thursday.

Evelyn Haines, taken in a "redlight" raid Monday morning, was granted continuance of her case until Aug. 14.

Coleman Brown, charged with assault and battery on his mother-in-law, will be tried next Tuesday morning.

Charles Bailey was fined $5 and costs and John Condron $1 and costs after pleading guilty to intoxication charges. Jacob Openheimer, convicted on a drunk charge, was placed on probation until Aug. 31. Eli Coumbacker, blacksmith, of Ossian, will be tried Friday on a drunk charge.

HAVE REPAIRED CELL.

The cell from which William Schidler, 22, and Joe Reimerski, 21, escaped from the city jail Sunday night, has been repaired. A kit of blacksmith tools, including two large sledges, were used to force the twisted iron bars into shape again. The young men broke from the cell by prying the bars loose with a large oak plank, wrenched from the cell bench. No trace of either of the men have been found by the police. All large cities have been notified and a sharp lookout is being kept in three states for the loud gray suit worn by Schneider. He is charged with burglary and escaped from both the county and city jails last week. Reimerski is a parole violator.

BITTEN BY DOG.

Reo Swager, who lives at the corner of Gay street and Creignton avenue, reported to the police Thursday that he had been bitten by a dog while riding his motorcycle on Smith street, Wednesday night. The animal ran from in front of 2122 Smith street, he said, and grabbed his foot. A physician is caring for the wound which consists of a rent two inches long in Swager's left ankle. He asked that the dog be killed.

TWO SMALL FIRES.

A high board fence, fired by sparks from burning rubbish in the alley, was blazing merrily when firemen arrived at 533 Wallace street in answer to a still call Thursday morning. A few minutes later the dumping grounds back of the electric light works was found to be on fire. There was little damage in either case.
